

TO UNITE FOR WORLD PEACE

Seventy-eight Christian Denominations to Meet in Washington in 1925.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Congress plans to muster the united efforts of the Christian churches of the world for the restoration of world peace and tranquility...

Church Leadership Needed

For the uniting of a divided world, the leadership of an united Christian church is necessary. The world conference on faith and order will bring Christendom together for the first time in many centuries...

Actively associated with Bishop Perry in the work immediately ahead will be the Rev. Floyd W. Thompson, Jr., of Pittsburgh, as secretary...

Set for 1925

The plan for the world conference on faith and order originated at the Episcopal general convention of 1910, and the immediate result was the appointment of a commission by that demonstration of which Bishop William T. Manning, of New York, is the chairman...

A preliminary conference of church representatives was held in the summer of 1920, at Geneva, Switzerland, when a continuation commission was appointed to take charge of the movement in its world-wide aspects...

The objective of the continuation committee is the World Conference of all participating churches in Washington in May, 1925. In the meantime every effort will be made to bring about concerted action by all the participating churches in plans for restoring world peace and tranquility.

GIFTS PRESENTED SESSION LEADERS

Silver Tea Services Given Upton and Kubli by Members of Legislature.

To Senator B. L. Eddy of Douglas county, opponent of Senator Jay Upton, successful candidate for president of the present state senate, was yesterday delivered the duty of expressing to President Upton the appreciation of the senate for Upton's work as presiding officer.

At the conclusion of a cleverly turned speech by Eddy, a silver tea service was presented to President Upton.

Next Senator Garland arose and on behalf of the Spanish War veterans presented to President Upton a gavel of walnut wood. It came from the home of Colonel J. M. Footman of Woodburn, who was President Upton's commanding officer in the Philippine islands and who is now assistant doorkeeper of the senate. The walnut tree from which the wood was taken was planted 40 years ago at Woodburn.

In presenting the senate's token, the silver tea set, Senator

EDDY ASKED THE PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR ON PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

"At the close of this 40 days that you have presided over this senate," said Senator Eddy, "it becomes my duty to remind you that you have wielded the gavel in such a way during these weeks as to arouse a conspiracy among the members of this senate."

"The members have agreed that you have presided so fairly and impartially that you are entitled to some manifestation of our esteem and appreciation."

Following a laudatory address by Representative Carlin of Jackson county, Saturday afternoon, Speaker Kubli and Mrs. Kubli were presented with a silver service by the members of the house.

APPREHENSION OF CROOKS IMMINENT

Recovery of $73,000 Worth of Loot and Minor Arrests Build Evidence.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Feb. 17.—Apprehension of the six bandits who last September held up and robbed the Hamilton county bank of the city, and the arrest of other members of a "syndicate" of crooks who dispose of stolen securities, awaits the gradual building up of evidence as a result of the recovery of $73,000 worth of stolen bonds from the Cincinnati bank, postal authorities asserted here today.

Postal authorities, who have been working in collaboration with private and city detectives on the Cincinnati robbery which netted the bandits $265,000 and the robbery of $80,000 unused federal bank currency of the Denver mint, said members of the band were known to them. They refused, however, to make known their identity or their present location.

Word has been received that $75,000 worth of bonds stolen from the bank were discovered in legitimate trade channels in Oregon, their present holders being without knowledge of their source. Some of the stolen liberty bonds have been turned in at Washington for redemption, it was said.

Americans bought $3,500,000 worth of diamonds in London last year. Probably caused by the increase in the number of hotel clerks in this country.

CAMPAIGN FOR HOME IS SLOW

Marion County Turns in $4100 to Date—Need for Funds Urgent.

Because if the bad weather, that somehow freezes up the compassionate public's pocketbook as a poor widow's meagre woodpile shrinks in the face of a storm, the campaign for the Oregon Children's Home has languished during the past week. Marion county has turned in on $4100 thus far, out of the $7500 that was apportioned. The office at 228 Oregon building is to be kept open all the coming week however, and subscriptions will be received with some one always ready to receipt for them.

No solicitors were out on Saturday, but some good friends sent in checks amounting to $100, for the fund.

The need for the home is represented as most urgent. The number of orphaned children, both boys and girls, who are committed to the boys and girls reformatories or even the feeble-minded schools, simply because there is no other place to care for them, would make the public heart bleed, if it but knew. There are said to be 2400 orphans in the state who ought to be in such a home, if they can not have homes of their very own. The home as it is now planned, will take care of 400 children, when it is built up to its normal capacity, and will furnish home and be almost self-supporting for that number.

A number of local friends are working assiduously to put over the Salem subscription, to make the lot of the unfortunate orphaned boys and girls less painful, less dangerous. The appalling wave of juvenile crime, according to statistics, finds many of its recruits in the broken homes, among neglected children whom this home would rescue. It is understood that boys are being held even in jails over the state, because of no worse crime than that of being orphaned and out of jobs, or too young to care for themselves. It's a pretty hard alternative for clean, capable children to face the jail, or the asylum, or the reformatory, or starvation, in a state like Oregon, just because

SHAKESPEARE FOR SALEM AUDIENCES

Romeo and Juliet and Merchant of Venice Coming February 27 and 28.

After breaking attendance records and upsetting New York theatrical precedents by playing five weeks on Broadway to what the New York Sun estimates at 100,000 persons, Fritz Leiber comes to the Grand theater to play an engagement of "Shakespeare" for two performances—Tuesday and Wednesday, February 27 and 28, under the direction of George Ford.

He will offer as his initial playbill, "Romeo and Juliet," in which he has made a startling success and in which critics say he surpasses all other actors in America today.

The supporting company provided by Mr. Leiber's manager, George Ford, includes Louis L. Hall, John Burke, Robert Strauss, Philip D. Quin, Anthony Andre, Harold Winston, Richard Allen, Leonard Gordon, Waldron Smith, Justin Adams, Olive Oliver, Virginia Bronson, Carol Kohl, Alma Lind and Blanche Chapman.

The cast, as well as the scenic and lighting equipment, is identical with that employed during his Broadway success. His method of mounting and lighting the great plays is said to be not only something to marvel at because of their beauty, but are so arranged as to provide quick dis-

ORATORICAL CLASS

The public speaking class at the YMCA, that meets regularly on Friday nights, is to take a one week vacation because of the big Rotarian birthday celebration next Friday night. A number of the budding orators are members of the clubs that will be guests at the Rotary event, and they asked to put their own program over for another week. When they do meet again they will debate the question of "Resolved that the United States should intervene in the Ruhr controversy." They have been having various forms of public appearances in their course, which has been running for four months. The last assignment was an address to a high school or college graduating class, and they handed out enough wisdom to make those youngsters good and pepped up for life.

HIS HOODOO

The Hobo—I ain't never 'ad a chance. No matter where I go or wot I works at, my unlucky number bobs up and does me in, somehow.

The Householder—What do you mean? What's your unlucky number?

The Hobo—Thirteen, lady. Twelve jurymen 'an a judge, London Mall.

WANT DRIVERS TO OWN STREET JITS

Automobile Company Would Sponsor Movement to Own Omnibus.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—An innovation in the intricate omnibus system of London soon will be inaugurated in the form of making it possible for ambitious drivers to become the absolute owners of their buses, if certain plans now under consideration materialize.

Today most of these buses, which crawl through the narrow streets of London like a continuous procession of elephants, are owned mostly by one company, but a movement has been started recently to give adequate reward to good drivers. It is sponsored by a gasoline and accessories' company, which hopes to make its money by supplying these commodities to the owner-drivers.

The plan briefly is this: The holder of a one-pound sterling share in the company pays a weekly subscription of ten shillings. When sufficient funds have been collected the subscribers will draw lots, and the lucky driver will be given an omnibus. He will be allowed also to choose his route through the city. He will then pay two pounds sterling a week on the purchase price of the omnibus until the conveyance has been completely paid for.

The plan makes it possible also for drivers and conductors to own an omnibus jointly. The owner-
