

MOVIE GOSSIP

Sylvia Breamer, one of the trio of featured players in "The Man With Two Mothers," (Mary Alden and Cullen and the others) coming to the Liberty theatre for two days, beginning Friday, was born in Australia, the daughter of a commander in the British navy. Her first stage appearance was at the age of fifteen years, in 1914, in Australia under the management of I. C. Williamson.

agement of three days, turned the tables on a party of real western cowboys one day during the filming of the picture.

Monroe Salisbury is at his best in the role of "Silent" Duval, in "The Great Alone," which was written and directed by Jacques Jaecard. Salisbury plays the role of a half-breed who has been educated at Stanford university, and later sent to the North by his guardian as secret agent for the guardian's firm.

What is declared to be one of the best productions will begin an engagement at the Grand Theatre on Saturday. It is entitled "Wife Against Wife" and is a screen version of George Broadhurst's popular stage play, "The Price."

The Grand Theatre promises its patrons an attraction next Saturday that can be listed as an event inasmuch as it occurs so rarely these days. It is a new Charles Chaplin comedy.

day that can be listed as an event inasmuch as it occurs so rarely these days. It is a new Charles Chaplin comedy. "Pay Day" is the title of its latest, described as a galaxy of fun with new gags and novelties to add hilarious mirth to the star's inimitable work.

There were no photographers to record the dress and customs of the day when the barbarians overthrew Rome. Nevertheless, Cecil B. DeMille has produced an historically faithful reproduction of this for his latest Paramount picture "Manslaughter," coming to the Oregon Theatre Saturday evening.

It is almost inconceivable that such actresses as Gloria Swanson and Betty Compson were grounded in the slap-stick school and in deed one's credulity is tried to even a greater extent at the news that the stately, dignified oesmary Theby, appearing in "Rich Men's Wives" at the Oregon theatre, received her first recognition in the broadest sort of farce that movies know.

An expeditionary force from Universal City claims the distinction of being the first to film Montezuma's castle of the cliff dwellers in Arizona. Scenes for "The Galloping Kid," Hoot Gibson's latest Universal starring vehicle, directed by Nat Ross, which comes to the Bligh theatre next Sunday and Monday, were photographed at the ancient Aztec stronghold. The castle is said to be a thousand years old and a model of adobe architecture.

"My Dad," a thrilling drama of the snow lands, in which Johnnie Walker even excels his brilliant performance as the "black sheep" in "Over the Hill." "My Dad" will be shown at the Oregon Theatre on Friday.

Wm. S. Hart filmed some of his most important scenes for "Branding Broadway" on that historic thoroughfare of New York. The picture, which his being shown at the Bligh Theatre Friday and Saturday, was started in Hollywood and finished in Manhattan. And it is an absolute novelty with a wealth of comedy and much drama as well.

The Hickman Bessey Stock Co. featuring Miss Virginia Stanton will play a return engagement at the Bligh Theatre tonight and tomorrow night presenting a four act rural comedy drama "The Country Girl."

BOAT WAS NOT FOR PURPOSE THOUGHT

California Auto Party Not Toting it for an Ark, as Was Supposed

A big automobile was seen on Salem streets yesterday bearing a California license and Salemites were amazed to see a light constructed row-boat strapped upside down on top of the automobile—a life boat as it were.

It was decided that these Californians, believing all they had heard about the Oregon rains at this season of the year, had come equipped for any emergency, or else they had heard about the Harrisburg ferry and didn't propose to take any chances. However, the boat and automobile were dust covered and the neighbors from the South were agreeably surprised to find the weather as balmy as the Los Angeles brand.

It was later ascertained that the California automobile carried a company of sportsmen who had been hunting and fishing on the shores of the numerous lakes and streams of the northwest.
