SAGE TEA DANDY
TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Luster to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Criticism on Menlo's performance at the Public Auditorium in Portland Sunday November 19th of the expose of famous mediums. Barnum was right when he said that the people had rather be fooled than told the truth. That was demonstrated at the public auditorium last night at the expose of the tricks of various mediums. And not only did Menlo seek to expose these tricks but succeeded admirably. Certain ones in the big audience sought to harangue him but each time Menlo came back doing what they said he couldn't do and turning the laugh on his critics. He showed all the stunts of the mediums and fake mind readers and crystal gazers and showed how they were done. It removed the cobwebs from the minds of many who have staked their all on these mediums' answers. Menlo stated that he did not intend to belittle or ridicule Spiritualism but only to show the frauds that are perpetuated in this and that all might have a better understanding of it and the so-called occult arts.

The Hickman Bessey Stock company will close their eighth week's engagement at the Bligh theatre this evening. Their show for tonight is a three act comedy drama entitled "Shanghaied" and is one of their very best shows yet and has been received by capacity houses each night this week. For this show next week they will present "Mother O Mine."

Twenty-two wolf-dogs were engaged for the production of "A Virgin's Sacrifice" which will be shown at the Bligh theatre on Friday. These dogs were exceptionally expensive, and their combined salary for a week was greater than that of any member of the company, save the star.

None of the dogs are vicious taken by themselves. They make great friends, but when in a pack they fight like tigers. For ordinary picture purposes only six dogs are used on a dog-sled, but for this picture Vitagraph used at least ten in every dog team and some had as many as fifteen dogs.

Edna Wallace Hopper who will be remembered by the old timers as a great musical comedy favorite, a woman 63 years of age and who has the appearance and the personality of a girl of not over 21 years of age. This famous woman will come to the Grand theatre December 15th and 16th in person. The Saturday matinee will be for women only and at that performance the women in the audience will have the pleasure of seeing Edna Wallace go through the same routine that she does every morning, in order to keep herself young. She is a marvel of rejuvenation. Imagine a woman of her years having the appearance of a girl barely out of her teens. On the same bill with Edna Wallace will be the special feature production of "Remembrance" one of the big photoplays of the season.

Ruth Roland, star of "The Timber Queen," is an ardent admirer of dogs of every sort and prides herself on several blue-ribbon winners in her own kennels. In fact, the Pathe star's enthusiasm for the doggies has prompted her to award a cup to the finest Police dog at the Coronado Dog Show to be held by the social leaders of that island sometime in June. At the Liberty theatre tomorrow.

If you want to see a picture that will make you laugh and will make you cry, that will thrill you with the man-hunt of sinister-looking, wild-riding clansmen, and that will hold you in suspense during the anxious moments of a tense operation scene, don't fail to see "One Clear Call" at the Liberty theatre.

Admirers of Dustin Farnum by this time know that he prefers stories of the great outdoors such as "The Virginian" and "The Squaw Man." He is happiest as an actor and happiest as a man in an environment created by nature. Society plays hamper him for he is a big fellow who breathes fully and moves freely in open spaces such as prairies or forests. His new picture, "The Trail of the Axe" is, as might be expected from the title, a story of the lumber comps. At the Liberty theatre tomorrow.

Shirley Mason's latest starring vehicle, "Shirley of the Circus," in which the dainty Fox star portrays the role of a bare-back rider of the sawdust ring, will close its engagement at the Oregon theatre tonight. This picture, as the title indicates, is a modern story of the "big top," and it contains all the glitter and glamour of the circus.

The mountain camp where Charles Maigne, directing Mary Miles Minter and Tom Moore in the Paramount picture, "The Cowboy and the Lady," lived while in Wyoming making the exterior scenes for the picture, is no longer nameless. With the official sanction of Supervisor of Forestry Service, Mr. McCain, Mr.
Maigne christened the spot "Camp Greghory" after his stepfather, Colonel Gregory, who while serving on General Sheridan's staff, made a trip through that country and the Yellowstone in 1884. The picture will be shown at the Oregon theatre beginning tomorrow.
