WILLAMETTE SQUAD HOME

Bearcat Aggregation Returns With No Victories to Credit—Hope Held.

"It's fine when it quits hurting," is the Willamette verdict on the recent basketball tour of the Bearcats. The boys returned Sunday and have taken up the sober job of catching up in their studies.

They met a variety of foes on this latest excursion and came home without a single victory. At that, the players have made one of the bravest fights against odds that a team ever did make. Three freshmen, who gained practically all their basketball experience this year; nobody with more than three years' total experience in basketball, grade school, high school and college; a tight team, pounds the lightest of any in the conference, and not a man in the lot as much as 5'11 in height; only one man as much as 20 years of age; no gym of their own to practice in—and they kept their nerve to go through the whole schedule as if they were winning every game! As a moral achievement it is an epic.

Never Fail to Score

The Salem high school team as it is now constituted would show an average of two more years per man for length of basketball experience; there is probably not a high school in the valley with a team that can boast as few years of hoop practice. At that, the Bearcats never failed to score against their strongest opponents. They even came near winning in one of the games against the old, experienced Whitman team. They didn't win, as some of their own Willamette teams have done of other years, but they certainly never lost their nerve.

Two More Games

There are two more games to be played, both here at home. One against Pacific Friday night, and the other with Oregon next week. The locals have a good chance against Pacific, to whom they lost by only one point a month ago. Against Oregon it is conceded that they have not much show, but they will play out the schedule.

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a delightful quality that can not be duplicated.

Stayton Hi Girls Have Not Lost Game in Season

The Stayton high school girls have an excellent record in basketball. They have not been defeated this season. Recently when they met Woodburn, a team that had also not been defeated this year, the score was a tie, being 15 to 15. This and the game with Chemawa Saturday night, with a score of 12 to 11, were the most exciting games played on the home floor. The other teams they have defeated are Dallas, Lebanon, Independence, Scio twice, Mill City twice. Stayton high alumni and Turner.

Their coach is Miss Dorothea Buchner of the faculty, whose home is in Salem. The local basketball fans are enthusiastic over the girls' continued victory, and the gymnasium always has a full house, on the occasion of games played on the home floor.

Those playing on the team are Evelyn Hayworth, Marie Weddle, Alice Klecker, Edna Ferry, Elizabeth Lee, Genevieve Spantol and Lisa Bell Mielke.

Willamette Frosh and Mt. Angel to Tangle

A game is being arranged between the Willamette freshmen and the Mt. Angel college team, to be played at Mt. Angel a week from Wednesday night. The frosh will have Stolzheim, who for business reasons could not go on the Bearcat tour last week. He will give them some much needed height and weight to go against the rangy Mt. Angel players. The Mt. Angel quintet should overtop the Willamette squad by an average of fully three inches, perhaps more. It will be a David-and-Goliath battle when the two teams meet. The Mt. Angel boys appeared in Salem last week, in a game against the American Legion, and showed that they have real skill, as well as a gentlemanly quality that makes them good opponents.

ASK REHEARING ON RATE CASE

California Railroad Commission Desires Reduction of Rates.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—A re-hearing of the recent decision of the interstate commerce commission readjusting rates between Portland points in Southern Oregon and Northern California and between San Francisco and the same points, was requested by the state railroad commission today in a communication to the federal body.

The interstate decision had been sought by the Klamath county Chamber of Commerce and was intended to equalize the rates in the two competitive fields to which they applied.

In its petition for a rehearing, the railroad commission urges the interstate commerce commission to reduce rates from Portland and other Oregon points to Southern Oregon and Northern California points, instead of raising rates from Central California points to Northern California and Southern Oregon points.

The interstate commerce commission has erred in its findings that unjust discrimination has heretofore existed in the relation between intrastate and in-

"HOBO" COLLEGE CHANGES COURSE

Many Changes Made in Personnel—Spelling, Grammar Chief Studies.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—(By The Associated Press)—The Hobo college here has changed decidedly in curriculum and in personnel since it was reopened for the season September last, sponsored by the International Brotherhood of Welfare association or "hoboes' union." Nevertheless the unemployed men and the migratory and casual laborers now enrolled are, like their predecessors, making active voluntary efforts to obtain instruction.

After the formal opening in September, a group of leaders, including "the millionaire hobo" Dr. James Eads How, munched doughnuts, drank coffee from cups without handles, and planned for the future of the "col-
