Lausanne Conference Leaders Adjourn Until Tuesday—Hope Still Held

LAUSANNE, Dec. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Near East conference has taken a brief Christmas recess until Tuesday afternoon and there is general hope among the delegates that the two days respite will aid the conference leaders in finding paths of wisdom and progress.

Parley Going Backwards

Christmas week has set the conference back rather than forward; even the problem of the straits which seemed on the verge of a satisfactory settlement was placed in peril. A new ultimatum from the Turks that if they could not obtain their desires on several points especially with reference to a non-aggression pact in favor of Turkey they would not accept international control for the passage of warships, has prevented settlement of the straits question.

Turks Hold Out

"We will give you your guarantee of non-aggression but such a pact will obligate the powers to be responsible that you will not be attacked; therefore, give your international commission jurisdiction not only over the passage of ships through the straits but also over the zones of demilitarization. Responsibilities implies authority to prevent disaster." But the Turks say that foreign supervision over Turkish zones would violate Turkey's sovereignty.

There are other great conference difficulties—capitulations and customs tariffs and the latter may never be settled at Lausanne. With respect to capitulations, which the Turks desire to be rid of the allies and the United States are taking a firm attitude. They lack confidence in the Turkish judiciary and would be loath to have their citizens tried in purely Turkish courts. The issue is sharp and clear and a solution of this vital problem has not yet appeared.

MEETINGS HERE SOON TO CLOSE

(CONTRIBUTED)

Evangelist Frederick J. Betts of New York City, who on November 9 began a 10-day meeting which has been running nearly seven weeks in the W. C. T. U. hall and during the past week in the armory, from the very first, interest Holy Spirit was manifest and increased and the presence of the souls were saved, Christians baptized with the Holy Spirit, and miracles, and wonderful cases of healing were wrought. A large number were baptized at the baptismal service held in the First Christian church Thanksgiving night and there are many more candidates for the baptismal service Christmas (Monday) night, which will be held at the same church. The presence of power of God have been so manifested that it seems utterly impossible for anyone who has the least conception of the word of God, or knows church history, to doubt this work or call it anything else, but similar work done by Wesley, Whitefield, Finney, Moody, and the great Welsh revival some years ago.

These services have been held under the auspices of the Christian and Missionary alliance, Rev. A. B. Simpson founder, and have been held in the armory the past week, but will be every Friday and Sunday afternoon and evening in W. C. T. U. hall.

H. E. Caswell and wife are the local pastors.

Christmas Illumination Thrust Upon Silverton

SILVERTON, Ore., Dec. 23.—(Special to The Statesman)—Silverton main street had a real Christmas appearance Friday night as the transformer burned out and the storekeepers were forced to resort to candles and lamps. All of the windows were illuminated with candles, making a beautiful showing among the Christmas decorations.

FOLLIES OF DYING RICH

A man who dies poor can pretty well count on going into family annals as a pretty fine sort, not so much because of his own character and achievements as because of natural human vanity. It is only human to give other people the idea that we are descended from very admirable stock, so, though a man's children may only refer to him as a poor but honest parent immediately after his demise, as time goes on his virtues, in so far as they are related to others, will increase considerably. And by the time his grandchildren get around to telling about him he will have acquired just about as full a set of admirable points as any man could wish.

But we have had plenty of evidence in recent will contests to show that with men who die rich it is likely to be very different.

A man may work hard, accumulate a fortune and pass away a
