The Woman's Union of the First Congregational church will meet Friday for an all day session. The monthly business meeting will be held in the afternoon and business details will be considered at this time.

Marcel Dupre, given a place with the three greatest organists in the world will appear in Salem Friday evening at the First Christian church.

Referring to Dupre's recent tour in England one English critic has exclaimed: "There is but one Bach, and Dupre is his prophet!" Dupre left an impression which will never be forgotten.

The Chester Chronicle, after two Dupre recitals in one day in the famous cathedral, wrote: "It is impossible to speak in too high praise of Marcel Dupre's magnificent performances. We have never heard the like." The French critics, after Dupre's series of Trocadero recitals in Paris last spring, were unanimous in placing the recitals among the most notable events of the season.

Albert Bertelin, writing in the Courier Musical, remarked: "It is a joy to hear Bach under the fingers of this master organist. One might think Bach himself was playing."

Dupre was elected an honorary member of the National Association of Organists at its recent convention in Chicago. Many of his recitals during the coming season will be under the auspices of this association and Old fashioned dolls hold first place in point of number of entries at Miller's annual doll show. Nineteen classes are listed and the character dolls and dressed cupid are running close to the old dolls in point of numbers.

From all over Marion county with many entries from Salem, the dolls have come in from children and grown ups as well, according to those in charge. The doll show will open Saturday morning and it is anticipated that many more dolls will be brought in today.

University of Oregon alumni and former students will banquet tonight at the Gray Belle. Faculty and Alumni association officials will be among those attending from Eugene. Marion county alumni are sponsoring the banquet and reunion.

LAKE COUNTY MAN SPEAKS TO CLUB

G. W. Marvin Tells Kiwanians What Irrigation Does for Desert Land

G. W. Marvin, one of the directors and farmer-promoters of the Silver Lake irrigation project in Lake county, was a guest at the Kiwanian club at the Tuesday luncheon. Mr. Marvin was introduced as from "one irrigation project in Oregon that has made good," as if that were a rare and hard-to-believe thing.

The Silver Lake project covers about 8,000 acres, and secures its water from Silver creek and some other small streams. It is a storage reservoir arrangement, with its storage dam away up in the hills, a number of miles from where the water is actually used for farming. The settlers voted $300,000 in bonds, but built their reclamation works for $275,000, less than their original estimate, and they have the $25,000 of bonds still unused.

The altitude is 4400 feet above sea level, and their annual precipitation is about 11 inches. Some years this runs down to nine inches, not enough to raise a crop. Some years it goes up to 14 inches, when they can count on some good grain. But this year, with their irrigation project in operation for the first time, the president, Oliver Osmundsen, a prominent farmer of Lake county, raised a $15,000 crop on his irrigated land, a crop six times larger than the best he had ever before raised on the same land. All the farmers are reporting similar figures.

Mr. Marvin is a Salem guest of G. Ed Ross, at 1152 Court street.

Polk County Court Is At Work on 1923 Budget

DALLAS, Or., Nov. 22.—(Special to The Statesman.)—The Polk county court has appointed as members of the budget committee from the citizens of the county outside the court to help in preparing the budget for next year the following: L. D. Brown, lawyer of Dallas; Clair Irwin, banker of Independence, and C. C. Gardner, a farmer of Bridgeport. William Riddell, Jr., recently elected county commissioner for the coming four years, was also called in, and these with County Judge Asa B. Robinson and Commissioners T. J. Graves and Ezra Hart, are now busy at work framing up the budget. A public hearing will be held during the latter part of December at the court house at which time objections to the budget will be acted upon.

EXHAUSTED FROM GRIPPE COUGH

La grippe coughs rack and tear the sufferer to a state of exhaustion. "Would get completely exhausted from violent gripe coughs," writes R. G. Collins, Barnegat, N. J. "Tried Foley's Honey and Tar and the cough ceased entirely." Used by three generations for coughs, colds and croup, throat, chest and bronchial irritation. Foley's Honey and Tar has stood the test of time. Contains no opiates—ingredients printed on the wrapper. Largest selling cough medicine in the world. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

UNUSUAL FILM WILL BE SHOWN

"Timothy's Quest," a movie that is being endorsed all over the nation as one of the kind that pictures ought to be—clean, sparkling, wholesome, alive to the very finger-tips—is to be shown in Salem at the Liberty theatre the first three days of next week.

Not everybody can write a play that has the elements of strength, humor, pathos, wholesomeness—but nobody ever fails to recognize it when it does appear. Kate Douglas Wiggin, author of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," had the admirable gift; she has it in this, her latest screen success. When the movie stage attracts that class of authorship it is getting close to the American heart that wants finer things in its movie offerings.

THIS IS NUT DAY FOR REALTY MEN

Walter Stolz Will Tell members of Results of Investigation

Today is Nut day at the Marion County Realtors' luncheon. Walter Stolz of Salem, for years an enthusiastic, studious investigator and investor in the nut-growing field, will tell the realtors some of the important things he has learned of growing nuts, especially filberts. The Stolz & McNary orchards, north of town, were about the first in the valley to go extensively into the growing of filberts, and Mr. Stolz will give most of his time to the discussion of this particular branch of the subject.

Nut growers generally and others who are interested in the discussion are invited to attend the luncheon. The hour is set for 12 o'clock sharp, instead of 12:15 as heretofore, and the program and dinner will come to an end promptly at 1, instead of running on until 1:30, as has usually been the case.

Lower Cement Rate Is Asked by O. S. L. Line

For the accommodation of a cement plant at Webeck station, on the Oregon Short line near Huntington, the O. S. L. has petitioned the public service commission for permission to establish a freight rate of 18 1/2 cents a hundred between Webeck and Portland on carlots of 50,000 pounds minimum. The law requires that rates shall not be less between an interior point and Portland than between two interior points unless the public service commission shall give permission, and this permission is sought in the petition.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH

YOU CANT ENJOY LIFE with a sore, sour, bloated stomach. Food does not nourish. Instead it is a source of misery, causing pains, belching, dizziness and headaches.

The person with a bad stomach should be satisfied with nothing less than permanent, lasting relief.

The right remedy will act upon the lining of the stomach, enrich the blood, aid in casting out the catarrhal poisons and strengthen every bodily function.

The large number of people who have successfully used Dr. Hartman's famous medicine, recommended for all catarrhal conditions, offer the strongest possible endorsement for

Alleged Kiss Was Innocent Enough, But Caused Sensation

Our great grandfathers and our great grandmothers, according to an old genealogist Darwin, used to cuddle and coo in the coconut trees.

Later on the wise men and family diaries tell us it was all done "at the garden gate" in which generation our fathers and mothers were included. But as civilization advanced, the wise ones say, the garden gate was relegated to the curio gallery and henceforth all verdant foolishness or "osculatory argu-

If it is a small word, but it sometimes means much. If a Serbian had not shot an Austrian archduke in Sarajevo the kaiser might not have been planning his second wedding at Doorn. If the late King Alexander had not died of a monkey bite Constantine might not have been recalled; there might have been no foolish adventure in Asia Minor.

After all - it's the baking powder that tells the story of delicate cakes, light biscuits, and dainty muffins. Science has discovered that a baking powder combining the two necessary leavening units, produces best results without worry over careful dosing, tip-toeing, or frantic hurry.

Experiment has shown that Crescent Baking Powder meets every test of a perfect baking powder.
