their Boy Scout campaign fund drive. The Lions have taken over some of the field work for the scouts, and the minstrel show is one of their activities to raise funds for the scout work. The minstrels are working steadily and hard, with a fine line of new stuff that ought to go like gold dollars in a tramps' convention. Merrill Ohling is to be the interlocutor—but s-h-h, that's a secret, and nobody's supposed to know it in advance. Some genuine Alabama songsters and bones and other minstrel artists are to appear on the program.

HOSPITAL BILL GETS BY HOUSE

Keene's Measure Expected to Encounter Opposition in Senate.

Representative Keene's bill, introduced to correct a situation in Eugene but which it is charged will place practically every hospital in the state on the tax rolls, passed the house with 16 dissenting votes.

The origin of the bill is laid to the efforts of the Mercy hospital in Eugene to keep from paying taxes on the ground that it is a charitable institution. In opposition to the measure Representative Kay argued that the bill as drawn is unfair, since many hospitals which could not be exempt under the act, pay out thousands of dollars annually for charitable work.

Light Wine and Beer Amendment Defeated

Efforts of Senators Ellis and Taylor, majority members of the committee an alcoholic traffic, to place amendments into house bill No. 77, one of the prohibition law enforcement measures, that would prevent its applying to light wine and beer, failed yesterday when they were unable to get their majority report on the bill passed by the senate. Instead, Senator Eddy's minority report was substituted with the recommendation that the bill pass in its unamended form.

Ellis, in his argument, said he believed the committee could have gotten together on the bill, but that the Anti-Saloon league was unwilling to have any alterations made in the measure.

Twin of Mrs. Wiggs' of Cabbage Patch Coming

"Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard," represented by its sponsors as a palpable imitation of and improvement on "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," is to be given tonight and Wednesday night at the Salem Heights Community house by local talent interested in raising more funds for the community enterprises. They raise quantities of fruit and of real poultry in the Salem Heights section, and they have all the poultry-yard lingo right in everybody's mouth.

Mrs. Farrington, who came into the community about a year ago, is the leading lady. Harry Burnside, president of the community organization, is one of the principals in the play. Other members are Jesse Campbell, Mrs. George Willson, Georgia Willson, Dorothy Willson, Mr. Van Orsdell, Mrs. C. W. Sawyer, Gladys Battles and Harold Farrington.

The play promises to be a really excellent production, and not of the ordinary type of amateur performances. They have an excellent stage equipment so that they can present a rather pretentious show in a metropolitan way. They are to give the play for two nights, Tuesday and Wednesday.

WOMEN MUST DO JURY SERVICE

House Passes Mrs. Simmons' Bill in Spite of Attorneys' Opposition.

In the face of considerable opposition from a number of lawyers of the house, the house yesterday passed Mrs. Simmons' bill to remove the present exemption clause of the woman's jury bill and require all women to serve except as excused by the trial judge.

The general tone of the opposition was that it would be unfair to the women of the outlying districts to force jury duty on them if they did not wish it. The other arguments were that the present law is not practical, that it is contradictory in that it requires jury duty of women and at the same time provides a blanket exemption, and that the empanelling of women who will not serve is a useless expense.

In support of the bill Representative Carlin stated that he one time believed the vote of the people was something sacred, but that recently and particularly since the recent vote on the recall of the public service commissioners in which his county voted to recall a public service commissioner by 16,000 votes and at the same time elected the same commissioner by 17,000 votes.

Bill Concerning Special Sessions Is Introduced

A resolution, which would refer to the people a constitutional amendment requiring that special sessions of the legislature shall be confined entirely to the subject or subjects named in the governor's proclamation calling such a special session, was introduced yesterday by Representative Bennett and referred to the committee on resolutions. The resolution is in line with the recommendation of ex-Governor Olcott in his final message to the legislature.
