F. Griffith will give on "Public Interest in Psychiatry, or the Study of Mental Diseases." It is announced that attendance at the clinic will be limited to members of the association and those who intend to become members of the association at this time. Miss Flora Case, chairman of the program committee, has announced that all must be prompt because of the nature of the clinic and the time necessary.

Library Closed—The Salem public library, as well as other public buildings, will be closed all day tomorrow because of Thanksgiving. The children's story hour will be held as usual on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning, according to Miss Flora Case, city librarian.

ALLAN JONES IS NAMED BAILIFF

Salem Ex-Service Man Succeeds Perry H. Raymond in High Court

Perry H. Raymond, who for about 14 years has been bailiff of the state supreme court, resigned yesterday because of ill health. Allan Jones, son of Mrs. Blanche M. Jones of Salem and of the late Charles H. Jones, was appointed in his place.

Mr. Jones is an ex-service man and is at present employed with the state industrial accident commission. For several years he was employed by the state library.

The supreme court yesterday denied a petition for rehearing in the case of Husted Walters, who was convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to death for the murder of Jerome Palmer, a Portland police officer.

The crime was committed November 17, 1920, and Walters following his conviction in Portland, was sentenced to be executed February 10, 1921. An appeal to the supreme court stayed the execution. Walters is now confined at the state penitentiary, and it will be necessary to take him back to Multnomah county to be resented.

The following opinions were handed down by the supreme court yesterday:

Mary M. Deniff, vs. Charles R. McCormick & Co., a corporation, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county; action to recover damages alleged to have been sustained by plaintiff while traveling as passenger on steamship Willamette from San Francisco to Portland. Opinion by Justice McCourt. Judge H. H. Belt reversed and case remanded.

In the matter of the estates of George H. Bethel and Elizabeth Bethel, both deceased; Helen Bethel Pomeroy, et al, appellants, vs. Ralph R. Pomeroy, administrator; appeal from Coos county; motion to dismiss appeal overruled by Justice McCourt.

Ed Smith and Silas Smith, appellants, vs. Frank Cameron, et al; appeal from Jackson county; suit arising out of attempt to exercise power of eminent domain. Opinion by Justice Harris. Judge F. M. Calkins affirmed.

Henry Bobell, appellant, vs. Peter Wagenaar, administrator of estate of Charley Dennis; appeal from Lincoln county; action in ejectment; opinion by Justice Rand. Judge G. F. Skipworth affirmed.

M. M. Spratt, vs. Brown Petzel Lumber company, appellant; appeal from Marion county; suit to foreclose three liens. Opinion by Justice Rand. Judge G. G. Birmingham reversed and case remanded.

Allie Whitechurch, appellant, vs. R. B. Mutzig, appeal from Multnomah county; action under employers liability act for personal injury. Opinion by Justice McCourt. Judge John McCourt affirmed.

H. E. Kelty, vs. C. T. Fisher and S. O. Pressler, administrators of estate of George Westley Syron, appellants; appeal from Lake county; appeal from judgment for $300. Opinion by Justice McCourt. Judge Charles F. Stone reversed and case remanded.

David Fletcher, vs. Lena Yates, et al, appellants, appeal from Washington county, suit to recover money. Opinion by Chief Justice Burnett. Judge George R. Bagley reversed and case remanded.

A resolution approving the stand taken by Mayor Hylan in ordering Police Commissioner Enright to drive the Ku Klux Klan from the city.

The resolution described the Klan as "a menace which has scourged the south and west of this country, has at last reached the city of New York and is endeavoring to work havoc and disaster in our midst."

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.—Adv.
