

Society

By MARGUERITE GLEESON

HOLIDAY festivities between Christmas and New Years is now at its height. The gay holiday informality has taken the form of numerous small parties and many of the usual small groups are making of their meetings holiday parties.

Among the guests in the city during the week were Dr. and Mrs. Harry Clay of San Francisco. Mrs. Clay was the inspiration for several delightful affairs during the early part of the week. With Dr. Clay she left Wednesday. While here they were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush.

Coming as a distinct disappointment was the postponement of the Illahee Country club dance which was to have been given Wednesday evening. The college dance Saturday evening will in a measure close the festivity of the college and university groups who will be soon returning for college class work.

One of the prettiest of holiday parties were the series of two sponsored yesterday by the Monday Bridge club at the home of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts. The beautiful studio of the Roberts home made a pretty setting for the 20 card tables yesterday afternoon when 80 women gathered for an afternoon of bridge.

An equal number of men and women gathered in the evening for the "500." Holiday colors, with wild Christmas blossoms and greens made a delightful setting for the afternoon and evening party.

One of the pretty New Year watch parties will be the annual open house party kept by Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett. This will be their 43rd wedding anniversary and as they have done for many years, they will be at home to their many friends during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCallister and children are home following a family party near Corvallis which was held for the holidays. Mrs. McCallister's family reside within a few miles of Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith Jr. had as their guests for the holiday Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Chester F. Gough and Mrs. N. A. Gough of Portland.

Patrons and patronesses for the Oregon Agricultural college dance include President and Mrs. William Jasper Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Koser, Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Dechebach and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Cupper.

The dance will be given in the Elite hall Saturday evening. This will be one of the all college affairs which will feature the holiday vacation. It is being sponsored by the Salem O. A. C. club and is a joint merry making for the alumni and students of the college. College classes will resume next Tuesday, January 2. Many of the students will return Sunday in order that they may attend the Corvallis-Toledo High school football game which will be played Monday, New Year's on the college gridiron, Bell field.

A wedding of much interest to Salem people occurred Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Agatha's church in Portland when Miss Edna Stockenberg and John Albrich were united in marriage. The ceremony was marked by utmost simplicity, only the relatives and a few close friends of the couple being present.

The bride was accompanied to the altar rail by the groom's uncle, John Albrich, and the bridesmaid, Theresa Albrich by Miss Burns also of Portland. They were met at the altar rail by John Albrich, the groom, and Joseph Albrich, brother of the groom, best man, who accompanied them to the foot of the altar where the vows were pledged in presence of Rev. John Commiskey. A nuptial mass followed immediately.

Mr. Albrich is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Albrich of Salem and had been a resident of Salem up to a year and a half ago.

He was graduated from Salem High school with the class of 1921. Shortly after graduation he left Salem to accept a position in the credit department of Mier & Frank's department store.

Among relatives and friends who attended from Salem were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Albrich, Mrs. T. M. Barr, Miss Ruth Kuhn, Henry Barr, and Albrich.

NEW YORK BAR'S LATEST WOMAN MEMBER AND HER SON,

Mrs. Winifred Wilton Wilson, the wife of Archibald Stearns Wilson of "Hilltop," Hastings-on-Hudson, has just been admitted to the New York bar on motion, a very unusual honor. Mrs. Wilson was a Canadian before her marriage and was the first woman lawyer in Winnipeg. Mrs. Wilson has opened offices in New York city and will devote herself to the cases of women and children.

Winnifred Albrich and Theresa Albrich.

Dr. W. C. Kantner and Miss La Verne Kantner have returned from a holiday visit to Mrs. A. Thomas in Seattle. Mrs. Kantner will return Saturday. Dr. Kantner returned early to officiate at the funeral of Mrs. Roberts in Portland yesterday.

One of the pretty New Year observances will be the evening vesper service of the First Presbyterian church which will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Messages from former pastors and foreign workers of the church will be the feature of the service. The service is open to the public.

Following is the program: Prelude... "Chorus of Angels," Clarke
Scripture Reading.....

Dr. L. G. Altman

Prayer..... F. G. Albert
Offertory.....
"Where Dusk Gathers Deep," Stebbins
Opening Words.....

Rev. Ward Willis Long
Review of the Past, A. O. Condit
Letters from former ministers and members.....

Read by C. A. Kells
Special music.....
Forward Look.....

Representatives from the Sunday school, Ladies' Aid, Woman's Missionary society, Young Peoples' work, Trustees, The New church, Men's work, and session.
Hymn, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds,"..... Congregation
Closing consecration prayer.
Benediction.....

Mrs. H. J. Clement will be in charge of the program given this afternoon at the meeting of the Aid society of the First Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durbin had as their house guests for the holidays, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pearson and Mrs. J. W. Spriggs of Portland.

Miss Alberta Hudson will leave today for her home in Holly, New York, following several weeks visit at the A. C. Perry home in Salem.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Downs spent the holiday week end in Portland.

Twenty pupils from the State Deaf school were guests of the Oregon theatre Wednesday, for the show "To Have and to Hold." Candy for the youngsters was furnished by the Gray Belle later. Mrs. W. E. Burke was chaperone for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Baker and Mrs. Baker's sister, Mrs. T. H. Adams of Vancouver, Wash., with her son, Junior Adams will leave this morning for southern California. They will visit in San Francisco, Bakersfield, Los Angeles, Long Beach and Huntington Beach. They will be gone for six weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Poling are expected to arrive in Salem early Sunday morning. Dr. Poling is to be the new pastor of the Cottage Street Evangelical church and is coming from Pennsylvania. They formerly lived in Oregon and have many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook Patton spent the holiday week end in Portland with friends.

Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Miss Lillian Applegate will be joint hostesses Saturday for Chemeketa chapter of the D. A. R. International Relations will be the subject taken up during the program hour.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton of LaGrande are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Luper.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fleming have as their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Mauer of San Francisco.

Read the Classified Ads.

Senator Couzens admits that fore resigned as mayor of De enough to hold on to a block he is not big enough man to trout. This is quite a concess- of Ford stock until its sale made hold two jobs and he has there- sten by the man who was smart him a twenty millionairs.

TIRES

You Are Going to Need Them Buy Before the Raise in Prices

BRUNSWICK CORD "A Good Tire"		McCLAREN CORD "They Make no Better"
30x3	6000 mile fabric $ 6.95	30x3	Standard cord $ 9.95
30x3 1/2	6000 mile fabric 7.95	30x3 1/2	Standard cord 11.95
30x3 1/2	oversize cord 12.55	30x3 1/2	oversize cord 16.50
32x3 1/2	oversize cord 17.45	32x3 1/2	oversize cord 24.90
31x4	oversize cord (see 30x3 1/2)	32x4	oversize cord 30.90
32x4	oversize cord 22.15	32x4	oversize cord 30.95
33x4	oversize cord 22.85	34x4	oversize cord 31.85
34x4	oversize cord 23.45	32x4 1/2	oversize cord 39.50
32x4 1/2	oversize cord 26.85	33x4 1/2	oversize cord 40.40
34x4 1/2	oversize cord 29.30	34x4 1/2	oversize cord 41.40
32x4 1/2	oversize cord 30.00	35x5	oversize cord 51.65
34x4 1/2	oversize cord 30.00
35x5	oversize cord 39.40

We have any price tire you want

For people who give real thought to tire mileage

See Our Selection

"Jim" Smith & Watkins "Bill"

PHONE 44

"The House of Quality"

147 N. HIGH ST.

STARTING TODAY—FIRST SHOW 2 P. M.—GO!

"Under Two Flags"

NOTE: Our booking on this big special has been curtailed so we are limited to just two days—Friday and Saturday. That's why we are using all this space as it is too good a picture for anyone to miss.
—THE OREGON

Priscilla Dean and James Kirkwood

If you love action, thrills, daring, bravery, romance, in other words, if you are human, you will, as Dinty says, fairly "eat this up!" Taken from Ouida's famous novel, Priscilla as "Cigarette," daughter of the regiment.

Harold Windus
Playing "A Song of India" on the giant Wurlitzer

OREGON

