CARAVAN WILL TOUCH AT SALEM

Big Line of Automobiles Will go from Portland to Game at Corvallis

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 13. — The Salem section of the auto caravan to Oregon Agricultural college will join the ranks of the main parade from Portland at 5:30 in front of the Marion hotel Friday, Nov. 17, and arrive in Corvallis in time to see the first event of Homecoming week-end—the "rook" bonfire. A second section of the caravan will be at the hotel at 10 o'clock Saturday. Each section of the caravan will have a brass band, and every car is expected to bring plenty of noise makers and orange and black decorations. The Portland O. A. C. club is sponsoring the parade, and the 50 cars in each section starting from East Eighth and Madison streets, Portland, will be joined by as many more on the road to Corvallis, predicts R. E. Riley, 84 North Broadway, Portland, in charge.

The route of the caravan is to be over the highway through Oregon City, Woodburn, Salem and Albany and reinforcements will be welcomed at any point en route.

A royal welcome will be accorded the travelers in Corvallis. Plans to meet the first section and conduct the visitors to the "rook" bonfire with the entire student body are being considered.

OLYMPIC DEFEATS MULTNOMAH CLUB

Superior Driving Power Enables California Organization to Triumph

PASADENA, Cal., Nov. 11. — Superior driving power and an accurate aerial attack enabled the Olympic A. C. of San Francisco to defeat Multnomah A. A. C. of Portland 20 to 9, on the new Pasadena stadium gridiron today before about 10,000 spectators.

Bradshaw and Savage starred for the San Francisco team with several long runs around the ends and off tackle. Right Tackle King scored a touchdown in the first period after Captain Williams blocked a Multnomah punt, and Bradshaw scored another in the second on a criss-cross run from the Multnomah ten-yard line. Both these scores were converted by drop kicks by King. A third touchdown was made in the final period by a forward pass over the goal line from the Multnomah eight-yard line. Bradshaw to House.

NOT CANDIDATE, SAYS DOWNING

Chairman of Democratic Committee Says He Hasn't Asked for Pen Job

"There is nothing to the story that I am slated for appointment as warden of the state penitentiary, or for any other office great or small," is the assertion of W. H. Downing, chairman of the Democratic central committee of Marion county, speaking of matters political.

"I have asked nothing, will ask nothing, and nothing has been asked for me or offered to me, from the newly elected governor of Oregon. Mr. Pierce says that he has gone into and through the campaign, absolutely without pledge to any one for any office."

Mr. Downing's father, George Downing, was warden at the state prison from 1890 to 1894. Henry Downing was a candidate for appointment following the campaign of 1902, when he as chairman and A. M. Dalrymple as secretary put over a ghastly surprise on the Republicans of the county by giving Chamberlain a majority in the county, and selecting him as governor. A hard fight developed for the wardenship between Downing and Frank Durbin, so hot a fight, that an outsider, C. W. James of Baker county, was finally selected. Mr. Downing was chairman again in 1906, and helped put over the Chamberlain renomination.

The Downing predictions before the recent election are still of interest for their accuracy. On a statement published in the Statesman, election day, but written out a week earlier, he claimed the county by 2,000 for Pierce and the state by more than 30,000. He claimed a substantial majority for the school bill. He claimed every precinct in Salem for Pierce. This last he missed slightly, for three of them fell him in the pinch. As a predictor, and apparently as a successful worker, Mr. Downing seems to hold the belt.

It has relayed factory-made canned music, the plinky-plink of the banjo and the cat-squall of the sax and the soaring soprano of the ambitious prima donna, and the oomp-pah of the big bass horn of the canned-up band. But never until last night had it sent out
