RAM, Friday, February 9. Grand High Priest will make his official visit. Dinner at 7 p. m. All RA Masons welcome. By order of the EHP. David A. Wright, Sec.—Adv.

Suit Brought.
Suit was brought in the circuit court yesterday by the Fern Shoe company against O. E. Price, operating as the Price Shoe company. According to the complaint on February 14, 1922 the defendant shipped to the plaintiff 81 pairs of shoes to be re-made. Thirty pairs were re-made with one strap for $33 and 51 pair with two straps for $47.75, according to the complaint. No part of either amounts were paid. The plaintiff asks judgment for $96.75 with interest at six per cent.

Lincoln Story Hour.
This week's stories at Library story hour will be given over to Lincoln stories. Miss Flora Case will tell the stories which will include "A little lad of long ago" "How they made Abe Lincoln Captain," "Lincoln and the sleeping sentinel," and "Lincoln and the children." The younger children are cordially invited for the Friday afternoon hour, and the older ones for Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, although the stories are much the same for both periods. At each hour this week there will be perhaps 10 minutes in which about five boys and girls may tell their favorite Lincoln stories. All are invited who can listen quietly and happily to stories told for half an hour.

Silver Bell Circle Will Meet.
Tonight at 7 o'clock.—Adv.

Oratory Class.
After a week's vacation, the public speaking class at the Y is to meet tonight, to talk on the question of "What More Can the Civic Clubs do for Salem?" Prof. Harrington of Portland, the director, was laid up last week, and

PERSONAL

Captain Robert M. Duncan, an attorney of Burns, Oregon, is in the city looking after irrigation matters in the legislature and visiting his father, R. B. Duncan of Salem Route 7.

Pictures of Mussolini, the new Italian leader, in a bathing suit are appearing in the newspapers. The way in which his forehead bulges out he must have been a city editor at one time.—Los Angeles Times.

MOSER BILL IS PASSED BY SENATE

Diseased Persons May Be Admitted to Bail and Not Held in Custody.

The Moser bill amending the law applying to persons having venereal diseases so that such persons may be admitted to bail instead of being held in custody pending examination was passed by the senate.

Moser's bill providing that licensed chiropractors be required to pay an annual license of $2 a year to the board of chiropractic examiners was passed.

Senator Smith's bill exempting from the payment of license fees pharmacists who have paid licenses for 20 years was passed.

A bill introduced by Senator Taylor making two years the term of office of county and city health officers instead of an indefinite period and giving county commissioners a voice in the appointment, was passed. Senator Klepper fought the bill, declaring that some official in Portland, afraid he is going to be fired, is using the eastern Oregon senator as a post to keep from getting fired. Only Joseph and Klepper voted against the bill.
