

SOCIETY

GUESTS in the city for the legislature have been the inspiration for a number of delightful affairs during the last week. Miss Catherine Carson, whose wedding will be an event of the near future was the inspiration for a lovely tea given Friday by Mrs. W. H. Burghardt.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Marcia Cusick and Mrs. H. J. Bean were charming hostesses this week for the Thursday afternoon club. Several guests in Salem for the legislature were guests for the afternoon.

Miss Catherine Carson, whose marriage will be an event of the near future, was guest of honor Friday for a party tea at which Mrs. W. H. Burghardt was hostess.

The rooms of the Burghardt home were charmingly arranged with numerous suggestions of a wedding. Stiff gilded bouquets of box wood and fereas were arranged in pretty bowls. The living room was decorated with silver and white notes.

The dining table was a great wedding cake with a tiny bride topping the center of the cake. The cake was worked out with paper embroidery, old fashioned candy hearts, silver ribbon and silver leaves. Smilax and ferns were used with delightful effect on the great wedding cake.

Miss Mabel Withcombe of Portland and Miss Elizabeth Lord presided at the table while assisting in the other rooms were Mrs. Fred Thielson, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. Percy Young of Albany, Mrs. William Lytle and Mrs. Ada Strong.

Fair green frilly valentines carried the message bidding the maids and matrons to call at the Burghardt home during the hours from four to six o'clock. Those receiving invitations were: The Meses Eleanor and Fielda McClaine and Mrs. C. W. Keene of Silverton, Mrs. C. W. Woodward, Miss Mabel Withcombe of Portland, Miss Sally Bush, Mrs. Asabel Bush, Mrs. W. P. Lord, Mrs. Ada Strong, Mrs. John A. Carson, Mrs. James Withycombe of Portland, Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Mabel Robertson, Elizabeth Lord, Nell Thielson, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Fred Thielson, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. T. A. Mrs. C. P. Bishop was hostess this week for the Thursday afternoon club at her home. Mrs. Marcia Cusick and Mrs. Henry J. Bean were joint hostesses with Mrs. Bishop for the afternoon.

The room of the Bishop home was beautifully arranged in Valentine's day favors. Red carnations and ferns were used in a pleasing arrangement both in the living and dining room. The table was centered with a cut glass bowl which held the red carnations while from the four corners of the room to the chandelier were looped garlands of red carnations and ferns. Red hearts about the rooms accented the spirit of the occasion.

Specially invited guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Jay Upton, Mrs. W. J. H. Clark, Mrs. Charles W. Ellis, Mrs. Sam Garland, Mrs. G. Moser, Mrs. C. J. Edwards, Mrs. C. A. Hunter, Mrs. A. J. Hunter, Mrs. Frank Northrup,

Honest Values

A Guarantee That Your Dollar Will Buy a Dollar's Worth

There is no sounder foundation for Prosperity—

"Know what you buy," should be your slogan always, for there are so many inferior brands of merchandise upon the markets today that it calls for extreme caution in selecting your wants. "Blind Bargains" are conceded to be the most costly in the long run, that is the reason why value-wise shoppers buy trade marked merchandise.

Than a buying public that insists on getting full value for every dollar spent. Miller's gladly fosters this attitude on part of its customers and assists them in spending their money wisely by providing values that are safe and sure.
This month, particularly, we are offering many unusually opportunities to buy advantageously. Highly desirable merchandise at prices that are considerably lower than prevailing levels.

Why do you get more for your money by buying trade marked goods? One pair of good shoes will outwear two or three pair of inferior ones. Thus you save money, have the satisfaction of wearing comfortable as well as stylish shoes. You are repaid in more ways than one by investing a trifle more and buying advertised trade names.
