Ruling in United States District Court is Unfavorable To Mine Workers

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 17.-Efforts of the United Mine Personal Encounter Over the federal courts to prevent Sheriff Don Chafin or anyone else interfering with them while they organized the non-union Logan county miners, were blocked today by a ruling of Judge George W. McClintic, in United States district court.

> The court ruled that he was without jurisdiction in the case, holding that no action of the state of West Virginia invaded the rights of the plaintiffs and that the activities of the Logan sheriff, of which they complained, were subjects for the state courts.

Measure Expected to Provide More Fireworks Than Consolidation.

Before the house judiciary committee there is to be presented a bill to place a state tax on the incomes from the leases on motiodn picture films which threatens to provide more pyrotechnics and excitement than even the consolidation and income tax bills.

Back of the bill is the desire to place upon the large amounts of money taken out of the state every week by the owners of 'motion picture films, a tax that will bring in revenue from a source entirely any payment of govern mental tax.
