

M'ADOO FLAYS METHOD USED

Extraordinary Political Defeat Laid to Disregard of Public Interests

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—Republican leaders "failed to correctly interpret the sentiment and opinion of the country," and the party "sustained one of the most extraordinary political defeats in the history of the nation," William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury said in a statement made late today.

The statement follows in part: "The Republican party has sustained one of the most extraordinary political defeats in the history of the nation. Its leaders failed to correctly interpret the sentiment and opinion of the country."

Morality Lacking
"The administration has given us a wholly materialistic and soulless America. It has been devoid of political morality, as evidenced by its wholehearted support of the seating of Newberry. It has made no appeal to the conscience and spiritual forces of the nation."

"This is serious enough but its economic policies have been equally mistaken."

"The Fordney-McCumber tariff bill is indefensible; the new income tax law was a discrimination against the great body of taxpayers for benefit of the favored few. Its callous disregard of the interests of the farmer, the laboring man and of the great mass of consumers was in glaring contrast to its favoritism to the trusts and powerful interests which have dominated its policies and consistently controlled its action. Its hopeless and uninspiring theory of American isolation has caused grave injury to our material interests and international influence."

Policies Called Narrow
"The administration has been reactionary, narrow, provincial and uninspiring from the outset. It has made no appeal to the great moral and spiritual forces without which no nation can endure. Defeat was therefore inevitable."

MISS DALGLEISH DIES AT HOSPITAL

Esteemed Salem Woman Passes Away After Nine Years of Illness

Miss Lizzie Dalglish, well known Salem resident who has been an invalid for more than nine years, died last night at the Deaconess hospital. Miss Dalglish was 62 years old and had made her home with an aunt, Mrs. W. F. Boothby until the time of the latter's death 12 years ago when she went to live with Supreme Judge and Mrs. John McCourt, with whom she has since made her home. Mrs. McCourt is a cousin of Mrs. Dalglish.

Other surviving relatives include three cousins, Mrs. Carrie D. Balkie, Mrs. Fay Wilkerson and W. F. Boothby, all of Portland, also an aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Dalglish of Portland.

During her active life in Salem, and even after she had become handicapped physically, Miss Dalglish was an active and helpful woman in all good works. Among the older residents of Salem, she was a favorite, and the news of her passing will be received with sadness by all of them.

Miss Dalglish was the victim of paralysis and for more than nine years was unable to walk. She has been at the Deaconess hospital for the last three months. The funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 o'clock from Rigdon's.

Sir Thomas Lipton will give a cup to the winner of the fishermen's race off Gloucester, Mass., next August. But it is not the America's cup. Tom never got his fingers on that.

MRS. PHILLIPS' STORY DENIED

Witness Declares She Saw Defendant in Murder Case Purchase Hammer

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Clara Phillips' story of the purchase of the hammer with which Mrs. Alberta Meadows was slain was contradicted today by a "surprise" witness in her trial for murder.

The defendant testified that Mrs. Peggy Caffee, state witness, bought the hammer the day before the slaying, declaring she was going to "use it on her husband." Mrs. Caffee swore that Mrs. Phillips purchased the implement.

Defendant Refuted
Today Mrs. A. W. Crandall took the stand as a rebuttal witness and declared she was present in a downtown store the day before the slaying and saw Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Caffee standing by a counter where hammers were sold.

Mrs. Phillips, according to the witness, picked up a hammer and asked the sales girl if it was the heaviest she had. When told it was, she said "do you think this is heavy enough to hit anyone in the head and kill them?" The witness said she did not hear the reply to this but immediately afterwards saw Mrs. Phillips take the hammer and pay for it.

After leaving the store Mrs. Crandall said she saw Mrs. Phillips on the street and that the latter gave her a "haughty look."

Witness Indignant
On cross-examination the witness said she read in a newspaper that Mrs. Phillips had accused Mrs. Caffee of buying the hammer and that this made her "indignant" and she told a neighbor of her knowledge of the case.

As Mrs. Crandall left the stand and passed the defendant the latter said to her in a loud whisper: "It is peculiar that you have to be so nervous in telling such a story."

Mrs. Crandall gave no indication she heard the remark.

RIVALS TO MEET ON NOVEMBER 17

Willamette and Pacific Are to Clash This Year at Forest Grove

If Pacific university and Willamette are to meet at Forest Grove Friday, November 17, to fight out their rivalry in football. Usually Willamette has won, but last year the Pacific team smashed all traditions and walloped the Bearcats unmercifully. They broke even in basketball, each winning one game. The football defeat, however, rankles in the Willamette mind, and this year they plan to take vengeance.

Coach Bohler is giving his men steady skull-work, with enough hard running to put them into good condition. The Bearcats will be outweighed from 5 to 10 pounds a man and they recognize that Pacific is a real team this year, from what they did with Oregon. On a comparative score basis, counting only Oregon, Pacific and Willamette, Pacific should win by a comfortable margin. But what the locals did to Whitman last week, after Whitman had played Oregon to a standstill, shows that the early Willamette team is gone, and a new and vastly superior organization has taken its place.

There is still a strong rivalry for places on the team, there being 30 men turning out regularly from whom to choose the final team.

Willamette has one big game at home, with the College of Puget Sound, on Thanksgiving day, November 30. There is one other game, with Linfield, at McMinnville, on November 24. It has been the lightest schedule in Willamette history for a number of years back.

Salvation Army to Have Armistice Day Program

The Saturday night meeting at the Salvation army hall on State street is to be of a patriotic nature in keeping with the day.

Captain A. M. Holbrook and Mrs. Holbrook are both officers who have seen action in the late World war. Mrs. Captain Holbrook miraculously escaped with her life when a shell exploded within two feet of her that was supposed to kill at 200 yards. She was ministering to the wounded at the field dressing station at Cheppy, France. This was a first division station. At the signing of the Armistice they were away up in the Argonne with the victorious Americans, near Buzancy.

J. S. VAN WINKLE PASSES AT ALBANY

Linn County Assessor and Brother of Attorney General Succumbs

Albany, Ore., Nov. 9.—James Starr Van Winkle, a brother of Attorney General I. H. Van Winkle, of Salem, died at his home here Wednesday. Death was caused by acute heart dilation. His widow, who was Miss Lida Hayes of Silverton, and five children survive.

Mr. Van Winkle as a student attended the preparatory department of Willamette university. He was for several years postmaster at Albany and at the time of his death was county assessor for Linn county. Mr. Van Winkle was a past master of the local Masonic lodge and a past patron of the Eastern Star and a member of the Knights of Pythias, W. O. W., Maccabees and A. O. U. W. He also was a brother of Dr. J. O. Van Winkle of Jefferson, formerly of Salem.

The funeral will be held Friday from the Methodist church with Rev. J. C. Spencer officiating.

All is in Readiness For Albany Meetings

Albany, Ore., Nov. 9.—Russell Rothgeb, secretary for Dr. Charles S. Price, visited Albany Tuesday and reported that he was greatly pleased with the way that the preparation work had been carried on by the local committee. He said that the arrangements were the most complete of any place where the evangelist had visited.

The work of installing the extra balconies in the armory building is about completed. Arrangements are also under way for an orchestra to augment the work of the large choir. Dr. Price brings his own pianist with him, and the music will be an attractive feature of the meetings. The first meeting will be on Sunday afternoon, November 12 at 2:30 o'clock, and thereafter every afternoon at the same hour and every evening at 7:30. These meetings have aroused widespread interest in other places where they have been held, not only because of the large number of converts, but also because of the large number of healings of bodily ills.

Secretary Hughes is said to have cut out tobacco entirely, although he did more or less smoking for thirty-five years. Possibly he is lining up for a smokeless America. Or maybe his women folks object to smoke in the lace curtains he carries. Exchange.
