NEW YEAR'S with attendant festivity will be the inspiration for numerous social groups tonight and tomorrow. Many watch parties will be given in addition to midnight matinees and frolics at the different theaters.

Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett will entertain with their annual open house for friends New Year's, the occasion of their forty-third wedding anniversary. This is a yearly custom of Judge and Mrs. Burnett, and their hosts of friends in Salem will join with them again this year in the celebration.

Mrs. Harry Clay, who with Dr. Clay, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush for the Christmas holidays, was the inspiration for several delightful affairs during her short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bush were hosts Christmas eve for a delightful holiday dinner party at which covers were placed for ten. Bright red carnations were used on the pretty dinner table where places were marked by unusual favors representing the peoples from foreign shores.

The guests entertained included Dr. and Mrs. Clay, Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Downs and Mr. and Mrs. W. Connel Dyer.

Mrs. Clay was the inspiration for a pretty afternoon affair on Tuesday, the day after Christmas, when Mrs. E. C. Cross entertained old friends. Joint hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Curtis B. Cross and Mrs. Prince W. Byrd.

Red roses and red tapers on the tea table lent a pretty holiday air which blended in with the holiday greens and festive spirit. Mrs. A. N. Bush and Mrs. Henry Meyers presided at the tea table. Assisting in serving were Mrs. T. C. Smith, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin and Mrs. Henry B. Thielson. Assisting in the dining-room were Mrs. W. Connel Dyer, Mrs. Keith Powell and Mrs. Harry Hawkins. Miss Nell Thielson and Miss Eliza Nolan assisted in the reception rooms.

Entertaining for Miss Edith Pierce and Miss Carmen Espinose, Mrs. Raymond Walsh was hostess Friday afternoon for a number of the younger maids and matrons. Miss Pierce is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pierce of La Grande, and is a house guest of Miss Margaret Goodin, as is Miss Espinose.

Miss Espinose is a member of the faculty at the University of Oregon where Miss Pierce is a student. Assisting Mrs. Walsh during the afternoon were Miss Marie Churchill and Miss Priscilla Fry.

Mrs. E. C. Cross and Mrs. Prince W. Byrd went to Portland Friday and will spend several days there.

Mrs. Frederick Lampert was hostess Thursday for the Bridge Luncheon club. Pointsettias centered the pretty luncheon table and Christmas tree cards marked the places for the guests. Bridge was played during the afternoon hours.

Special guests for the day included Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. T. R. Livesley, Mrs. Homer Egan, Mrs. Gough and Miss Catherine Carson.

The Thursday Bridge club met last week with Mrs. E. L. Kappahn. Christmas decorations were used about the rooms. Mrs. E. C. Quinn and Mrs. C. I. Inman assisted in serving. Special guests for the evening were Mrs. L. W. Gleason and Mrs. U. S. Page. Mrs. Charles Knowland will entertain in the club in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Inman entertained Friday at a Christmas party for the members of the Tano "500" club. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson will be hosts for the club at the next meeting.

Members of the Tano club are Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kappahn, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Inman.

Miss Mabel Clair Patrick became the bride of Karl Andrew Chapler at a pretty wedding on Thursday afternoon. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Patrick and has until recently been employed at the office of the state superintendent of schools.

The rooms of the Patrick home were decorated with Oregon greenery and vivid poinsettias. Rev. Ward Willis Long officiated at the impressive ring service. An informal reception followed the marriage service and the young couple left later for a short wedding trip to Portland and other northern points.

Mr. Chapler, who is now employed in the Salem office of the Associated Oil company, was a member of the class of 1917 of Willamette university and enlisted just before commencement. He went overseas and served with a machine gun company until the close of the war.

Mrs. Chapler's family are pioneer residents of Polk county and have hosts of friends in both Marion and Polk counties. Mr. and Mrs. Chapler will make their home after January 1 at 1165 South High street.

A dainty Christmas dance by Nancy Thielson and an attractive toe number by Jeanette Sykes were the features of an informal dance given by Mrs. Ralph White and the members of her advanced ballet class Friday evening, in Derby hall. Approximately 50 couples were present to enjoy an evening's dancing in the gaily decorated hall, made attractive with fir boughs, shaded lights and Christmas greenery.

Mildred Tickle, Margaret White, Nancy Thielson, Florence Howe, Nan Putnam, Thelma Robinson, Marie Briggs, Elizabeth Levy, Fay Wassam, Grace Gore, Fay Hendrickson, Vivian Hargrove, Frances Parker, Alice Putnam, Helen Ramsden, Evelyn Stevenson, Molly Schwabauer, Nelle Thielson, Laura Wagner, Valerie Briggs and Luella Patton were hostesses with Mrs. White.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Parr, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sykes, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Smith; Kathleen Walsh, Inez Frye, Georgia Bonesteel, Loretta Miller, Thelma Robinson, Lillian Jaquet, Ruth Austin, Ruth Tucker, Lois Wheeler, Macyle Hunter, Grace Holt, Jeanette Sykes, Vivian Nelson, Nan Putnam, Alice Forbes, Florence Cartwright, Edna Simonton; Messrs. Leo G. Spitzbart, K. Pease, Garret Harra, Harold Mero, Edwin Chastain, Norwin Kennedy, O. K. DeWitt, Harry Levy, Harold Larsen, Earl White, Ralph White, Rex Adolph, Saul Janz, Ralph Artz, Ed Cleary, Lester Evans, Edwin Armstrong, Kenneth Wilson, Russell Bonesteel, LeRoy Gard, Dwight Quisenberry, James Marr, Willard Marshall, Fred Mangis, Oliver Meyers, J. K. Simonton, Charles Goodwin, Adolph Glat, Carl Pease, Harold Miller, Armin Berger, Lyle Bartholomew, William Tickle, Jack Minto, Chester Kurtz, James Wagner, Clarence Halder and Andrew Vincent.

Mrs. Josie L. Stewart is the guest of Mrs. R. J. Hendricks. Mrs. Stewart is chaperon at the Pi Beta Phi house in Corvallis and will return on Tuesday.

Miss Helen Moore, member of the faculty of the Oregon Agricultural college and Miss Ruth Moore, a student there, has spent the holiday vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore in Salem. They will return to Corvallis Monday.

Miss Winnifred Holt, Who Helped Blind Students, Will Marry Soon

News of the engagement of Miss Winnifred Holt of Burlington, Vt., to Rufus Graves Mather, a prominent Connecticut lawyer, is of international interest owing to the work of Miss Holt for the blind in this country, France, Italy and Poland.

Musical

A Christmas recital was given Wednesday afternoon by the piano pupils of Miss Margaret Fisher at her home. The play-

Mrs. George Kraus and Miss Orletta Kraus of Aurora were guests of Salem friends during the week.

Open house will be held at the Y. W. C. A. tomorrow, Monday, from 3 to 5 o'clock. It is hoped that Miss Marion Wyman, the new general secretary, will arrive in time to meet the guests. Miss Wyman comes from Lincoln, Nebraska.

The social committee in charge of the open house today include Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. W. Connel Dyer, Mrs. A. J. Rahn, Mrs. U. G. Shipley.

The association is especially anxious that those calling may find it possible to bring gift books for the library of the Y. W. C. A.

A benefit supper will be given tonight at the Jason Lee church. The Old People's home room to be furnished by the church is the object of the benefit. The women of the church will be in charge. A chicken supper will be served and the public is being invited.

Miss Pearl Kappahn had as her guest during the holidays her cousins, Esther and Marjory Anderson of Portland. They returned home Friday evening.

The Adolynke club was entertained this week by Mrs. Oral Lemmon at her home in the Marion apartments. Mrs. Earl Paulson will entertain the club again in two weeks.

Mrs. J. C. Griffith will entertain with a family dinner party tomorrow. Several Portland guests will be included in the list of those entertained.

The new governor-general of Ireland is Tim Healy. Thought Tim was dead, he was much in the limelight during the days of Charles Stewart Parnell and Mrs. Shea. Remember?

Rockefeller's Daughter Keeps Future Plans Secret

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—Following the printing of numerous reports that Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormack, divorced a year ago today from Harold F. McCormack, chairman of the board of directors of the International Harvester company, expected to marry Edward Krenn, Swiss architect, Mrs. McCormack refused today to confirm or deny the reports.

"Not now, or ever," she said, when asked to make a statement. "Whom I marry is nobody's business, but my own." Krenn also refused to be interviewed.
