STORM SWEEPS ENTIRE WEST
Rain, Snow and Sleet Play Havoc With Communication at Many Points
 SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—Storms which since Saturday have brought rain, snow and sleet to western states, playing havoc with communication and isolating many communities showed only slight indications of abating tonight. Where storm conditions have subsided the effects still largely remained.
 In Pacific coast states the forecast was for more rain and gales, according to G. G. Willson, district forecaster for the United States weather bureau. High wind warnings have been posted along the coast from San Francisco to Taosoh, Wash. The storm is expected to reach southern California tomorrow.
 The Western Union Telegraph company tonight reported their wires to be in working condition, but the telephone companies were experiencing considerable difficulty still in making connections with Denver, Colo., Colorado Springs and Pueblo, Colo.
 Associated Press wires were normal tonight in the west, but only limited service between San Francisco and Chicago was available. Reconstruction crews were working over the west repairing wire damages and promised virtually normal conditions within another 24 hours.
 It rained intermittently in San Francisco throughout the evening. An inch of rain fell during the day.

BUSINESS MEN GO ONE BETTER
Asked to Close Three Hours Armistice Day, They Make it Half-Longer
 When the American Legion and kindred organizations took up the matter of a proper observance of Armistice day, it was proposed to ask the Salem business men to close the stores for three hours in observance of the national day. The Business Men's league made it three and one-half hours, to cover all the exercises of the day, including the parade and the public program at the armory.
 The stores are to be closed during this three and one-half hours, more time than the committee asked for, and a devery effort is to be made to have the observance a genuinely patriotic tribute to the great event of the day. Because November 11 falls on Saturday, it was thought not feasible, both by the committee and by the general public, to make it a full-day observance. The effort made to have it a sincere tribute while it does last—and then get back to work to make America a better place to live in.

Bank Official Accepts Appointment as Examiner
 SPOKANE, Nov. 6.—Resignation of Charles C. Otto as vice-president of the Fidelity National Bank here to accept reappointment as national bank examiner for the twelfth federal reserve district was announced tonight.
 Mr. Otto had been with the Fidelity since September, 1920, and during that time had been secretary of the Washington State Bankers' association one term. Prior to joining the local bank, he had been a national bank examiner for eight years, most of his work having been done in the northwest. The resignation is effective Wednesday.

Remainder of Cabinet Announced by Bonar Law
 LONDON, Nov. 6.—Premier Bonar Law today announced the appointment of the remainder of the government. He has decided that his cabinet, including, shall consist of 16 members. This will be the smallest cabinet of recent years except the war cabinet, which was a kind of inner cabinet.
 The cabinet includes the minister of labor, which is a plain intimation that there is no intention to abolish the labor ministry.
 Right Honorable H. H. Asquith in a speech in London tonight, took occasion to deny rumors of a possible new alliance between the Asquithian Liberals and the conservatives in the event the conservatives fail to secure enough seats to command a majority in the new parliament. He described the idea of such an alliance as wholly fantastic.

Agitator Barred from Use of Portland School
 PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 6.—The school board today denied William F. Dunne, labor radical now at liberty under $10,000 bail on charges of violating the Michigan criminal syndicalism law, use of Lincoln high school auditorium for an address scheduled for tonight.
 Other earlier action of the board was reversed after all members had heard Mayor Baker, Otto Hartwig, president of the State Federation of Labor and W. E. Kimsey, secretary of the Central Labor council. Mayor Baker appealed to the board to reconsider its action of last Wednesday permitting Dunne to use the high school auditorium.
 Hartwig and Kimsey said that Dunne's addresses were known to be directed against the American Federation of Labor as well as the government.

 Election day, 8 to 8.
 Oregon will be either ruined or saved today, according to who has the floor.
 But congratulations will be exchanged tomorrow and the scheme of things will go on about as usual.
 President Harding has the biggest job of his administration on his hands. He must get congress together and secure the passage of a ship subsidy bill, or some kind of a bill that will keep the stars and stripes on the oceans, in the trade routes.
 That is America; and it is a

Candidate for City Marshal
 Efficiency — Economy — and a Square Deal to All
Vote 52 x WALTER W. BIRTCHET

In asking your support of my candidacy for the office of Chief of Police, I do so realizing that your desire is to secure the greatest degree of protection for the lives and property of yourself and your family. I sincerely feel that this office is one of utmost importance, intimately linked with the safety of every citizen.

My seventeen months of experience on the force, in every branch of the service, have fitted me to a great degree to be familiar with the problems which would confront me in the capacity as its head, should I be honored by elevation to the position. An officer it has been my effort to conduct myself with that degree of courtesy and consideration I would like to have accorded to myself from anyone in a like position. As Chief of Police I will continue to give such service as will make Salem a better place to live in for every man and woman, whether a resident here or an information seeking stranger.

I bespeak your aid with the knowledge that you will never regret, through any official act of mine, any assistance you may give me.

(Paid Adv.)
 Sincerely yours
WALTER W. BIRTCHET, For City Marshal
