Control of Straits Discussed in Conciliatory Manner—All Optimistic

LAUSANNE, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Both Turkish and allied delegations relaxed in their attitude today and discussed control of the straits in such a conciliatory spirit that there is every indication some sort of straits convention may be signed in a very few days.

U. S. Note Fruitful
The note of the United States declaring that it does not regard an international commission as necessary, undoubtedly bore fruit as Lord Curzon gave careful consideration to Ismet Pasha's plea that Turkey would consider international interference with Turkey's affairs as "worse than death." An agreement likely will be reached exempting the demilitarized zone along the straits from control by the proposed international commission which will have jurisdiction only over navigation of the straits, leaving even the pilotage to the Turks.

Pasha Wants Guarantees
Ismet Pasha also pleaded for further guarantees for the safety of Constantinople than those which would be afforded by the league of nations and proposed additional guarantees similar to those given to the Aland islands. He insisted that Turkey must have further assurances from the important powers individually and collectively that her territory will not be violated. He accepted in principle the fundamental provisions for control of the straits outlined by the allies, but pleaded that Turkey must have had her sovereign rights thoroughly safeguarded.

Lord Curzon, M. Barere, Baron Hayashi, M. Spalalkovich and other speakers expressed great satisfaction over Turkey's conciliatory attitude.

No Seat Wanted
As it is clear that the United States will accept no seat on the straits control commission, regardless of how much the power of this proposal are limited, the members of the American delegation were asked tonight whether the United States would in any way be bound to respect the regulations imposed by this body and if the United States would negotiate a treaty immediately with Turkey. To this Ambassador Child made no answer.

EFFICIENCY TEST IS MADE AT PLANT

New Construction of P. & B. L. & P. in Salem Proves to Be Satisfactory

A fuel and efficiency test of the new power plant of the Portland Light & Power company in Salem was made Saturday and Sunday, when all the water and fuel were carefully weighed in the big new boiler room. Some remarkably good results were secured, in the amount of water evaporated and turned into steam per unit weight of fuel, both oil and "hog" fuel. The plant is now running steadily, with gratifying results.

ent as a pocket in a shirt, and with plenty of room for doing all the work as it comes along to do. The old plant, which was built up piecemeal and contained many small, uncorrelated units, never was very satisfactory. The new plant is one powerful unit, several times the total of the old collection of boiler and engine parts, and it is the last word in power construction.

The boiler house has not yet been built, all the furnace feeding being done from outdoors. The sawdust and desiccated wood fuel is brought up from the railroad by a chain conveyor run by electric power from the plant. The steam making results achieved under the big water-tube boilers is said to be entirely successful. The plant aims to run mostly on "hog" fuel, though it has oil burners as an auxiliary in case the other fuel supply should fall even for a few minutes, or if the demand calls for greater heat and steam production that the wood alone will supply.

Improvement of Links Is Reported by Club

Plans for the improvement of the Ilabe County club and increasing of the club membership were discussed at the annual meeting of the club this week. T. A. Livesly was re-elected president of the board for the coming year. Other officers chosen for the year include Dan J. Fry, vice-president; William S. Walton, treasurer; W. H. Burghardt, secretary; and Dr. H. H. Olinger, member of the board of directors. More than $8,000 of the $10,000 fund which the members started out to secure last summer, has been paid in and has all been paid out on the golf links, according to John J. Roberts, chairman of the finance committee.

Piping of water to the links for all year round use was suggested by the members at the general discussion. Among the improvements made during the last year is included a cottage for the keeper.

EMBEZZLER FREED BY THE GOVERNOR

K. C. Amann of Pendleton Given Freedom on Recommendation of Board

It became known yesterday that Governor Ritner has granted a conditional pardon to K. C. Amann, who was received at the state penitentiary 18 months ago to serve an indeterminate sentence with five year maximum on conviction of embezzling $9000 in Umatilla county. He was charged with padding the payroll in the office of the county roadmaster. The conditional pardon, which was effective last Saturday, was granted on recommendation of the state parole board and on petition of a large number of citizens of Pendleton, it was said. Of the $9000 embezzled by Amann he has paid back $1500, and under the terms of his pardon must pay back the remainder at $25 a month.

Eight to Be Arraigned on Commerce Conspiracy

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 20.—Eight railroad men convicted today of conspiracy to interfere with interstate commerce, will be arraigned for sentence next Tuesday before Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe in the United States district court here. The maximum penalty which may be imposed is two years imprisonment or $10,000 fine or both. They were alleged to have plotted to tie up traffic on the Atchinson Topeka and Santa Fe railroad last August by causing a walkout of trainmen at desert points.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

Willamette wins!!!
It is a three million school.
It is face forward, head up.
There will be 1000 students in three years.
There will be a great gymnasium and a fine heating plant—

And the historic institution will not quit growing. It will live forever, and grow for all time.
The Salem forces fought nobly; the Salem people responded magnificently.

There is a tired bunch among the workers of Salem. But they deserve a monument—and they will have one, in Greater Willamette. Can you think of a finer one?

The Salem spirit is great. May it endure and grow and accomplish constantly bigger things.
Everybody helped. There is glory enough for all.

The "Oregon Blackberry." It is named. See the article in this issue by Knight Pearce. Thus will the evergreen blackberry keep ever green the fame of Oregon in the pie centers of the nation, and of the world.

Man in Great Pain is Committed to Hospital

Suffering from frozen feet and so confused in mind that he was unable to give information about relatives or friends, H. Van Gorder, 75 years old, was received yesterday at the state hospital for the insane. Dr. R. E. L. Steiner, superintendent of the hospital, said it would be necessary to amputate his toes and possibly his feet. The aged man was committed from Douglas county. It is said he had been wandering about and finally took refuge in an old barn near Roseburg. The authorities hope to get a coherent story from him about relatives who can be notified of his condition.
