GET BEHIND GOVERNOR PIERCE

We have a condition in Oregon, not a theory. It is very of it-not unless you give short generally believed that the expenses of the state government | measure. are too high-that nearly all public expenses are too high; higher than efficient service warrants. It is also believed that on this account and for other reasons taxes are too way? Not your funeral, you say? high; also, that they are unequal, and that sources of revenue that might and ought to be tapped are neglected-

And these were the high points of discussion in the last campaign.

The people were promised reforms. They voted for reforms. They expect reforms.

Governor Pierce is the chief executive. He is the governor of all the people. He has a program for the correction of the abuses generally complained of-

And the legislature should get behind him and give him the tools he asks for to work with. He is willing to take the responsibilities. Let him.

Forget politics. Forget factions. These things do not matter for the time being. This is not the time for settling political differences. But get something done for relief; for a better distribution of the burdens; for greater earnings wherever earnings Public Hearing Slated are possible, and greater saving wherever a saving may be made without impairing efficiency-Or at least make honest attempts-

Take a chance. A man takes some chances in any thing individuals to designate what he does; he takes a chance when he gets married, or buys a physicians shall attend them or piece of property or launches out in business.

Governor Pierce asks that the Legislature take some lons of state industrial accident a showing, probably better ones amount be cut to $45,000. The chances on giving him the authority to redeem his campaign pledges, and their own campaign pledges, and on the promses he has publicly made since he took the solemn oath to administer his high office.

That there is a disposition in the Legislature to give Governor Pierce what he is asking for in the way of new eh. enactments. This disposition should be encouraged. The whole public should-let its approval of such a course be first lesson by smoking one of Strayer, aL Follett, Taylor, Fisk, known in every way possible.

The people of Oregon, if they were to take a vote today, would line up behind Governor Pierce almost as one man. The Legislature s! uld do the same thing.

There will be another election before two years. There will be another session of the Legislature in January, 1925. Let the administration have a free hand, and let there be a report of progress to the people in the fall of 1924 and to the Legislature that will meet winter after next.

HIRE OUT TO YOURSELF

Some day when you feel gay, and think you need a raise for your valuable service, I'll tell you what to do. You put the shoe on the other foot, and hire out to yourself just for a day or two. Put yourself in the employer's place and keep tab on the work you do.

That's true, but whose time was it? You took pay for it, therefore you sold it. You can't sell eight hours of time and keep part customer you rubbed the wrong flax in the world. Maybe; but you're paid for building trade, not driving it away.

How about the work you had to do over? You're not paid to be careless, you're paid to do work well; not twice, but once; that's enough. Then do it right. That's what you would say if you worked for yourself.

Hire out, then, to a man named 'You" and imagine it's up to you to meet the payroll. Then see what difference it makes in the point of view. Try it once for a day or two .- Exchange.

The Children's Farm Home

Editor The Statesman-That there is need for a home in Oregon to shelter normal, but unfortunate children left orphans. or half orphans, is generally conceded. How urgently this home is needed is little understood save by those who are directly of children. A drive is about to be launched in Salem to raise$5000.000, Satem's share, toward the building fund of one of the group of cottages to be bulit on the Farm Home site near Corvallis. The public is to be asked for the mongood flax as Ireland or Belgium drafted to abolish the state lud- ey, and it is the right of the pubget commission. #### WCTU To Rescue

We are all familiar with the old maxim, "Everybody's business is nobody's business." For too many years the Protestant orphan children of Oregon have been of more or less concern to everybody, but of no particular concern to anybody. Realizing the unpardonable wrong being done these children, the WCTU stepped mal, dependent children of the state could be cared for intelligently and lovingly. There is a place of refuge for the deaf child, the blind child, the feeble-minded child, the delinquent child, but for the normal little orphan, with every promise of developing into a useful, intllligent' citizen, if given a chance, there is no place.
