

U.S. NEEDED IN EUROPE SAYS CLEMENCEAU

Asserts Monroe Doctrine Has Been Outgrown — Thinks Americans Very Complacent People

WAR PREMIER IS CLOSELY GUARDED

Advocates Big 3 Triumvirate With France and England as Necessity

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—Re-entry of America into European affairs, either as a member of the league of nations or on some other basis, was urged today by Georges Clemenceau, war premier of France, in the fourth of his series of addresses in this country delivered at the Odeon before a capacity audience that applauded him loudly at frequent intervals.

Arguments Repeated
The Tiger, summarizing what he thought he had accomplished so far on his tour of America, declared he believed he had convinced the country that France was not militaristic nor imperialistic, and that she had every intention of paying her debt to the United States.

Just to make sure, however, he repeated, arguments bearing on these points before he launched into the subject of American participation in old world affairs—the point, he said, that had been most frequently advised he will not be able to get across.

Plunging then into his appeal for America to resume an active role in Europe, Clemenceau recited the history of America's entrance into the war and her part in making peace.

Talks 14 Points
He was interrupted by a long wave of applause when he mentioned Woodrow Wilson and his "fourteen points," on which he declared the peace was based.

"What were these 14 points for?" he continued. "Pledging set forth before all human-kind, your declaration of independence said: 'Equal rights, pursuit of happiness for every man; liberty.' That was before them to fight for in 1776."

It came from America to Europe again and you may be proud that this armistice and treaty had at its front 14 points, which were nothing but the translation of the declaration of independence."

Against League
He reiterated that the Monroe doctrine had been outgrown by America, adding "you have grown faster, allow me to say, than your ideals. You are a very complacent people."

America, he continued, owed it to Europe to help enforce the terms of the Versailles treaty, because she had so large a hand in the making of its terms, and because its terms — particularly those referring to reparations and disarmament, were being flouted by Germany. Coming finally to the league of nations, he said:

"I do not believe in a society of nations as a way to suppress war; at least now. When man has progressed more and more, I hope it will be. But I do not object to the best being attempted to get even the least, which is sometimes worth counting."

Tiger Well Received
"That society of nations exists somewhere in Genoa. It has already done good, it has done something in the case of Austria. I say, if you think fit to come, you come. You will be well received and we will work, French, British and Americans together. That is my program. You know small beginnings have great endings. If you choose to get into the family of the society of nations, that is your business; but

BLANK SAYS ADS PAY IN RIGHT PAPER

Statesman Insertion Brings Goods He Lost and Much More He Didn't Lose

John Blank of Stayton says it pays to advertise, if you do it in The Statesman.

Mr. Blank is a firm believer in the cash and carry system and the economies it makes possible. He recently drove his flivver up to a Salem cash and carry store and invested in a considerable stock of things to eat. The bill came to $9.60.

Blank lugged them outside and packed them in the back seat of a flivver and went back into the store to pay his bill.

When he drove up to his home near Stayton, Mrs. Blank said she hoped he hadn't forgotten to bring home the things for the family larder.

"Oh, no," Blank assured her, "they're right here, and he pointed to the rear seat of the car. But there wasn't a thing there."

"Great Scott! I must have put them in somebody else's car," wailed Blank. "Not much chance of recovering them," he added, "but I'll slip an ad. in the Statesman just the same."

The advertisement appeared on the following morning, and two days later Blank wrote to the advertising manager:

"I advertised for $9.60 worth of groceries which I placed by mistake in the wrong car outside of so and so's store. Stop the ad. To date I have received $68.50 worth of goods from seven different people and the phone is ringing again now. Statesman ads. reach the people."

2 KILLED IN S. P. SMASHUP

Santa Fe Plunges Into Open Switch Near Bakersfield — Others Injured

FRESNO, Cal., Dec. 2.—Two persons were killed and several were more or less severely injured when Santa Fe passenger train No. 22, eastbound plunged into an open switch a few miles west of Bakersfield, early tonight.

Shortly before 8 o'clock tonight, a statement was issued from the office of the division superintendent in Fresno that the wreck was caused by deliberate tampering with the switch. The statement said an investigation showed that the switch target had shown clear but the switch itself had been broken open and lined for a spur track.

The dead are: Engineer William S. Runyon of Stockton and Mail Clerk E. H. Male of San Francisco.

Louis G. Spaulding, another mail clerk, Joe Waugh of Riverbank foreman, and a train newsboy were seriously injured while several passengers and the conductor, W. N. Bowyer, were badly shaken up, according to advices at the local Santa Fe office.

Special trains were immediately sent out from Fresno and Bakersfield.

Engineer Runyon was married.

2 TRAFFIC MEN ARE SUSPENDED

Griffith and Wiles Dropped Temporarily for Good of the Service

H. L. Griffith and C. N. Wiles, state traffic officers, were last night indefinitely suspended by T. A. Rafferty, chief traffic officer of the state. The reason given was "neglect of duty" for the good of the service.
Both have been in the service since May, 1921. Griffith's patrol was the Columbia river highway between Portland and Hood River, and Wiles' patrol the Lower Columbia river highway between Portland and Astoria.
Both men live in Portland.
The specific charges against the men were not revealed.

PROGRESSIVES WOULD CLEAN UP POLITICS

Plan to Present Legislative and Economic Program Soon — Daugherty and Mellon Flayed.

SHIPPING BILL TO BE FIRST TARGET

Forum Would Extend Direct Primary and Abolish Electoral College

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—(By The Associated Press.)—Plans for promotion of progressive sentiment and policies throughout the nation were made today at concluding meetings of the two days conclave of progressives called by Senator LaFollette, Republican of Wisconsin and Representative Huddleston, Democrat of Alabama, under the auspices of the peoples' legislative service.

Officials Flayed
The Republican majority acted in violation of the new progressive movement, which is to be actively translated into legislation through the bi-partisan progressive bloc of congress formed yesterday were adopted during two sessions today of the public conference and addresses were made by a dozen leaders in liberal movements.

Presentation of a detailed legislative and economic program was not attempted by speakers at today's "open forum" and at the closing dinner tonight proposed a multitude of reforms and flayed past and present government officials and policies. A feature of the dinner tonight, attended by about 800 persons was another attack upon Attorney General Daugherty by Samuel Untermyer, New York attorney.

Many Speak
Senator LaFollette presided over the open sessions today and speeches were delivered by President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor; Governor Blaine of Wisconsin Senator Norris, Republican, of Nebraska; Senator Brookhart, Republican of Iowa; Senators-elect Wheeler, Democrat of Montana and Frazier, Republican of North Dakota and Representatives Frear, Republican of Wisconsin and Sinclair, Republican of North Dakota.

Resolutions adopted unanimously by the convention declared that the movement was "non-partisan" and designed primarily to promote progressive legislation. Other resolutions called for extension of the direct primary, including abolition of the electoral college and direct popular election of president and vice president.

Another resolution called upon President Harding to release immediately all "free speech prisoners."

Governor Conference Next
The conference declared, however, that it was impossible in a single day to formulate a complete legislative and economic program.
Appointment by Senator LaFollette of a non-partisan committee to provide for national cooperation of progressives was adopted. At the same time a date calling another conference of progressives was left open but Senator LaFollette announced that a conference of progressive governors would be held next January.

Attorney General Daugherty and Secretary Mellon of the treasury department drew the fire of speakers.

Daugherty Attacked
At a dinner tonight Mr. Untermyer presented an "indictment" against the attorney general, characterizing him as a "cheap politician," and charging him with numerous alleged derelictions. Mr. Untermyer urged an investigation of the department of justice and the alien property custodian's office and declared there was "camouflage enforcement of prohibition laws" by the department of justice.
Secretary Mellon was attacked by Governor Blaine and Representative Frear for alleged failure to collect taxes from wealthy corporations and Representative Frear urged an investigation and "clearing" of the internal revenue commissioner's office.
During the convention Senator LaFollette announced further

THE LARIAT TO BE NAME OF MAGAZINE

E. Hofer Launches Periodical Devoted to Better Literary Standards

"The Lariat" is the name of a monthly literary magazine that will be launched in Portland by Col. E. Hofer of Salem, with offices in the Northwest National Bank building. Colonel Hofer will be editor and publisher, and associated with him will be his daughter, Florence A. Bynon of Portland as poetry editor, and his sister, Marie Ruef Hofer of Santa Monica Cal., as music editor.

The purpose of the publication as stated in the articles soon to be filed is "to publish a monthly western literary magazine of discussion and criticism and to encourage formation of writers' organizations in every western state and city, and for the purpose generally of advancing literary standards and the demand for the best books and periodicals."

The first issue of the periodical will appear December 10, and will contain about 60 pages. "The Lariat" will be confined mainly to poetry, books and fiction, while religion and politics will be avoided. Matter from 12 western states will be used.

Colonel Hofer says the magazine will be the only one of its kind west of New York. The Oregon Writers' league of Portland welcomes the coming of "The Lariat."

$5,000 NEEDED BY HOSPITAL

Further Request for Aid is Made to Those Who May Be Benefitted

Five thousand dollars is urgently needed by the Salem hospital according to announcement from the hospital headquarters.

Work has been started to finish the central unit, and orders have been placed for the radiators, bath tubs and other equipment. These are to be installed as rapidly as possible, and then the active finish construction will start. This will include setting the tile partitions, the final concrete finish for the floors, mill work, painting, plastering, and the last touch that set it forth, a completely furnished, modern, fireproof, germ-proof, life-saving hospital.

It is confidently hoped that the future of this institution may be made secure by inducing some who have been helped, or who have the spirit of public service, to make bequests in its favor.

The following is suggested as a form of bequest that would cover such a gift:
"I hereby give and bequeath to The Salem Hospital, a corporation, of Salem, Or., the sum of Dollars, and I hereby direct my executor or executors to pay said sum to the treasurer of said hospital, taking his receipt therefor within months after my decease."
Signed.....

The Salem hospital is in a class by itself, in that it belongs to the public, thereby making everyone a stockholder in a great concern whose dividends are the spirit of love and unselfishness, healing and health. "Pledges are now due," says the statement, "as the bills for labor and material are coming in. Please make your check to Salem Hospital, and mail to H. W. Meyers, manager, P. O. box 344, Salem."

Veteran Polk Coroner Resigns; Henkle Named

DALLAS, Or., Dec. 2.—(Special to The Statesman.)—R. L. Chapman, for nearly 20 years coroner for Polk county, has resigned from that office and the county court has appointed C. W. Henkle to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Chapman. Mr. Chapman disposed of an interest in his undertaking business in this city some months ago to Mr. Henkle and as he expected to spend a part of the winter in California he decided to resign from the office of coroner. At times of election Mr. Chapman had always the endorsement of both Republicans and Democrats.

PARENTS MAY TRY TO GET PAIR PARTED

Couple Who Procured License Here Alleged to Have Misrepresented Age

DALLAS, Or., Dec. 2.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Edria Turpin, the 17-year-old Roseburg girl who was married in this city Friday by Rev. Frank James of the Methodist church, was denied a license to wed by County Clerk Floyd D. Moore on Thanksgiving day after Mr. Moore had found out that she was not of legal age and was a resident of another county.

Friday morning, in company with James Coon of this city, now her husband, and H. A. Siefarth, also of this city, a friend of Coon's, she went to Salem where a license was secured, she giving her age to the county clerk of that county as being 18 years 8 months and 11 days. Siefarth who went with them for the purpose of helping them secure the license, is said to have stated that he knew the girl was of legal age and that her residence was Turner in Marion county. After securing the license the party returned to this city and the wedding followed. The couple are now at the home of Coon's mother, who resides on Maple street.

According to word received in this city from Sheriff Starmer of Roseburg, the parents of the girl may seek to have the marriage annulled.

LINER BEATS DRY AGENTS

Assyria With 11,505 Cases of Whiskey Outwits Prohibition Officials

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Outspeeding the police tug Manhattan, which had been ordered to overtake her, the Cunard liner Assyria tonight flashed past Sandy Hook and headed for Scotland, carrying with her 11,505 cases of whiskey deported by federal prohibition agents and two deputy sheriffs alleged to have been "kidnaped" while executing an order to seize part of the cargo.

The Manhattan, which had been sent out by Deputy Police Inspector Cahalane, with orders to rescue the deputy sheriffs "by force if necessary," was too slow for the liner, her captain reported, when he returned to the battery.

He got too late a start, he said, and after trailing the Assyria almost to Sandy Hook, gave up the race as lost.

Besides the deputies, who were aboard attempting to seize 4,000 cases of the whiskey on a writ of replevin, the ship carried two prohibition agents, assigned to guard the liquid cargo.

The whiskey had remained in customs storage since 1921 when it was shipped by Heilborn and company, distillers of Glasgow, Scotland, to an agent in this country. It was not seized by the prohibition officials, however, until recently, when it was consigned by the agent to the Alps Drug company and another firm, both of which had permits to import and distribute wine.

Well Known Political Worker Dead at Dallas

DALLAS, Or., Dec. 2.—(Special to The Statesman.)—J. M. Lynn, one of the best known residents of this city, passed away at his home in the west end of town Wednesday afternoon following an illness of some duration, due primarily to old age.

Mr. Lynn was a veteran of the Civil war. He had made his home in this city for more than a quarter of a century. He was an ardent supporter of the Democratic party, but was always keen on having the best men put up for office. He was a fearless worker in politics and his presence will be missed by that party in Polk county.

FILIBUSTER OF DEMOCRATS IS BIG SUCCESS

Hold-Out on Dyer Anti-Lynching Bill Declared Most Efficiently Managed in History.

TACTICS THREATEN OTHER NOMINATIONS

Small Minority Found Able to Block Any Pending Legislation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Success crowned the filibuster of senate Democrats against the Dyer anti-lynching bill today when Republican senators in party caucus voted to abandon the measure completely.

Filibuster Efficient
The Republican majority acted after the Democrats by what is generally conceded to have been one of the most efficiently conducted filibusters in the history of the senate, had prevented the transaction of any business for the fourth consecutive legislative day. The obstructionist tactics of the Democrats were threatening more than a thousand presidential nominations, which, if unconfirmed by Monday noon, when the special session ends, must again be submitted.

Dyer Bill Dies
The question of abandoning the measure which was passed by the house last season was debated in the senate for two hours, it is understood, a small minority holding out for continuation of the fight. The final decision, however, was directing Senator Lodge to inform the Democratic leaders that the bill would be pushed no further either at the special session or at the regular session convening Monday. This means the death of the legislation which the Democrats have attacked as "a force bill," and as unconstitutional.

Minority Powerful
Majority and minority leaders alike were agreed tonight that the filibuster thus brought to an end by the Republican decision will take a place as one of the most notable in senate history.

Leaders on both sides were agreed tonight that the filibuster had had the additional effect of directing attention to senate rules under which a minority by well directed moves may block any legislation and which Senator Cummins, Iowa, the president pro tempore, yesterday described as belonging "to another civilization."

PIERCE COMING NEXT WEDNESDAY

Governor-Elect is Expected to Make Inspection of Institutions

Governor-elect Walter M. Pierce is expected in Salem Wednesday, Dec. 6, and it is expected that he will inspect state institutions while here, since he informed Governor Olcott some time ago that he wished to do this.

It is understood that he will make only a brief stay in Salem for this first visit, as he has an urgent invitation to go to Brownsville for a big reception to be tendered him by Linn county people.

Some form of formal reception will be tendered him in Salem, either on this first visit or when he returns from the Brownsville engagement. It is understood that he may be here for two or three days before returning to LaGrande, for he is expected to move to Salem with his family to get settled before the hard work of the governorship begins.

SAYS AMERICA GETTING TOO FEMINIZED

University Chancellor Wants Military Training to Build Stalwart Citizens

BALTIMORE, Dec. 2.—Speaking at a meeting here today of college presidents and reserve officers training corps inspectors at which an association was formed for the promotion of military training, Dr. Samuel B. McCormick, chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh, declared that America "is rapidly becoming feminized."

The United States, he added, would soon become a nation of women if it listened to those who are now crying their opposition for war for any cause whatever. "We need compulsory military training in the colleges and universities if we are to be properly prepared in case of war," Dr. McCormick insisted.

According to her story, the sheriff said, she and Greer had been drinking and quarreled. Greer attacked her, she declared, and she fired in self-defense. Later she said she was not certain Greer was dead, and an officer started for the scene of the shooting tonight.

PLOT AGAINST U.S. RAILROADS IS REVEALED

Chairman of Labor Board Claims Leaders Would Wreck Industry for Political Purposes.

WORKERS' HATRED SAID STIRRED UP

Propaganda for Public Ownership Would Destroy Faith in Courts

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the United States railroad labor board, in a speech before the Illinois Bar association here tonight charged that many railroad union leaders are waging warfare against the roads with the purpose of destroying and forwarding a political campaign for government ownership.

Attacks Numerous
"A large portion of the union magazines which pass over my desk contain bitter attacks on the railroads, their managements and their policies," he said. "These criticisms are not confined to matters of direct controversy between the roads and employees but they cover every ground of attack that might be made by those outside of the railroad employment."

"Nothing is left unsaid that seems to be calculated to stir up hatred among the employees and distrust and hostility among the people."

"In the political program of the labor leaders, two definite demands are made: First, that the injunctive powers exercised by the courts in connection with strikes be withdrawn or greatly limited. Second, that the constitution be so amended that congress can set aside the decision of the federal courts which pronounce an act of congress unconstitutional."

Would Mislead Ignorant
"The pernicious doctrine that the courts are dominated by the rich and powerful is fed to an element of people who, by reason of deficient training and highly sensitized class consciousness are peculiarly susceptible to its baneful influence."

"When a man becomes thoroughly saturated with this distrust of the courts he is no longer a good American citizen. His mind is befogged with dark suspicions and he nurses a fanged grievance against his government. He is converted into a fit instrument of disloyalty and treason. The man who persistently labors to destroy the faith of the people in the courts, whether he is a bomb-throwing anarchist or a United States congressman, is guilty of the most invidious treachery to the republic."

Courts Target
"There are men today who think that the drafting of our federal constitution required no greater expenditure of time, effort and intellect than is necessary for the publication of one issue of a 'yellow newspaper.' They blatantly denounce the judiciary and threaten to make it subservient to the kaleidoscopic changes in public sentiment reflected in successive congresses."

"Under such a system it might happen that the boll weevil, the army worm, theessian fly and the grasshopper would set aside the national constitution for a combination of such insectivorous pests will now and then elect a congress. On any fine November morning a conglomeration of annoyances might generate the political bacteria in the popular stomach that would set up the grouch which would kick over the constitution."

Despotism Detested
"The big problem of organized labor today is identical with that of organized capital and that is, how to avoid the abuse of great power. And it may be well remembered that a despotism of the many may be as detested as the despotism of the individual."
