

Society

THE large bridge party given yesterday at the Gray Belle was one of the most successful, large affairs of the season. The affair was a benefit for the women's community building which the Salem Woman's club proposes to build in the near future.

The building fund committee was in direct charge of the party yesterday in which 96 women played during the afternoon. This committee is composed of Mrs. W. E. Anderson, and Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding.

One of the committees of the club will sponsor a dancing party February 1 in the Armory. Mrs. Harry Hawkins and Mrs. J. W. Harrison will be in charge.

Another social affair planned for the near future is a Charity ball which will be given February 8 in the armory. Prominent society women together with representatives of various civic and fraternal organizations are sponsoring the affair which has aroused considerable interest during the last week.

The large benefit bridge party was attended by more than 90 women and many others came in for tea later in the afternoon. More than $50 was taken in by the committee in charge. Mrs. C. H. Whitmore won high score and was awarded a cash prize which she generously turned over to the committee in charge.

The players at the different tables were as follows: Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, Mrs. Miller McGilchrist, Mrs. Donald Young and Mrs. Erseel Kay.

Mrs. G. G. Brown, Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. Frank Griffith, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. Ralph Watson of Portland.

Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mrs. Homer Goulet, and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris.

Mrs. Elaire Vibbert, Mrs. L. W. Gleason, Mrs. Scott Rago and Mrs. A. Wallace.

Mrs. W. L. Staley, Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mrs. George Rose and Mrs. Harry Widmer.

Mrs. Sam Adolph, Mrs. C. Loughbridge, Mrs. A. Hussey and Mrs. E. Rostein.

Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mrs. J. C. McLeod, Mrs. W. H. Whitmore and Mrs. C. C. Kelly.

Mrs. H. H. Ollinger, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Ed. Gillingham, and Mrs. W. S. Walton.

Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. G. C. Bellinger and Mrs. Frank G. Myers.

Mrs. Bliss Darby, Mrs. Lee Gilbert, Mrs. R. Goulet, and Mrs. W. H. Darby.

Mrs. Frank Bowersox, Mrs. H. T. Worth, Mrs. Irwin of Albany and Mrs. Beulah Mills.

Mrs. William McGilchrist, Mrs. H. J. Conroy, Mrs. Allan Hopkins, Mrs. Karl Kugel.

Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. J. H. Nicholson, Mrs. Carl Pope, Mrs. G. F. Chambers.

Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. R. B. Goodin, Mrs. John Maurer, and Mrs. Frank E. Shafer.

Mrs. E. T. Busselle, Mrs. A. R. Hunter, of LaGrande, Mrs.

C. A. Hunter, Mrs. Walter Buchner.

Mrs. Gertrude J. M. Page, Mrs. Edith Hazard, Mrs. W. A. Cummings, Mrs. Mattie F. Beatty.

Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. E. A. Kuntz, Mrs. H. O. White and Mrs. Eloise Roderick.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. G. A. White, Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, and Mrs. W. E. Anderson.

Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Harry M. Hawkins, Mrs. A. J. Rahn, and Mrs. Karl McMecham.

Mrs. W. E. Willson, Mrs. Robert W. Craig, Mrs. W. M. Bushy and Mrs. S. S. East.

Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. G. G. Brown, Mrs. Herbert Nunn, Mrs. Sam Garland, of Lebanon.

Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. L. W. Rand, Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Mrs. Arthur Vassel.

Mrs. T. A. Livesly, Mrs. David Eyre, Mrs. H. M. Myers, and Mrs. L. C. Smith.

Tea was served following the bridge game and many not playing came in for the tea hour. The women in charge of the benefit expressed themselves as being especially grateful to the Gray Belle which donated the use of the beautiful new dining room for the entire afternoon.

Mrs. F. W. Steusloff was chosen president of the Woman's union of the First Congregational church Friday. Other officers chosen were Mrs. H. W. Bross, vice president; Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, missionary leader; Mrs. H. D. Brown, recording secretary; Mrs. Vera Shattuck, corresponding secretary; Miss Susan Chaffter, treasurer.

The women of the union are entering the new year with enthusiasm and are making plans for enlarging the scope of their service.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fake have gone to Los Angeles for the remainder of the winter.

City, school and state returns on the sale of Christmas seals, which are daily reaching the office of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, are highly gratifying and are strongly indicative of the fact that the state budget of $40,000 has more than been reached, according to the association.

Miss Mary Bayne, popular Salem girl, was the winner in a popularity contest conducted by the OAC Daily Barometer at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Miss Bayne won the title of the most popular girl in college. She was unopposed last spring for the position of secretary of the student body, the highest office which by common consent is each year awarded to a woman student.

Miss Bayne is majoring in physical education and is a member of Delta Psi Kappa, the honorary society of that school. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta. Miss Marjorie Niles of Grants Pass, was voted the prettiest girl in the college.

Mrs. James Lewis, who will leave within a few days with Mr. Lewis for a trip to California, was honor guest yesterday at the home of Mrs. George Pearce when a number of members of the Presbyterian aid society gathered for a social afternoon.

Joint hostesses with Mrs. Pearce were Mrs. J. W. Harbison, Mrs. C. C. Kelly, and Mrs. A. F. Marcus.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will leave early this week for the south and will be gone for several weeks before returning to Salem.

The art exhibit which was to have been in Salem during the coming week has been postponed for the present because of inability of Prof. Albert Schreff to prepare it at this time. It is hoped that the exhibit will be shown here following an exhibit scheduled for Portland next month.

The PEO Founders day banquet which will be observed in Portland tomorrow will be attended by several Salem members of the organization. Among those who will attend from Chapter G are Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. F. W. Seeley, Mrs. G. W. Laflar and Mrs. B. J. Miles.

Mrs. Sam Garland of Lebanon, and Mrs. A. R. Hunter of LaGrande were guests of Chapter G of the PEO Thursday when the members were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. T. Hickey.

Mrs. Garland and Mrs. Hunter are both in Salem with their husbands who are members of the legislature.

Other guests of the group for the afternoon were Miss Reynolds of Marysville, Cal., who is a house guest of Mrs. William Hughes; Mrs. Ella Moody and Mrs. Ellen Miller. Miss Alice Hollister, a former member of Chapter G and now affiliated with Chapter X in Portland, was also a guest for the afternoon. Mrs. Harry M. Styles and Mrs. J. McLeod were guests from Chapter AB of Salem.

Mrs. C. B. McCullough was in charge of the program which was on women poets of America.

Mrs. W. F. Buckner will entertain for the east division of the Presbyterian Aid society Monday afternoon. Joint hostesses will be Mrs. W. H. Steusloff, Mrs. J. C. Griffith, Mrs. O. P. Hoff, Mrs. Clay Taylor and Mrs. John R. Sites.

The benefit dancing party which will be given February 1 by two committees of the Salem Woman's club will be in charge of Mrs. Harry M. Hawkins and Mrs. John W. Harbison. The two groups of women have joined together to give the affair which will be held in the armory.

The women of Mrs. Harbison's committee are Mrs. R. L. White, Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. V. C. A. Downs, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Mrs. H. Miller McGilchrist, Mrs. E. T. Busselle, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. D. H. Ross, Mrs. G. E. Schuneman, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. R. J. Valton, Mrs. Z. J. Riggs, Mrs. Harry Weiss, Mrs. C. E. Bates, Mrs. J. E. Law, Mrs. William Hamilton, Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. A. J. Rahn, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. C. F. McIntire, Mrs. George Bonnell.

Mrs. Hawkins' committee is composed of the following women: Mrs. H. H. Ollinger, Mrs. Roy Burton, Mrs. John Caughbell, Mrs. H. R. Worth, Mrs. W. Conroy Dyer, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Frank Durbin, Mrs. Henry Conroyer, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. Chester Cox, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, Mrs. George Arbuckle, Mrs. William E. Mott, Mrs. H. V. Compton.

Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Karl Beck, Mrs. L. S. Geer and Mrs. J. C. Perry.

The West Side Circle of General Aid met for the first monthly coffee at the home of Mrs. Fred Prince Friday afternoon. Thirty women of the neighborhood enjoyed a social afternoon. Mrs. Charles Given and Mrs. Nellie Knox were assistant hostesses. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ruth Deussen, February 2, to work on quilts.

Salem musicians and music teachers will sponsor the second annual music week which will be held the week following Easter. It will begin as last year, on Easter Sunday, which falls this year on April 1.

A national music week for 1924 and regularly every year thereafter, is indicated by answers to a questionnaire on the subject sent by the National Bureau for the Advancement of Music to music week committees in all parts of the country. May is favored above all other months for the observance.

An unusually attractive program which will be observed Friday evening from the Salem Electric store. The soloists appearing were pupils of John R. Sites, and he played the accompaniments for them on the piano.

The program given was as follows:

"The Sunshine in Your Eyes," Franke Harting; "Rose of My Heart," Herman Loehr, by Lyman McDonald.

"You in a Gondola," Clark; "Sunrise and You," Penn, Willard Bartlett.

"Lost Chord," Sullivan; "It's April in Kilarney," George B. Nevin, Leah Perkins Wyatt.

"Does' Thou Know That Sweet Land," from the opera "Mignam," by Thomas, Sadie Pratt.

"I Love a Lassie," "Vale," Kennedy, Trista Wenger.

Barbara Fritchele tent, Daughters of Veterans, closed its year work with installation of its new officers last night. The group is a patriotic order of about 40 working members with its main object to cheer on their way the veterans of the Civil war.

Mrs. C. B. McCullough was in charge of the program which was on women poets of America.

Mrs. Mary Bayne, popular Salem girl, was the winner in a popularity contest conducted by the OAC Daily Barometer at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Miss Bayne won the title of the most popular girl in college. She was unopposed last spring for the position of secretary of the student body, the highest office which by common consent is each year awarded to a woman student.

Miss Bayne is majoring in physical education and is a member of Delta Psi Kappa, the honorary society of that school. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta. Miss Marjorie Niles of Grants Pass, was voted the prettiest girl in the college.

Mrs. James Lewis, who will

Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Karl Beck, Mrs. L. S. Geer and Mrs. J. C. Perry.

The West Side Circle of General Aid met for the first monthly coffee at the home of Mrs. Fred Prince Friday afternoon. Thirty women of the neighborhood enjoyed a social afternoon. Mrs. Charles Given and Mrs. Nellie Knox were assistant hostesses. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ruth Deussen, February 2, to work on quilts.

Salem musicians and music teachers will sponsor the second annual music week which will be held the week following Easter. It will begin as last year, on Easter Sunday, which falls this year on April 1.

An unusually attractive program which will be observed Friday evening from the Salem Electric store. The soloists appearing were pupils of John R. Sites, and he played the accompaniments for them on the piano.

The program given was as follows:

"The Sunshine in Your Eyes," Franke Harting; "Rose of My Heart," Herman Loehr, by Lyman McDonald.

"You in a Gondola," Clark; "Sunrise and You," Penn, Willard Bartlett.

"Lost Chord," Sullivan; "It's April in Kilarney," George B. Nevin, Leah Perkins Wyatt.

"Does' Thou Know That Sweet Land," from the opera "Mignam," by Thomas, Sadie Pratt.

"I Love a Lassie," "Vale," Kennedy, Trista Wenger.

Barbara Fritchele tent, Daughters of Veterans, closed its year work with installation of its new officers last night. The group is a patriotic order of about 40 working members with its main object to cheer on their way the veterans of the Civil war.

Mrs. C. B. McCullough was in charge of the program which was on women poets of America.

Young Salem Violinist Will Be Soloist for Girls' Glee Club

Miss Iva Claire Love

Members were busy making curtains for the new Old People's home.

After the business session luncheon was served.

The Count-on-Me class of the Baptist church was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. J. Roth on North Cottage street Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. E. J. Roth, Mrs. M. A. Estes and Mrs. Elizabeth Siddall were hostesses of the afternoon. Mrs. Charles M. Oglesby led the devotional service and business was transacted by the president, Mrs. Edith Hikes. Mrs. Theo. Roth had charge of the program, after which refreshments were served by the hostess, and a social time was enjoyed. Attending were Mrs. Ben J. Ehlers, Mrs. G. C. Farmer, Mrs. C. Munding, Mrs. S. Willis, Mrs. Theo. Tuner, Mrs. Ted Condon, Mrs. M. A. Estes, Mrs. L. L. Rau, Mrs. G. Ed Ross, Mrs. W. T. Milliken, Mrs. H. G. Swan, Mrs. D. D. Soccolofsky, Mrs. Ida May Neumyre, Mrs. L. A. Raffety, Mrs. Theo. Roth, Mrs. Charles Slegmund, Mrs. D. S. Turner, Mrs. Charles M. Oglesby, Mrs. Pearl Ralph, Mrs. H. M. McLaren, Miss Dora Walker, Mrs. Milton Melchrest, Mrs. F. A. Everest, Mrs. H. W. Carson, Mrs. W. A. Blake, Mrs. A. F. Byrk, Mrs. Mabel Burry, Mrs. John Sholand, Mrs. Fred Peterson, Mrs. Edith Hikes, Mrs. T. W. Davies, and Class Editor Mrs. Charles Oglesby.

Dine at the Gray Belle

CLUB CALENDAR

Monday
East division of Presbyterian Aid, with Mrs. W. F. Buckner, 1310 Court street.
Chapter AB of PEO with Miss Lena Belle Tartar.

Wednesday
General Aid of First Methodist church.

Friday
Three Link club in IOOF hall.

Saturday
DAR with Mrs. B. L. Steeves, 316 N. Church street.

Mrs. Frederick Lampert left for San Francisco Thursday morning and will be joined there by friends with whom she will go to Palm Beach, Florida. Mrs. Lampert expects to be gone for two months.

Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith entertained for the Alumnae club of Alpha Chi Omega at her home on Court street Thursday afternoon. The members present were Mrs. Martin Fereshedian, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Mrs. Carl Pope, Miss Grace Holt, Miss Dorothea Steusloff, Miss Hazel Seely, Miss Edgar.

Fine Kimball Piano Must be Sold
Will accept terms of $5 down, $1.50 a week. This Kimball has been used but is in perfect condition and we will accept it back in trade and time in one year at full price on a new piano. See this piano today.
Geo. C. Will, 432 State Street

The Way to Gain "Corset Comfort" to wear Finest Corsets. Fitted to the individual figure by Renska L. Swart
Corset Specialist
115 Liberty Street

NEW SPRING WOOLENS

THE NEW SPRING WOOLENS AND SPRING FASHION PLATES ARE HERE FOR BOTH LADIES AND MEN

WE ARE showing in these new woolens, the greatest array ever displayed in Salem.

We made our purchases early, and owing to the fact that we buy in large lots we are offering surprising values.

Eventually You Will Buy Merchant Tailored Clothes

D. H. MOSHER
Merchant Tailor
468 Court Phone 360

GRANDSON OF NORWEGIAN PLAYWRIGHT VISITING U. S.

Lieut. Tancred Ibsen, a grandson of Henrik Ibsen, the famous Norwegian author, has arrived in the United States with his wife (shown with him above). He is a member of the Royal Swedish Flying Corps, and while in this country will take a course of instruction at the West Point Military Academy. Mrs. Ibsen is a noted dancer and pantomimist in her native land.

Under U. S. Government Supervision

To The Young Man!

If you really want to win your way in the business world—get ready now. You can't win until you have learned to keep your expenses less than your income.

A Checking Account will provide you with a complete record of both.

Don't you think you should—

OPEN A CHECKING ACCOUNT TODAY?

United States National Bank
"The Bank That Service Built"
Member Federal Reserve System

Kafoury's JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE CONTINUES

A sale like this only comes twice a year. We're offering the most remarkable values in good merchandise Salem ever has known.

Women's Cotton Hose Clearance Sale, pair 19c Regular 25 and 35c value. Black or brown Downstairs Store	Calico Clearance Sale, pair 9c Good quality; light and dark colors. Downstairs Store
Women's Pure Thread Silk Hose Clearance Sale, pair $1.29 The finest materials obtainable are used in this hose. It has a pyramid heel. Main Floor	A. F. C. Amoskeag Dress Gingham Clearance Sale, yard 22c They're 27 inches wide; lovely patterns, checks, plaids and stripes. Main Floor
Bloomers Clearance Sale 59c Knit Bloomers, pink or white, sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Main Floor	Canton Silk Crepe Clearance Sale, yard $2.69 Nothing better or more serviceable for dress or blouse. Main Floor
Chamoisette Gloves Clearance Sale, pair $1.19 Regular 16-button length in the new wanted shades. Regular $1.50 value. Main Floor	$1.50 All Wool Serge Clearance Sale, yard 98c Comes in navy blue and is 40 inches wide. Exceptionally good value. Main Floor

Extra Special NEW $14.75 and $24.75 Spring Dresses

Women who have wanted a new dress—and hesitated—will wait no longer if they are wise. Crepe de chine, Canton Crepe and Taffeta, with 1923 smart effects. Colors are black, navy and brown. Everyone.

Thrift Week
Sunday, Jan. 21
Share With Others Day

Kafoury Bros
Salem Store 468 State St. Portland Silk Shop 383 Alder St.