PANTHERS WIN 16 TO 7 FROM CARDS, DEFENSIVE EXCELS

STADIUM, STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Dec. 30.—The Panther football team from the University of Pittsburgh had little trouble in defeating Stanford university, 16 to 7 here today in the second east vs. west game of the season. The visitors outclassed the Cardinals throughout the game and except for a few minutes during the last period on the offensive.

Only a vicious Stanford defensive prevented the score from being higher. Six times the Pitt backfield with its crack fullback Hewitt and its star halfback Flanagan did most of the work, by line bucks and forward passes, carried the ball within the Stanford 20-yard line and six times Stanford held and punted out to safety.

It was one Warner trained team playing against another, and the most experienced eleven won. Glenn Warner, who is coach of the Panthers, is also advisory coach of the Stanford team and comes to take full charge of the eleven in 1923.

Both teams were crippled by the absence of stars. On the Stanford side, Art Wilcox, former captain and star "triple threat" man was out with injuries while the Pitt team played for all but three minutes without Holloran, its captain. Holloran entered the game for the last three minutes of play.

Fumbles Costly
Costly Stanford fumbles helped Pitt run up its score today, although it is probable that the scores would have been made anyway for the Panther backfield tore through the Cardinal line almost at will during part of the game.

In the second period the first Pitt touchdown was made when Cuddeback fumbled, Nowser recovered and after several bucks, Hewitt went across. The next scoring was made in the same period when Cleveland fumbled, giving Pitt the ball. After driving toward the Cardinal goal line Williams sent over a drop kick. Pitt's second touchdown was made in the last period when Flanagan drove through the Stanford line.

Then came the Stanford offensive. A forward pass, Cleveland to Thomas, gave Stanford the ball on Pitt's 29-yard line, but the Panthers regained possession by intercepting a forward pass. Stanford was not to be denied, however, and with the Cardinal-rooting section crying for a score, the team repeated by forward passing to Pitt's one-yard line, from where Dennis went across.

Approximately ten thousand persons attended the game. A much larger crowd was expected, but threatening clouds kept many away.

Lineup and summary:

OHIO TEAM HAS BIG JOB AHEAD

Toledo Grid Stars Face Corvallis for World's Championship

Salem is expected to send an interesting delegation to Corvallis, Monday, New Year's day, to attend the "World's Championship" high school football game between the Corvallis team and the team from Scott High school, Toledo, Ohio. The Ohioans are now in Portland, to remain until Sunday afternoon, when they go down to Albany to make their headquarters until after the game.

The Scott school is sending a team that is claimed to average 165 pounds, though there are men weighing above 200 pounds, and their line is said to outweigh the Corvallis line by 26 pounds per man. They have an impressive record for the season just closed; in eight games they have played six in which they were not scored against, with their own scoring average 48.5 for the six. In their full season, they have scored 351 points, against 33 for all their opponents. Corvallis, however, also has an impressive record, of 276 points against the same number of teams and only seven points were scored against them! The only question would be the comparative quality of the opponents. Scott played the Waite team of their own city, 15 to 14. Corvallis played Salem, 3 to 1, which might stand for games of almost equal significance, though the Waite team was claimed to be 20 pounds per man heavier than the Scotts.

The Easterners claim three special stars, Bill Hunt, fullback, Babe Farrison, tackle, and Evans, quarter. Corvallis has some stars, too, especially Avritt, whom they rate as perhaps the best high school fullback on the coast, and Edwards, who as safety has not misjudged a punt in the whole season.

Corvallis has had the full run of the O. A. C. gymnasium and field, and the team is said to be in great condition. While the visitors have the advantage in weight, usually considered an advantage on a wet field, the Corvallis team is said to be rather glad of the rain, that they can run over and the big vis-

THEFTS IN CITY FEWER THIS YEAR

Report of Chief Moffitt Gives Decline in Stealings — Complaints Less

There has been a marked reduction in the number of petty thefts reported in the city this year over last year's record, according to the annual report of Chief Moffitt, which he is preparing to submit to the city recorder. In addition, complaints filed by Salem residents this year show a considerable reduction over the number filed last year. Sleepers at the station, the report shows, are on the increase.

According to figures prepared, there were 116 bicycles stolen in 1922, of which 114 were recovered, as against 264 stolen last year of which 225 were recovered. Complaints filed by residents numbered 4528 this year, against 5,200 last year. Floaters show a decided preference for the station cots this year. Free beds were given to 1,014 men, while only 815 applied for accommodations during 1921.

A less number of arrests were made during the year of 1922 than in 1921, the report shows. A total of 541 arrests were made this year, while 546 were made last year. Jail sentences served, however, were longer, a total of 437 days being served this year and 372½ days during the year of 1921.

PENN STATE-U.S.C. READY FOR MIX

Secret Practice Closes — Both Teams to Rest Before Game Tomorrow

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 30.—Secret practice on Rose Bowl field today marked the close of a strenuous week of training for the Pennsylvania State and University of Southern California football teams, which clash here New Year's day in the annual east-west sports feature of the Tournament of Roses.

Tomorrow both teams will enjoy comparative rest, taking just enough exercise to keep them limbered up for Monday's contest. Both Hugo Bezdek, coach of the Penn Staters, and Elmer C. Henderson, mentor of the Trojan squad, appeared satisfied with their week's work, and the rival squads are expected to trot onto the field at 2:15 Monday afternoon in top-notch condition.

Clear skies prevailed again today, and fair weather was predicted for Sunday, but football fans who served in the navy cocked a dubious eye at the corona which hung over the moon last night and said they feared Rose bowl might encounter a squall about January 1.

STAYTON TEAM BEATS ALUMNI

First Time in History of School Graduate Squad Has Been Beaten

STAYTON, Dec. 30.—(Special to the Statesman)—For the first time in the history of the school, the Stayton school team defeated an alumni team in its initial game of the season. The two teams met Friday night at the school gymnasium, and the preppers were able to put the Indian sign on the older players, by a score of 23 to 21. The youngsters were heavily outweighed, but they had the endurance and a team game that put them ahead in the final count. The scoring of L. Smith, forward, with 11 points, and Phillips, right guard, with 10 points, was the notable feature of the game. Mulkey, right guard for the alumni, was the high man for his team. The players were:

Team: Montgomery, rf; L. Smith, lf; Lewis, c; Nissler, lg; Phillips rg. Alumni: Fisher, rf; Warren lf; W. Smith, c; Keech, lg; Mulkey, rg. Substitutions: Bay for L. Smith, in second half; Russell for W. Smith. Four fouls were called on the team, and seven on the alumni.

The girls' team fairly overwhelmed the alumni girls, by the disastrous score of 39 to 4. The team forwards, Marie Weddle and Evelyn Howarth, made respectively 6 and 33 points; Mabel Ryan for the alumni made the only scoring for her team, 4 points. Five fouls were called against the team and 10 against the alumni. The players were: Team: Marie Weddle, rf; Evelyn Howarth, lf; Alice Klecher, jumping center; Genevieve Spaniol, center; Elizabeth Lee, lg; Edna Ferris, rg. Alumni: Wava Brown, rf; Mabel Ryan, lf; Ella Spaniol, jumping center; Mrs. Rier center; Mary Tate, lg; Othelia Spaniol, rg.
Coach Anderton refereed both games.

Fire Hazards Searched For by Deputy Marshals

Horace Sykes and James S. Gleason, deputy state fire marshals, have started the task of inspecting the state house and all state institutions with a view of eliminating any fire hazards that may exist at the present time.

The report of the fire marshals will be filed with the governor within the next week, together with any legislative recommendations that they may deem desirable. Such recommendations, if there be any, will be submitted to the legislature during its next session, which starts January 8.
