BITS FOR BREAKFAST
Rained in Salem yesterday—
Rained real rain, and rained people and automobiles from all directions. It was a busy day.

If there are any bears on Salem left, let them watch the growth and development of 1923. Lots of good things headed this way.

A Salem cynic suggests that one way to prevent traffic congestion is to sell autos for cash only.

Statistics show 4359 men were killed by gas last year—sixteen inhaled it, 43 threw lighted matches in it, and 4300 stepped on it.

But the 18th amendment does not prohibit football with a kick in it.

In Italy the man who is premier is the man who gets there fastest with the mostest men.

When the unspeakable Turk meets the unpronounceable Greek, the thoughts they think would not look nice in a Sunday school lesson.

A lot of fine things are happening in the air and on the carpet and in the lap of the gods for Salem; but the biggest and best of them all is the rolling up of that million and a quarter endowment and building fund for Willamette university. That will mean a radiation and broadcasting of benefits and influences that will reach around the world and last till the earth grows old and the stars grow cold and the judgment days unfold.

P. Lulay, Stayton; E. Sanborn, Grants Pass.
