

MOVIE GOSSIP

"One of the best shows they have given us yet" was the popular verdict of the large crowd that saw "The Girl of the Flying X," presented by the Hickman Bessey Stock company at the Bligh theater last evening. Mr. Hickman's character impersonation of a red-headed, freckled faced, stuttering cowboy is one of the funniest things that we have seen in months, and created a riot of laughter. This show will be presented again tonight and tomorrow night and it is expected that from the reception it was given last evening there will be a packed house each performance.

From seven in the morning till eleven at night makes up the normal working day for Charles Ray, screen star and producer, when he is working on a picture. During the screening of the film version of "A Tailor Made Man," the first of Mr. Ray's bigger and better productions under his new contract which is announced as the feature attraction for next Saturday evening at the Oregon theater.

"Stop Bruce, Remember Man's Law and God's—Thou shalt Not Kill!"

"Cameo" Brooks had caused the death of Bruce's mother—and now, as he had the man in his power, the voice of a new found love commanded—reminding him that he was a sworn officer of the law.

ter, this star put in from 14 to 16 hours daily.

House Peters has always played roles on the screen that were human and natural. Seeming to have a penchant for illuminating the commonplace with rays of his own vibrant personality he makes the ordinary seem attractive in human nature as he portrays it on the screen. The latest and most typically American of his roles is that of Tom Logan in "Human Hearts." It comes to the Oregon theater today as a de luxe attraction.

The struggle of two strong wills for supremacy is the theme of "A Rogue's Romance" which will be shown at the Bligh theater today and tomorrow. One is represented by Earle Williams, who portrays a super "Raffles," in Monsieur Picard, a famous French thief. The other is portrayed by that favorite of the screen, Rudolph Valentino. Valentino is cast as The Ferret, an Apache, dancer in a Parisian cafe. He represents the power of brute force and brawn. Williams on the other hand represents the cunning and craftiness of a polished crook, who does as much good as he does evil.

There are pictures which leave the spectator depressed, others that leave him with a problem on his mind, still others which leave him with a happy feeling so that when he leaves the theater he is full of the joy of living and the corners of his mouth curl upward with a smile. Of this latter class—very much of it—is "Man's Law and God's," in which Jack Livingstone and Ethel Shannon are starred. It is now being shown at the Liberty theater.

"Rose o' the Sea," Anita Stewart's attraction which is coming to the Liberty theater, is unusual for two reasons that are quite apart from the remarkable plot and capable direction which the picture presents. The first of these is the reappearance of Rudolph Cameron, former leading man, on the screen. The second is unique compact of a star having her own husband as leading man.

"Chuletas." You may have them and don't know it. They're not a new variety of small-pox, just very fancy sideburns, a feature of Rudolph Valentino's get-up as the foredoer here in "Blood and Sand," his first Paramount starring picture, a Fred Nibso production which is to open at the Grand theater for two days beginning Saturday.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream—Adv.

CLUBS AND WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

The 36th annual convention of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Oregon conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held Thursday and Friday of this week in Forest Grove. Mrs. William O. Shepard, president, will preside at the sessions. Other officers are Mrs. E. S. Collins, recording secretary; Mrs. G. H. Alden, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. K. P. Staples, treasurer.

Thursday morning will be devoted to reports by the heads of various departments. Japanese work will be the subject of the afternoon session, when Mrs. E. H. Garton will speak on the topic, "Our Japanese Work." Miss Olla G. Davis will report work done in the Portland settlement center and Mrs. A. B. Manley will outline plans for the center for the coming year. Miss Davis will be the speaker Thursday night and her topic will be "Our National Convention."

Election of officers and department secretaries is set for 9:15 Friday morning. The work of the old people's home at Salem will be told by Mrs. F. W. Selee, and reports of district corresponding secretaries will follow. A meeting of the executive board will be held at 1:30 o'clock.

R. A. Underwear Out Sizes For Women

Full figured women will find a special satisfaction in the out sizes of R. A. Underwear, both in unions and separate garments.

R. A. out size garments are full where fullness is needed without the usual bunching and so will resist strain and wear.

The outstanding features of all R. A. women's garments is the long, wide, curved gusset, which gives room and prevents gaping. No binding at the armholes, which are carefully tailored.

R. A. Children's Underwear is made full in the seat, to give freedom without strain, has special button holes that stay buttoned and is made of warm, durable fabric.

Ask the clerk to show you the Eight Points of Excellence of R. A. Underwear.

Mrs. W. F. Wright, who has been sick for several weeks, is not improving satisfactorily.

Charlie Pickett of Portland came Sunday morning to visit with his sister, Mrs. U. G. Hadley and family.

W. J. Hadley, who has been falling slowly all summer, became suddenly sick Sunday evening last, is improving and will be up in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wood of Salem motored out Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wood.

It is affirmed and denied that Sir Thomas Lipton is coming to the dear old United States to lift the America's cup. So far as results are concerned, it doesn't make much difference, but possibly his tea business needs the advertising.

Rupert Hughes says he got a handful of rejection slips in the early days of writing. Possibly the editors on the job now are as clever as their predecessors.
