A NUMBER of prominent women are cooperating in the arrangements for the Charity ball which will be an event of the early part of next month.

Among those who are assisting with the arrangements are Mrs. Tom Smith, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Fred Thielson and Mrs. John Carson.

A MILLION DOLLAR scholarship loan fund in two years is the goal of the national PEO Sisterhood, which was founded 54 years ago Sunday at the new famous Mt. Pleasant college, Iowa. Celebrating Founder's day, the Oregon PEO Sisterhood Monday gave its annual luncheon at Benson hotel to pay homage to the seven founders.

Many cities of Oregon and a few of California were represented by the 150 women who attended the luncheon. The members of unaffiliated chapters present were greeted by the state president, Mrs. Maude K. Kent of Corvallis. Mrs. Mary Loken of Tualatin, state organizer, was one of the prominent guests.

Mrs. Dorothy Seymour, chapter D, of Forest Grove, prepared a glowing tribute to the seven founders which she read to the assembly. Further tributes to these women was a song written and dedicated by Mrs. C. M. Henderson and sung by all present, also the
