

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Churchill Speaks Today—Superintendent J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools, is to be the speaker at the Kiwanis club luncheon today noon. He will choose his own subject, which is expected to be some phase of education in Oregon. Mrs. Ruth Emery Riddle, for years a star soloist in Chicago churches, is to sing for the day. The programs of the club are regularly good, but the one for today is especially interesting.

Chicken Dinner and Bazaar—At the Central church, 19th and Ferry, Tuesday evening, Nov. 21, 7:30. 40c.—Adv.

Two Collide—C. T. Riche of 2006 North Liberty street collided with W. C. Heise traveling south on Commercial street yesterday morning. The damage was reported slight.

Sheriff Visits Here—Sheriff Charles J. Springer of Walla Walla, is in the city conferring with Governor Olcott on official business connected with his department. While in the capitol city, Sheriff Springer, who has not been chosen by the Walla Walla voters to succeed himself in office, is a guest at the home of his nephew and niece Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rookstool.

For Loans Sec—G. W. Laflair, 417 Oregon Bldg.

Held to Grand Jury—Wayne Dimick and Earnest Crabtree, Portland men who after their recent arrest, confessed to the robbery of a Salem street car conductor and to other robberies, have been held to the Marion county grand jury. They waived preliminary hearing here.

Opens Thursday Night—Tom Mix in "Just Tony" at the Liberty.—Adv.

Speeders Fined—Two alleged speeders, O. G. Beggs of Medford and J. E. Gould of Salem were fined $20 and $10 respectively yesterday for speeding last Sunday.

More Beds Given—Beds were given to the following at the police station Sunday evening: Pearl C. Holladay, Harry Ludwig and Pat Weisch.

Opens Thursday Night—Tom Mix in "Just Tony" at the Liberty.—Adv.

Indians Escap—Two girls were reported to have escaped from the Indian school Sunday. Their names were given as Katherine Stokes aged 17, and Henrietta John, aged 15. Both were full-blooded Indians from Klamath county. Neither of them had any money at the time of leaving.

Dance—Friday, Nov. 24th, 8:30 p. m. Woodman of the World hall. Admission, 50c, extra ladies, 10c. Everybody welcome.—Adv.

Seven Accused of Speeding—Seven cases of speeders were brought before the justice court yesterday. The offenders were arrested by officers under T. A. Rafferty, state traffic chief. E. B. Wood of Portland pleaded guilty and was fined $15. Albert Hofford and Ira Roach were fined $15 and $20 respectively. H. E. Baloh of Salem pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for next Thursday. Others who will be tried for the same offense next Thursday are Carl Stebbinger and W. F. Waldorff, of Portland.

Home Milliners Attention—A full line of buckram frames in latest styles can be found at Ellsworth's Hat Blocking shop, 291 N. Com'l. St., (near Chemeketa).—Adv.

Foreclosure Demanded—Suit was brought in the circuit court yesterday by Harry L. Woodward against B. F. Heikes and Edith Heikes for collection of a promissory note which the plaintiff alleges has been due since August, 1922. According to the complaint the defendant borrowed $3,000 in August 1919, due in three years, secured by a real estate mortgage for $3,000. Foreclosure on the real estate mortgage is sought.

A Classified Ad—Will bring you a buyer.—Adv.

Divorce Case Opens—The case of Mina Peck vs Sam Peck, a divorce complaint, opened in Judge Bingham's court yesterday. Due to the fact that the defendant had defaulted his interest was reported by the deputy prosecuting attorney. The complaint alleges that on October 5, 1917, the defendant refused to live with the plaintiff and left for California, where he has since been. A divorce is sought and allowance of costs and disbursements. The case will be continued today.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Meetings Continue—Dr. Betts who has been speaking each afternoon and evening for the past 10 days in the W. C. T. U. hall under the auspices of the Christian and Missionary Alliance has been urged to continue another week. The services are inter-denominational and all are taking part with freedom. A number have been converted. Some have been prayed with for bodily healing and not a few testify to having received the Divine touch in their bodies. The gifted Irish singer, Peter Doughan, is expected to remain throughout the week, and will sing and play piano and violin solos. The meetings are each afternoon and evening at 7:30 and 7:30 through the week beginning Tuesday afternoon.

Mortuary Nears Completion—Most of the hollow tile wall is up for the new Webb & Clough mortuary at Church and Ferry streets. The work has been carried on steadily, through rain and shine, until the building is fast taking substance and it ought to be ready before the first of the year, when the firm expects to move. The building is one of only two in the state that were expressly built for first class funeral homes, and it is to have every convenience and necessity that long experience in funeral service can provide. An elevator, a garage built in with the rest of the plant, a full basement for storage, a chapel that will seat 200 persons, and other features will be incorporated.

Building Progresses—Work is going on steadily on the Bligh store building block, at High and Court streets. The structure can not be finished until the Webb & Clough lease expires the first of the year on the present corner quarters, the old "Kansas House" building that has long been a Salem landmark. However, the three store rooms fronting on Court street are being built up, with front and rear and partition walls, so that the corner structure can be torn out and replaced very quickly when the present occupants move to their own new place at Church and Ferry.

Dr. Findley Returns—Dr. M. C. Findley and son Dwight have just returned from an ocean to ocean trip, having been gone for one month. They state that they are glad to get back to Oregon.

Company Will Move—The ground floor of the Derby building, corner of Court and High streets, that was for so long a time occupied by Dr. Schenk, is being remodeled and is to be occupied about December 1 by the Western Auto Supply company, now at 125 North High. All the partitions have been removed, and the new occupants will now have a single, large room, admirably adapted to store purposes. There will be messaline half floors at either end, that will add much good floor space, and they have the whole basement for storage. The company has been greatly hampered in its business development, by lack of room, which the new quarters should remedy admirably. A large force of carpenters is at work to get the new home ready for occupancy.

Mrs. J. Ramseyer of Macleay left Salem the last of the week for a month's visit with her daughter in California. Miss Ramseyer is a trained nurse at San Louis Obispo. Mrs. Ramseyer was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Ray Richardson of that place, but formerly a resident of this city. Her husband was at one time connected with the firm of Rigdon and Richardson of this city.

The first Saturday of the month will hereafter be the regular meeting day of the American Association of University Women, according to action taken by the association Saturday. The meetings will be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. A number of new members were presented Saturday and it is anticipated by the officers that many more will come in before the next meeting, December 2. Miss Flora M. Case is chairman of the program committee.

Salem Woman Chosen Delegate
Mrs. Henry H. Vandevort was chosen delegate to the national meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church at the meeting in Forest Grove last week. Mrs. George H. Alden, who is in California just now, and who has served as corresponding secretary of the state organization for some time, was sent a letter of greeting by the state society.

Mrs. W. O. Shepard of Portland, wife of Bishop Shepard of the Portland area of the Methodist church, was re-elected president of the Oregon conference Women's Home Missionary society.

Other officers are: Corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. J. Maple, Forest Grove; recording secretary, Mrs. E. S. Collins, Portland; treasurer, Mrs. J. J. Oeder, Portland. Department secretaries as follows: Young People's work, Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, Salem; children's work, Mrs. E. C. Miller, Salem; missionary education, Mrs. A. 9. Underhill, Salem; mite box, Mrs. H. M. Durkheim, Salem; missionary supplies, Miss Mary Crawford, Portland; stewardship, Mrs. E. J. Swatford, Salem; evangelism, Mrs. C. G. Doney, Salem; temperance, Mrs. Effie Rite Dunlap, Salem; training schools, Mrs. Hertsg. Salem; bequests and device, Mrs. A. B.

Manley, Portland; press, Mrs. H. Peterson, Portland; membership, Mrs. Helm, Forest Grove; thank-offering, Mrs. Bohrnstedt Salem; college secretary, Mrs. Fay P. Thomas, Salem.

The corresponding secretary for the conference is a delegate to the national convention because of her office, so Mrs. E. J. Maple will attend the national convention next fall. A motion was made and carried that the districts in the Oregon conference rotate alphabetically in sending delegates to the national. Salem being the one to send a delegate next fall, Mrs. H. H. Vandevort was elected delegate and Mrs. C. A. Litter alternate.

The report of Mrs. K. P. Staples of Portland, who retired as treasurer after 13 years' service, showed the organization had raised $6991.49 during the year and expended $6902.34. Mrs. Staples was presented with a handsome handbag as a gift of appreciation for her services to the conference society. A motion was also carried to ask the society in the Eastern Oregon district to join the Oregon conference ranks.

Delegates were entertained by Forest Grove Methodist women, and the Queen Esther girls of Forest Grove entertained Thursday evening with a picnic entitled, "The Soul of the City."

CLUBS AND WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

The civic art section of the Salem Arts league will hold its first meeting for the fall on Wednesday evening, November 22, at 7:30 o'clock in the educational room of the Salem public library. S. H. Van Trump is leader for the section. The work as planned for the year should prove of interest and value to the people of Salem, specially to those who have new homes to landscape.

The main topics to be studied and discussed in order are: 1. general theory of landscape gardening; 2. planning the home grounds; 3. decorative planting materials; 4. floral specialties; 5. soil and culture; 6. walks and drives; 7. streets and parkings. Each of these will in turn be divided and subdivided so that all points of beauty and suitability may be covered.

The meetings are open to the public and are free to all who have landscaping problems to solve or who are interested in beautifying home or city. The section will meet the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

Mrs. David Eyre will be hostess this noon for the members of the Junior Bazaar club of the First Congregational church. The members will be entertained at luncheon and will later devote the time to working for the coming bazaar of the church.

Assisting hostesses for the luncheon will be Mrs. T. C. Smith Jr., Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. George Bayne and Mrs. Edgar A. Pierce of Aumsville.
