Heavy Selling of Dollars in London Market Precipitates Advance

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.-Chief interest in today's financial market centered on the further spectacular rise in sterling exchange, demand bills touching 4.63, an overnight rise of 4 cents, and a selling of dollars in London market precipitated the rise in ster-

Stock prices showed a much better tone, but trading was again almost entirely a professional affair. Special stocks in which there are possibilities for extra ncreased or stock dividends. continued to receive the most attention. Publication of reports that the 3 1/2 per cent semi-annual dividend on Great Northern preferred was likely to be maintained, brought about some buying it Froom house, barn, fruit, 3 lots; $1000, the railroad group, but early gains were materially reduced or wiped out in later trading. Great Northern preferred led the advance in rails, touching 81 faix. and then dropping back to 80 1/2. where it represented a net gain of 2 3-8 points. St. Paul issues improved fractionally on announcement that the interstate commerce commission had approved a government loan of $10,000,000 to meet obligations maturing in January. Sales totaled 749,000 shares. Call money opened at 4 1-4 per cent, eased off to four before noon and dropped to 3 3-4 in the late afternoon, holding at that figure until the close. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Despite much profit-taking on the part of holders and notwithstanding that the Liverpool market failed to respond fully to yes Street Improvement Department terday's advance in prices on this side of the Atlantic, wheat bulls here acting on crop damage possibilities had the advantage throughout the day except during brief intervals. Incidentally strength of sterling exchange more than offset the apparent slowness of upturns in Liverpool wheat quotations. It was a subject of considerable comment that the Liverpool and Chicago May wheat spread has widened about 2 cents in the last few days, owing more or less to the sharp rise of sterling-a jump of 17 points as compared with a month ago and of 50 points as against this time last year.

On the other hand, enthusiasm of buyers here was somewhat checked as a result of weakness in Argentine prices. Corn and oats averaged higher with wheat. December oats, hoever, were depressed by liquidating sales on the part of holders. Downturns in the value of hogs

THE WAY MADGE HELPED DICKY TO HIS WISH Haven't you any other reason for selling the house than just the money you are receiving for it?" asked, putting as dubious a note as I could into my voice. I detest duplicity, but because I could not let Dicky suspect that the news of Edith Fairfax coming to live next door to us completely changed my attitude toward the sale of our home, I wanted to draw him out, hoping to find something upon which I could predicate the capitulation to his wishes which I desired to give.

"Yes I have," he returned a bit shamefacedly, "although I suppose you'll laugh at it, and think I'm the original person that could feel a crumpled roseleaf through seven mattresses. But that change at Jamaica in going to New York has been getting my goat ever since I came back across seas. You just get settled in a seat and comfortably to reading or talking, when you have to trail off on the platform. And you know that in cold weather it's no

Well, we'll try to keep from her the deadly seeret of your being the reincarnation of Patient Griselda! And about obtaining her consent, just watch your Uncle Dudley, Before the day's over she'll be around flaying you by inches because you have dared oppose my scheme." His prophecy was fulfilled to the letter, as I learned a few hours later, when Mother Graham sent Mandy to summin me to her room. Dicky had slipped out of the house most discreetly a few minutes before, and when I entered his mother's room I knew 3-4 cents advance, and provisions by the expression on her face that varying from a setback of 12 he had been able to make her believe "black was white,"

"Margaret, I am surprised by what Richard tells me of your obstinacy," she began, her voice netallic, her face grim. . "The oor boy! He has shown me conrincingly, how necessary to his health it is that he move to some town where he will not have that pneumonia-breeding wait in winter, and I have given my consent to his selling the Marvin house, But he tells me that you are obdurate, despite his having pleaded with you, and has begged me to use my influence with you to change your decision. Now, what have you got to say for yourself?"
