

LADY BILLY IS OLD LOVE STORY

An old Roumanian castle, with its haunting love story of the long ago, is the setting for "Lady Billy," the new classical musical comedy in which Henry W. Savage is now presenting Mitzl on tour. She comes to the Grand theatre December 27. Mitzl's singular charm, spright-fering for the season, is an original story by Zelta Sears, who is also the author of the lyrics. The composer, Harold Levey, a young American and the protegee of Victor Herbert, may also be hailed as a "Savage discovery." The sumptuous staging of "Lady Billy" is the achievement of John McKee, remembered for his novel stagings of "Madame X," "See Saw" and "Shavings." In the arrangement of dance numbers for "Lady Billy" he was aided by Julian Alfred. The cast surrounding Mitzl in "Lady Billy" is unusually brilliant.

ness and drollery, which have captivated American audiences in "Sari," "Pom Pom" and "Head Over Heels," are intensified in her newest character conception—the irresistible "Lady Billy," a young Roumanian countess whose adventures take her from an old-world castle to American city life, in an amazing and amusing series of guises and disguises. "Lady Billy," which is Mr. Savage's most pretentious musical of-

A novelty of "Lady Billy" is the singing and acting ability of the chorus. According to the new Savage experiment, the "chorus girls" are superseded by an octette of young ladies who qualify as actresses, dancers and singers and a quintette of special dancers. There is also a stirring male quartette. Sparkling through every scene and setting of "Lady Billy" is Mitzl. A special orchestra will be brought to this city.

YESTERDAY IN WASHINGTON

President Harding granted Christmas pardons to three federal prisoners. Favorable report of the capper "truth in fabric" bill was ordered by the senate interstate commerce committee. The house rejected a proposal to appropriate $360,000 for the customary free distribution of seed by members of congress. The senate began consideration of the naval appropriation bill with debate at the outset centering on disarmament proposals. Return of all property seized by the government from subjects of Austria-Hungary during the war was advocated by Alien Property Custodian Miller. Abrogation by congress of commercial treaties which discriminate against the United States was proposed by Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, in amendments to the shopping bill. Charles W. Morse, New York ship builder under indictment here, was denied permission by the District of Columbia supreme court to go to Rome for consultation with the Pope's physician.
