LEMON YELLOW AND WASHINGTON BATTLE TO A 3 TO 3 FINISH

SEATTLE, Nov. 20.—Fighting every minute, from the first whistle of the game to the final gunshot at the end of play, University of Oregon and the University of Washington football eleven battled to a 3 to 3 tie before a crowd of more than 20,000 persons in the Washington stadium here today. Twice in the second half the Huskies threatened touchdowns, but they lacked the final punch necessary to rush the ball over the line and the Oregon men were able to send the oval out of the danger zone.

The result leaves the two eleven tied for first place in the northwest conference race.

Oregon scored a few minutes after play started, Chapman booting the ball between the posts on a placement from the 20-yard line. The Eugene players rushed their opponents off their feet in the first two periods, gaining heavily through the line and carrying the ball consistently into the Washington danger territory. Inside the Purple and Gold 20-yard line, however, the Huskies braced each time a score threatened and Oregon never menaced the goal except through Chapman's toe.

Washington Menaces
The fast Oregon quarterback tried four times for a goal from placement, but while the ball generally missed only by inches, the first attempt only was successful.

It was in the last two frames that the Huskies, bent on revenge, redeemed themselves. Taking the offensive from the moment the ball was put in play in the third the Huskies swept through the Lemon-Yellow line. Once, with the oval within a yard of their opponent's goal, they seemed certain to score, but the Oregon defense braced and the ball went over on downs. Early in the fourth period Washington again menaced the Oregon goal, but a forward across the line failed and the ball went out ten yards.

Oregon Better Passers
Oregon made first downs five times during the play for a total of 118 yards, while Washington gained 132 yards and made first

COMING SMOKER IS PROMISING

Main Go Between Hoff and Mackie Expected to Be Real Humdinger

Joe Hoff, former boxing instructor at Mt. Angel college, a prominent farmer at Monitor and one of the hottest contenders for the featherweight championship of the coast, is to be one of the headliners in the big Company F boxing program in Salem the night of December 6. He is to meet Ad Mackie of Portland, one of the toughest and fastest of the men in his class anywhere up and down the coast.

Dannie Needham of Spokane, middleweight, is to be here on Friday to finish training for his match with Jack Stanley of Portland. Needham is one of the fastest of the new men, with an imposing record of victories since he began professional boxing six months ago. He scored a knock-out over Dillon of Portland at Portland, the first of this week; and Dillon was rated as one of the best middleweights on the coast.

Needham will box daily with big Bill Hunt of Salem, who is to go on for four rounds with Bill McDonald of Portland in the heavyweight class. Needham is fast enough, and rugged enough to do Hunt a lot of good in a week. Hunt has appeared twice in Salem, once losing to Boatright, a soldier buddy, and the second time getting a draw with the same big man. He has no end of courage and strength, and a little finish with a fast, skillful boxer should make him a really formidable man in the ring.

Lefty Wharton, who won from Sid Newton of Independence at the last military boxing program, is to go on again this time for four rounds against some one not yet definitely chosen.

SQUIRE EDGE GATE—The First All-Women Jury

An added local attraction may be staged that has not yet been announced. But the regular program looks good enough without any frills.

S. DAK. 20; CREIGHTON 14

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 30.—A Creighton fumble, a forward pass, Welch to Mears and a 70-yard run by Roberts for a touchdown were good for three touchdowns and with two field goals, South Dakota State romped over Creighton university 20 to 14 here today.

Lynch Wins from Frankie Daly in Ten Rounds

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 30.—Joe Lynch, bantamweight champion of the world, won handily from Frankie Daly of New York in a ten-round boxing contest here this afternoon. Lynch outboxed his opponent all the way, having him groggy in the seventh and tenth rounds.

Daly's best round was the fourth, when he caught the champion flush on the jaw and shook him up. Before the round ended, however, Lynch was back in the lead. Daly's best asset was his ability to absorb punishment.

N. W. TITLE IS TIED UP

Washington and Oregon Are Even and Whitman Holds Third Place

SPOKANE, Nov. 30.—As a result of the City 5 tie game between the University of Washington and the University of Oregon eleven at Seattle today, the Pacific Northwest conference football season came to a close without a definite champion having emerged from the eight contending teams.

Neither the Washington or Oregon eleven, the two championship claimants have been defeated in the northwest conference this season. Whitman college, winners of the 1921 championship, finished the season in third place having won two games and lost two.

By defeating the University of Montana at Missoula today 39 to 0, the University of Idaho ousted Oregon Agricultural college from fourth place, the Aggies dropping to fifth. Washington State college, with one victory and three defeats, finished sixth. Willamette university and the University of Montana tied for last place, neither having scored a victory.

The final standings for the season are:
Team Games Won T Lost Pct
University of Oregon 5 5 0 1.000
University of Washington 5 4 1 0.800
Whitman College 4 2 2 .500
University of Idaho 3 2 1 .667
Oregon Agricultural College 3 1 2 .333
Washington State College 4 1 3 .250
University of Montana 2 0 2 .000
Willamette University 2 0 2 .000

CLEMENCEAU PAYS LINCOLN HIGH TRIBUTE

time after their marriage, explaining that they paid only "four dollars a week for room and board for two."

"Have you any like it now?" Clemenceau asked with a smile. Before he left, he wrote his name in the guest book and shook hands with Mrs. Brown, thanking her cordially for acting as his guide. Then the procession drove slowly to Oak Ridge cemetery, where the Tiger was escorted into the Lincoln relic room and was shown about by Herbert W. Fay, custodian and one of the greatest authorities on Lincoln.

Powerful Cornell Team Wins from Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Gil Dobies powerful eleven from Cornell defeated the University of Pennsylvania today 9 to 0 on straight football and remains the only big team in the east which has not been beaten for two years. It was the first time Pennsylvania failed to score this season. The last game Cornell lost was to Pennsylvania on Thanksgiving day 1920.

Mike O'Dowd Wins from Dave Rosenberg on Foul

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul won on a foul in the eighth round of a scheduled 15-round bout here today with Dave Rosenberg of New York. Rosenberg was disqualified for hitting low after two minutes and 28 seconds of fighting in the eighth round. O'Dowd was leading by a wide margin the larger end of a 14 to 6 score when the bout ended.

CORVALLIS HIGH BEATS ALBANY

Benton County Youths Have Undisputed Title to Valley Championship

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 30.—(Special to the Statesman)—Outplayed in every part of the game, Albany High school lost to Corvallis today by a score of 43 to 0. Corvallis not only took advantage of all the breaks of the game but earned any such advantage by always being ready and knowing how.

One touchdown made by the visitors was the direct result of an Albany fumble and three others followed fumbles. The score in the first quarter stood 19 for the visitors with 12 additional points chalked up in the second and six more in each of the last two quarters.

Corvallis high school, undefeated this year, now holds undisputed claim to the championship of the Willamette valley. "Spec" Keene of Salem is coach of the Corvallis team which defeated Salem by a score of 3 to 0 and Eugene 18 to 0.

The old jinx of a Corvallis-Albany game was broken when the large score of 43 to 0 was run up by the Corvallis high team. In the past the Corvallis team has never been able, no matter how good, to run up a big score on Albany.

The Corvallis game was only the second game which Albany has lost this year. The first one was when it lost to Salem high school 6 to 18.

Beverly Hills Races Are Postponed by Rain

BEVERLY HILLS SPEEDWAY, LOS ANGELES, Nov. 30.—Rain which officials declared made the track too dangerous for automobile racing caused the postponement here today of the final event of the 1922 automobile racing season sponsored by the American Automobile association. Rain commenced falling an hour before the race was to start.

The postponement probably will mean the loss of Ralph de Palma among the starters next Sunday. De Palma was recently arrested for speeding near Madera and sentenced to seven to 10 days in jail. Unless judicial clemency is given he will be in jail next Sunday.

Speedway officials estimated the attendance today at 75,000.
