H. O. LITTLE SEAL, with your message of hope, bring to a world as a life-saver's rope, seek you the palace and seek you the shed—soft little pillow for Suffering's head!

Ho, Little Seal, with message of cheer, building up courage and casting out fear, shed you God's sunlight in castle and cage—Bright Little Beacon of lives that you save!

Ho, Little Seal, with your message to men, lifting them back to life's high road again, keep you the air of God's heaven above, flowing in gently to help them we love.

MITZI ON WAY WITH BIG PLAY

Mitzi is coming here in "Lady Billy," a musical romance, which will be seen at the Grand theatre December 27.

"Lady Billy" is considered one of the best musical plays the diminutive star has ever had. It is said to be a very funny story and the music has been heralded as lasting and whistle-able. Zella Sears wrote the book and lyrics and Harold Levey wrote the music. Miss Sears is remembered as an actress and Harold Levey as a Victor Herbert protégé.

Henry W. Savage sponsors Mitzi and the big scenic production that is coming to this city. The latest gowns from Paris will be worn by the coryphees. These models include boudoir trousers, pajama teatops, Grecian drapes and indoor flapper creations.

The orchestra will be a special feature. Under the direction of Paul Yartin some of the Liberty theatre, New York, musicians will play the score.

Mitzi's helpers are Boyd Marshall, Mark Smith, Vera Rial, Vera Kingston, Ethel Alins, Edward Clannell, Fan Bourke, Mack Kennedy and Charles Gay. The girls of the ensemble are credited with being young and numerous and not only can they sing and dance, but they also have the ability to act. It is said that Mr. Savage took two years to gather these singing orphans.

Mitzi is only playing a few cities on this tour because of contracts that call for long engagements in New York and Boston. Miss anything else, but don't miss the only Mitzi, his is one of the season's biggest events and this city is fortunate to be included on the little star's itinerary.

SUICIDES IN AMERICA ARE ON INCREASE

side rate per 100,000 had increased to 15.7 in 1921, as compared with 12.4 in 1920. It was a fraction higher than the average 12.2—for the five year period 1916-1920 but compared favorably with figures for the three preceding five year periods, which showed rates of 17.6, 19.5 and 20.4, respectively.

California Rate Highest

San Diego, Cal., set the high record for 1921 with a suicide rate of 48.7. San Francisco coming second with 37.3, Spokane, Wash., third with 32.5 and Los Angeles fourth with 27.9. Dr. Hoffman hazarded the guess that this was because of the number of health and fortune seekers who migrate yearly to the west coast, many of whom fail to find what they are seeking.

Two cities in the list reported a zero suicide rate—Massillon, Ohio and Newport, R. I.

Many Men Die

The analysis showed that men suicides preferred the shooting and hanging routes, while the greatest percentages of women suicides elected poison and asphyxiation. Almost three times as many men as women ended their own lives, 40.8 per cent of them electing fire arms and 17.8 per cent choosing the rope. Only 14.4 per cent of the female suicides shot themselves and 13.4 per cent chose hanging. Poison claimed 30.3 per cent of the women suicides and asphyxiation, 20.7. Percentages for men by these latter methods were respectively 12.5 and 11.1 per cent.

That fill the field and fringe the way,
Where he walks a mile with me.

And who will walk a mile with me
Along life's weary way?
A friend whose heart has eyes to see
The stars shine out o'er the darkening sea.
And the quiet rest at the end of the day,
A friend who knows, and dares to say,
The brave, sweet words that cheer the way
Where he walks a mile with me.

With such a comrade, such a friend,
I fain would walk till journey's end,
Through summer sunshine, winter rain,
And then?—Farewell, we shall meet again!

—Dr. Henry Van Dyke.

SUSPECT ARRESTED NEAR AUMSVILLE

though sullen when captured, made no effort to resist arrest. A pair of rubber gloves and other suspicious articles were discovered about the house which gave strength to the suspicions of Chief Moffitt.

Comes From Nebraska

Stone is understood to have come here about five years ago with his parents from Nebraska. He is about 21 years old. When questioned in Salem by the police last night he maintained a stolid silence as to the Salem store burglaries. He is also suspected of several hold-ups which have been perpetrated here during the last few months.

Both Salem stores were entered in the same way on the night of November 17, through the skylight at the rear. Escape was made through the rear door.

Cash Is Taken

The burglar escaped with $200 from the till of the Man's Shop, owned by William Zosel and Ellis Cooley, and approximately $40 from the Gwynn barber shop. In addition several barbers' tools were taken.

Stone will be arraigned before Judge G. E. Unruh in the justice court at 2 p. m. today.
