"Who's given up any reservations?" Dicky asked belligerently, looking at me.

"Not I," I returned lightly giad, indeed, that his truculence had taken this turn. If only he would share my determination to get as far North as possible in spite of the railroad strike, marked strength of today's stock everything would be all right. "Fortunately, Margaret got a ittle firmness in her backbone for a wonder, and told him she would hold on to her reservation,

HELD OPTIMISTIC

Business Prospects for Next Year Appear Favorable -Market is Strong

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.-The market generally was construed as an indication of the financial community's optimism concerning the industrial and business outlook for the next year. The bidding up of stocks was accepted in the face of a heavy volume of cash sales resorted to in order to establish tax loss es, higher call money rates and the restriction of out of town business by the crippled wire
