

FIREARMS BILL MEETS DEFEAT

Measure Declared Menace to Society—Robbers Given Opportunities.

The Blowers bill to restrict the use and possession of pistols and revolvers to bona fide residents, and to them only if permits have been obtained, was defeated in the senate yesterday. Senators Joseph, Zimmerman and others opposed the bill vigorously, declaring it would encourage the depredations of thugs and robbers. Moser and Hills defended it. The bill was debated at length. The vote was: Ayes—Dunn, Eddy, Edwards, Ellis, Farrell, Hall, Johnson, Kinney, Klepper, Maglady, Moser, Nickless, Robertson, Upton.

Nays—Brown, Clark, Corbett, Dennis, Flak, Garland, Hare, Joseph, La Follette, Ritter, Staples, Strayer Taylor, Tooze, Zimmerman.

Absent—Smith.

SMOKING BILL ENJOYED BY SOLONS

An hour of horse-play had been indulged in. Fourteen house bills and five senate bills were passed by the house five bills were re-referred to committees and one other, in addition to the tobacco bill, was defeated. This was Representative Cramer's bill to regulate the payment of wages and establish regular paydays.

Taxation and assessment program bills, scheduled for special order this afternoon, were re-referred to the committee at the request of the chairman.

of the state of Oregon are kept in touch with matters of legislation, and

"Whereas, it is due to the people that the proceedings of the ways and means committee in making appropriations or in refusing to make appropriations be published in the daily newspapers; now, therefore,

"Be it resolved by the senate of the state of Oregon, the house of representatives jointly concurring:

"That authorized representatives of the daily newspapers be admitted to all subsequent meetings of the ways and means committee of both the senate and the house, and to any joint meetings of said committees which may be held, in order that the people of the state, through such newspapers, may be kept informed with regard to the actions taken by such committees."

by their superintendents and their requests that made appearances last night were:

State school for feeble-minded, $475,100; state tuberculosis hospital, $184,760; state school for the deaf, $124,629.30.

The tuberculosis hospital is asking $20,500 for a new children's pavilion and equipment.

The committee did not go into executive session last night to pass on appropriations.

Senators Zimmerman and Edwards were named by Chairman Smith to visit the Eastern Oregon hospital for the insane at Pendleton next Sunday. Two members of the house are yet to be named.

showing to the last cent their cost sheets and what they must have to live, and what they ought to have for a legitimate profit.

This movement, that started in the Liberty district south of Salem, promises to save the loganberry industry of the valley, by stopping the throat-cutting individual bargaining that ruined the industry last year.

Willamette and Pacific Break Even in Debates

Willamette and Pacific universities broke even in the freshman debates last night on the question "Resolved that the United States Should Enter the League of Nations." In both cases the affirmative team won a 2 to 1 verdict, apparently showing a temperamental leaning towards that side of the question that might not be determined entirely by the debate itself.

In Salem the Willamette affirmative team won, with Ward Southworth and Frederick Arpke pitted against Bellingham and Wolfe of Pacific. The judges were Judge John McCourt of the Oregon supreme court, Miss Miriam Bligh of the state library, and Prag J. C. Nelson of the Salem high school. The debates were held in Waller hall.

The negative team that visited Forest Grove, Warren Day and Victor Carlson, did as well as the negative visitors to Salem, getting a verdict of two against them and only one in their favor. The details of the Forest Grove contest are lacking, save the Willamette debaters and the judges' decisions.

Chamber School Building Program Gets Discussion

At a meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association of McKinley school, this week, an interesting program was given, and an animated discussion followed the introduction of the Chamber of Commerce school building program. McKinley has suffered greatly through having neither gymnasium, play rooms, or assembly hall; the children who play through the winter have to do so outdoors, whatever the weather.

The association plans to have the big meeting of the season, the night of the 20th, the third Tuesday of the month.

Officers were elected this week: E. A. Rhoads, president; P. M. Gregory, secretary; T. M. Hicks, vice-president; L. Moine E. Clark, second vice-president; and Julia Iverson, treasurer.

January is on the Whole Mild Month, Report Shows

According to the governmental weather records, the thermometer registered below the freezing point only four times in Salem during January; and one other night it stopped just at 32 degrees. Two days the minimum was 50 degrees or higher. The mean range between the highest and the lowest, was only 10 degrees; the highest temperature for the month was 57 degrees, on the 7th.

The total precipitation of 10.47 inches is recorded for the month, not counting the trace of snow on three days, a total of 5-8 of an inch. Some precipitation was recorded on 24 days. There were two clear days, nine partly cloudy and 29 classed as full cloudy. The greatest range in a single day was 16 degrees on the 20th. Half an inch of rain fell on the 11th and 18th and killing frosts on the 30th and 31st.

EXPOSITION BILL IS DEBATE SUBJECT

Gordon, "but I do believe that business can be increased the same as we would do in our private enterprises."

Gordon also explained that it was not the intention of the backers of the present plan to ask state aid, although he felt that in fairness it should be construed that this was a pledge that the situation would never arise where state aid might be asked.

Harry Beckwith, Coe A. McNamee, A. R. Ritter, Fred W. German, Otto R. Hartwig, president of the state federation of labor; and William Killingerworth spoke in behalf of the resolution introduced by Gordon.

The Confidence Of the Public

There is a basic principle on which every business enterprise hinges which may conceivably be defined as the confidence of the public in that enterprise. No business can survive or grow without it any more than the body can live without nourishment.

From the beginning we have endeavored to gain this public confidence by always giving the public highest values for their money.

Uniformly good values through twenty years of service to the public have inspired complete public confidence in us, and because of this confidence we have grown from one small store to 371 Department Stores all over the country where highest values always prevail.
