Celebration Draws Crowd—The Cherrian band that attended the Dallas Armistice day celebration reports a fine crowd and a wonderfully appreciative audience. The Dallas people turned out on mass to the patriotic exercises, and then had a football game and other attractions that made it a real day of rejoicing.

Preston Fined—C. B. Preston was fined $15 in the justice court yesterday for speeding.

Royal Dadman, Barton—This Friday, Nov. 17, 50c, $1, $1.50, $2 seats on sale Thursday, Armory 10 a. m.—Adv.

Judge on Crutches—Judge George G. Bingham observed Armistice day by taking part in the celebration, but he wishes that he had done it more moderately, or verbally and spiritually instead of with such physical strenuousity. While out in his wood-lot Friday, the day before the holiday, he stepped on a rain-soaked stick of timber, the bark of which slipped and gave him a fall that rather severely strained his left foot. Not realizing just how badly he was hurt, he marched Saturday in the Armistice parade, and the mile walk gave the injured foot another strain that has put him on crutches ever since.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

James Case Dismissed—The case of Fred James, accused of larceny during the state fair, which was scheduled for the justice court today, has been dismissed.

Hold-up Rumored—A report was circulated throughout the northwest last night that the Shasta Limited, fast Southern Pacific passenger train, had been held by robbers somewhere in the Willamette valley. No information of the kind had been received at the Southern Pacific depot. Both the northbound and the southbound Shastas pass through Salem between 5 and 7 o'clock p. m.

Noted Soldier Coming—Col. Dan Morgan Smith, commander of "The Battalion of Death," the first battalion, 358th

Infantry, 90th division, A. E. F., is to visit Salem Sunday and give his thrilling story of the war in the St. Mihiel sector where his command went in with 1120 men and came out with only 327. Colonel Smith is touring the country under the auspices of the World League Against Alcoholism, and his lecture, at the First Methodist church at 3 o'clock is free. He is said to be one of the most thrilling speakers on the American platform today.

KILPATRICK IS TO BE SPEAKER

University of Oregon Extension Man Scheduled for Federation Meeting

Earl Kilpatrick of the University of Oregon extension department, is to speak on "Community Sociology" at the Marion County Federation meeting at Liberty Friday night. The program opens at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Kilpatrick addressed the commercial secretaries at the big Eugene meeting during the past summer, and it made such an impression on Secretary Duncan of the Salem Chamber of Commerce that he asked the university man to come for the present engagement.

The people of Liberty are planning to make this one of the really big events in the history of the county federation, and they especially invite the people of Salem to come out. Twenty-three communities are represented in the federation, with fully half of them represented at almost every meeting, and sometimes almost every one on hand to be counted.

A report from the agricultural committee of the Salem Chamber of Commerce on the Corn Show that is planned to be held in Salem during December, will be made at the Liberty meeting. The committee consists of Charlie Abrams, chairman, with Harley White, Luther J. Chapin, Henry Crawford and Clarence Bowne as members. The committee will meet at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, tonight to decide on the plans, which will be made public Friday night.

MANY SUMMONED IN BERRY CASE

Witnesses Once More Tell Story Heard in Previous Trial

The case of The Phez company vs The Salem Fruit union and its individual members, the fruit growers, appeared in the circuit court to give testimony as to the contracts that existed between themselves and the fruit union and ThePhez buyers. The court held that the individual growers would not be bound in the case, though all testified for the fruit union. The supreme court reversed the decision, holding that the individuals should have answered in the lower court—and so, now, they are telling exactly the same story as they told in court in the fruit union trial, but this time they are speaking for themselves. They are testifying this week in their own behalf, since the supreme court has indicated that they should have to be dismissed on their own evidence.

A large number of witnesses, more than a score, were examined yesterday, and several more are to appear this morning. The defense expected to need about an hour and a half to finish the present introduction of testimony. The plaintiffs will then have some evidence to introduce in rebuttal, and the whole case should be finished this week.

The case is being tried by Judges Percy R. Kelly and George G. Bingham sitting together. There is no jury.

were "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," "The Open Secret" and "The Heart of Her." Her voice was a mezzo soprano of a pleasing quality and the singing was much enjoyed.

Among the artist pianists whose playing was heard at the concert were Harold Bauer, Paderewski, Hofman, Granger, Rosita Benard, Cadman, Cortot, and Winifred Byrd. The concert was well attended, those present including many prominent Salem musicians and others interested in music. The concert was given by the Moore Music store, agents for the Duo-Art piano.

Wife Given Divorce from Husband ex-Asylum Inmate

Julia Lyons was granted a divorce from Thomas E. Lyons in the circuit court yesterday and $700 alimony as well as $25 per month for the care of their two minor children.

Action for divorce was brought by Julia Lyons on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The petition alleges that Lyons has been thrice committed to the Oregon State hospital and that upon his third release he began to accuse her of infidelity, used profane and abusive language against her and made her life generally miserable.

The Lyons were married in 1898. The case was tried before Judge Bingham.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffing, blowing, headache dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed up with a cold or nasty catarrh.—Adv.
