

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Collision Does Little Damage—Robert S. Claxton of Shaw collided with one of Spaulding's wood wagons at Court and Church streets yesterday morning. Little damage was done.

For Loans See—G. W. Laffar, 417 Oregon Bldg.

Kells Goes East—Secretary Claude A. Kells is to leave this morning for Atlantic City, N. J., to attend the triennial international convention of the Y. M. C. A. This is the 41st international convention. They are held only every three years. The board of directors of the Salem Y. M. C. A. met yesterday, authorized his going. He will be gone for almost three weeks.

Women Wanted—Steady work in apples. Starr Fruit Products Co., Church and Mill streets.—Adv.

Another Petty Theft—E. J. Mangus of 1890 South High street reported that a Fisk tire and rim were stolen from his car while standing in front of his home last night.

Pony Strays Away—Mrs. Elsie Elsaman of 1192 South Sixteenth street reported that a little brown Shetland pony strayed from her home sometime yesterday. Mrs. Elsaman is city police matron.

Wiggins Writes Article—Donegan Wiggins of Salem Heights has an interesting article in the November number of Hunter, Trader and Trapper, published at Columbus, Ohio. The story is that of the Sharp's rifle, that practically reclaimed the west from the buffalo and the Indians. It is a fascinating story, that of the heavy old single shot arms that used to be the ambition of the pride of every plainsman who could see far enough to shoot game or men. Mr. Wiggins owns a fine collection of the Sharp's rifles, and the article in question is illustrated by photos from his arsenal in Salem.

Information—Regarding present address of Miss L. Pollock formerly of 345 Union street would be appreciated by the H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Adv.

Officers Turn Cowboys—A cow insisted on bothering the residence of Mrs. Tallent, of 1090 Cross streets, yesterday afternoon. Officers Parrent and Shelton were dispatched to make an investigation.

Jack's Cafe—163 S. Com. St. A good place to eat. Tables and counter.—Adv.

Eight Lots Remain—Twenty-six out of the total of 34 lots in the new Highway Addition on North Capitol street have been sold or guaranteed. This leaves only eight lots to be disposed of, when the original titles can be taken up and new deeds issued to all the new purchasers. Fred Erixon, the promoter of this no-profit, road-opening public enterprise, hopes to have the last lot cleared out within the next few days. The lots were bought as acreage and are sold at actual cost to get the Capitol's street road opened.

Boys Organize—At an organization meeting at the Y.M.C.A. Tuesday night, four groups of cadets, the younger boys, were organized for a full winter's campaign of study and sport. Leaders were chosen, following the plan that proved so successful last year, from the association workers in Willamette university who are already doing class or teaching work in the association. They are Everette Lisle, James Reed, Harold Richards and Claire Ausman. Captain was selected from the boys themselves, Wesley Hisey, Ivan Kafoury, Duane Kirk and Edward Lee. The boys plan to put on a vigorous series of competitive sports and social events that will run most of the winter.

Women Wanted—Steady work in apples. Starr Fruit Products Co., Church and Mill streets.—Adv.

Ritter Will Speak—A. R. Ritter of Portland, president of the Portland Realtors' board, and also president of the Northwest Realtors' association, is to be a guest and speaker at the Marion county Realtors' dinner tonight at the Marion. There was no dinner yesterday, because of the bigger social event the night following. Secretary Zimmerman, also of the Northwest association, and a number of members of the Portland organization, are expected, also, State Insurance Commissioner A. C. Barber will attend, and is on the program. It promises to be the biggest business and social event in the history of the Salem organization.

Indian School Entertainment—E. Cooke Patton and Frank L. Wager will make their first appearance tonight as professional magicians at the Salem Indian school. The performance will commence at 8 o'clock; everyone is invited. Admission price, 25c. A great treat is promised, as new magical novelties will be presented.—Adv.

Dinner Served—At the meeting of the Salem high school graduates' club, held at the Y.M.C.A. hall Wednesday night, dinner was served by Misses Miriam Lovell, Leith Kuhn, Catherine Vincent and Margaret Pierce. The young women themselves are also graduates of Salem high, and are taking the same interest in the club work as the 15 young men who started it.

Salem Public Library—Will hold story hour for the little folks Friday at 4 p. m. and for older children on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Hood River Reports—Hood River county is the first county in the state to file its completed election returns with secretary of state. Ordinarily Sherman county is the first to report in. Because of the short ballot it is believed all counties will have reported within two weeks.

School to Have Lights—Electric lights were installed in the Liberty school, south of town, Thursday, getting ready for the coming of the short, dark days of winter. The Liberty district boasts of the highest priced rural school teacher in the county, and claims to have one of the very best, most progressive schools anywhere. The school house is in a grove of trees, that are so fine for the rest of the year that the board doesn't want to cut them down; but they are dark in winter time. The electric lights are for day school use, and not for night to supply some of the light that the trees shut off.

Big Potato Exhibited—A potato that stands out in an ordinary potato field like Goliath among the Lilliputians, is being shown in one of the windows on State street. It was grown on the Cottage farm, the state property near Salem, and measures 14 inches in length and weighs 4 1/2 pounds. It is of remarkably regular shape, not a sprangly monstrosity as is usual with potatoes of anything near that weight, and is attracting much attention.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Hawley at Chema—Congressman Willis C. Hawley is to be a guest of the Salem Indian school today, to speak to the school assembly and to dine at the domestic science department of the school. He has been much interested in the welfare of the school. He expects to leave for Washington early next week.

Berry Meeting Deferred—A "Six Cent" loganberry growers' meeting that was set for Thursday night at Brooks, was postponed because of the inclement weather and the illness of several of those who had been promoting the movement. It is to be called later, perhaps the early part of next week, if the weather and other conditions make it seem advisable. Announcement will be made when the date is decided.

Kuser Speaks Today—Superintendent W. L. Kuser, of the Oregon Training School for Boys, is to be the principal speaker at the Lions club luncheon today noon at the Marion hotel. The Lions have undertaken the job of putting over the Boy Scouts' financial program for this winter, and they wanted a little information about boys in general. Mr. Kuser is a nationally known authority on the boy problem, and he is to tell the Lions just what to do and what to say in talking about boys. Joseph Nee, a Willamette university musician, is to sing for the occasion.

Women Wanted—Steady work in apples. Starr Fruit Products Co., Church and Mill streets.—Adv.

Elks Attention!—All Elks are requested to meet at the club rooms Saturday Nov. 11 (Armistice day) to take part in the parade. Wear your Elks cap or get one at the Hall. Parade leaves our headquarters at 12:45 p. m. All Elks be sure and be there. By order of David Drader, exalted ruler.—Adv.

Transients Given Beds—A number of transients were given accommodations by the police last night. Those receiving beds were L. E. Morgan, L. R. Stevens, Carl White, E. Burchfield, M. Titus, Thomas Burton, James Mullen, repeater, H. Unden and L. McPhee.

Prepare for Memorial—At the Elks lodge last night the first arrangements were made for the annual Elks' memorial, the first Sunday in December, by the appointment of a committee

His family lives in McMinnville. Oregon City Wednesday night. W. C. Hawley, member of congress from this district, was in school tonight.

It's the Zero Day that Sells Sunbeams
When the thermometer is below zero, when the cold winds are howling outside, when a warm, comfortable home is a luxury—then is when you'll most appreciate the dependable action of the Sunbeam Furnace. It's the zero day—the true test of a heating plant—that sells the "Sunbeam System".
Ordinary heating plants will give you satisfactory service when the days and nights are mild, but you want a furnace with the ability to deliver "extreme weather service".
With a Sunbeam Furnace in your cellar you are sure of constant, dependable, helpful warmth in every room in the house in the severest kind of weather and you get this good service coupled with remarkably low fuel costs.
There's a Sunbeam Furnace—either Pipe or Pipeless—that will exactly meet your requirements. May we show it to you? Come in without delay—today or tomorrow.
