

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Contract Awarded.—The Salem Electric Company has been awarded the contract for the electric wiring of the new boys' dormitory at the Salem industrial school. The building is to be pushed to completion, as rapidly as possible, as it is so sorely needed for the accommodation of the hundreds of students at the school.

Legion to Entertain.—An entertainment, the nature of which is being held as a joyful surprise, is to be given tonight at the American legion meeting, at the armory, at 8 o'clock. Every Legionaire is urged to come for his own self-protection; he'd be bitterly disappointed to have a good thing pulled off and he not there to enjoy it. Commander George Griffith promises the boys that they have something good coming this time, for sure.

Work on Warehouse.—

Work on the big Traglo warehouse on South Liberty and Ferry streets is being carried on steadily. The main 4-inch floor is being laid, and it is expected that the concrete basement walls will be ready for pouring within a week. The building, 150x166 feet is to be three full stories in height including the basement, making almost two acres of total floor space under cover. The construction is to be the heaviest and most substantial, so that the building should carry any kind of a load that might be piled into it.

Accident.—Mrs. E. H. Kennedy of 196 West Washington street reported yesterday that while leaving the curb with her car at Court street near Hamilton's she collided with another party whose name she did not learn. Little damage was done.

EDITORIALS OF THE PEOPLE

The close of the first week of the Evangelistic Crusade finds the interest deepening and a steady increase in attendance at all of the services. The Jason Lee Memorial church has been a glad and enthusiastic sharer in the good things that the campaign is bringing. High points were reached in this church on Wednesday night, Friday night and Sunday night. On these respective nights special features of interest were observed.

Family night, or Wednesday night, brought out a number of interested family groups. Four generations were represented in one group, and 37 present in that group. The young people on Friday night held sway with a large attendance, and inspired the older ones with chorus music, while Dr. Gilbert gave a great message on "The Kingship of Jesus." Sunday night there was a capacity house and an outstanding feature of the hour was the singing of the old gospel song, "The Ninety and Nine," by a chorus of 99 men. Dr. Gilbert is in fine trim and is delivering gospel messages of the highest order. Great meetings are expected this present week with outstanding results.

On Tuesday at 7:30, while the meeting is open to all, a special call is sent out to men. This will be Brotherhood night and Dr. Gilbert's subject will be "The Saddest Man." Try and find the saddest man and bring him with you. Wednesday night will have special interest for the old people. This will be old people's night. Cars will be sent to homes for old people who call 1006J on the phone. Friday night there will be special provision for the young people.

The singing is an outstanding feature in all the services. A fine chorus choir assisted by an orchestra lead the congregation every night. There is a splendid spirit of good fellowship among the people and a good work is being accomplished. The public is most warmly welcomed to all the services. Meeting each evening at 7:30, Saturday omitted.

STOPS COUGHS AND COLDS
Neglected coughs and colds lead to influenza, la grippe, asthma and bronchitis, and the old method of "letting it run its course" is rapidly giving way to preventive treatment. Three generations of users have testified to the quick relief given by Foley's Honey and Tar from coughs, colds, croup, throat, chest and bronchial trouble. Presbyterians Build New Sunday School

Twenty-five men, near carpenters, soft-handed but hard-headed and brave, and nine women cooks who laded out chicken dinners and doughnuts and other high-power ammunition to keep 'em going, built a new Sunday school house at the First Presbyterian church Monday.

They met at 8 o'clock in the morning and worked until too late to see to drive nails; they fairly surrounded the site and burrowed in through the piles of lumber and nails like rats through a haystack or a cheese. They almost finished the building which is 60x16 feet, and containing six rooms.

The men workers were Messrs. Barrett, Sigmund, Kinney, Reeves, Albert, Guthrie, Parker, Hodge, Anumson, Filsinger, Ewing, Altman, Cone, Glenn Adams, John Adams, Zinzer, Broyles, Calder, Phillips, Moll, Irons, Mulkey, Long, Kells. The ladies in charge of the commissary were Messdames Marcus, Pearce, Harbison, Albert, Griffith, Sheldon, Kinney, Lamb, Purvine. Vocal music was furnished by Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans with Laura Grant as pianist.

Would Search Leaders
CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—A demand that Chicago labor leaders be searched for concealed weapons every time they are met by the police was made today by Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, as a result of the gunbattle in a crowded cafe last night in which Steve Kellher, a union official, was slain.

Bill Agreement Reached
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Appropriations of $336,347,000 for the next fiscal year are provided under an agreement on the annual army bill reached today by the senate and house conferees. The amount is about $4,000,000 less than provided by the senate and $3,000,000 more than that provided by the house.

GLEE CLUB BACK FROM LONG TOUR

Total of Twenty-one Concerts Given by Willamette Songsters.

Tired but happy, the Willamette Glee club returned Sunday, after a three weeks absence on tour. It was the longest, most pretentious trip the organization has ever taken. They gave 21 concerts in all, including an hour's program from the great new radio station of the Oregonian, at Portland.

There wasn't so much as a cold or a corn or a pimple in the whole trip. The audiences were pleasingly large, and extraordinarily appreciative; the boys could go back over the same route, and pack practically every hall. The instrumental trio, piano, violin and 'cello, was one of the great hits of the season though the solo work of P. M. Blenkinsop fairly swept the audiences off their feet. No other similar organization in the history of the west, has ever carried such a soloist as the ironworker-soldier-preacher is proving to be. About the worst news that the Glee club has had in three years, is the fact that he graduates and leaves Willamette this year.

Last year, the Glee club brought home a "barrel" of money and made a gift of the big velvet stage screen and the stage fittings in Waller hall. This year, the club made a larger tour and carried three more men, the instrumental trio; but it is expected that the finances will show a gratifying result. The big Salem concert, to be given about a month from now, will help to put the club to the good financially.

Up in Tacoma, a foot of fresh snow and a blizzard to worry the street car service into insensibility, almost wrecked their audience. But at Bremerton, the foot of snow didn't stop 600 howling enthusiastic admirers from giving them the biggest reception of the year. The Dalles gave them 700 people, and all the small towns on the circuit gave them a fine hearing. They rate as the premier concert company of the kind, in the whole northwest.

Indefinite Postponement Kills Three More Bills

The senate yesterday killed the following bills by indefinite postponement:

H. B. 200, Hurd—Prohibiting fixing of admission fee to motion picture houses.
S. B. 110, Mrs. Kinney—Relating to town school districts.
H. B. 336, (substitute for H. P. 275) Woodward—Relating to factory inspection.

Sand Island Transfer Is Approved by Senate

Senator Kinney's and Representative Mott's senate joint memorial calling upon the government to transfer to the state of Oregon the moneys received through leases of the fishing grounds of Sand Island, in the mouth of the Columbia river to be used for the relief of Asotria,

The state ceded the island to the government in 1864 on condition that it be used for military purposes. The government has never used it for that purpose and it is held that the government is obligated under the terms to transfer the money back to the state.

The following house joint resolutions were adopted by the senate:

H. J. R. S., Mrs. Simmons—Providing for appointment of a committee to investigate conditions of neglected and delinquent children involved in court proceedings and report to the governor.

H. J. R. 10, Huston—Urging United States veterans' bureau to keep promise to purchase Hospital 77 in Portland for care of tuberculosis veterans, and endeavoring work of Oregon delegation in congress in that regard.

MULTNOMAH WILL GET NEW JUDGE

Bill as Amended Draws Only Three Negative Votes in State Senate.

The senate bill providing for one additional circuit judge in Multnomah county, passed the senate yesterday with only Farrell, La Follett and Zimmerman voting against it. As originally introduced it provided for three new judges and was vigorously opposed in that form by Senator Joseph and others. The bill was introduced by several Multnomah senators and representatives.

Senator Strayer's bill, which as introduced would have removed for teachers in districts of the first class the requirement to attend annual institutes, but which was amended to include all teachers, passed the senate. It would eliminate institutes. Senator Strayer was of the opinion that it should be amended, and the house probably will be asked to do this.

VERDICTS OF CRITICS
NEW YORK HERALD
"His is a full, resonant voice capable of carrying a big dramatic aria to a thrilling climax or of doing delicate light singing; the tone is of beautiful quality."
CHICAGO DAILY JOURNAL, Edward Moore
"When Paul Althouse sings one begins to realize how few tenors of the first rank there are in America; for that matter in the world."
CHICAGO TRIBUNE
"Paul Althouse, a tenor who seems to be destined to stand in the sacred circle of the elect (so great is his vocal gift, and so thoroughly is his interpretation of the theatre effective), won astonishing applause. His warm, healthy tone may well induce insomnia in the chambers of many an idolized tenor of the day."
Redford Mason in the SAN FRANCISCO EXAMINER
"He sings songs in our own language, and moves us to the depths with them. He gives himself generously, and what he gives is worth while. I wish he might let us hear him again."
ATLANTA JOURNAL
"The soloists were Madame Homer, contralto; Miss Anna Case, soprano and Mr. Paul Althouse, tenor. Probably the singing of Mr. Althouse attracted the most attention and drew the greatest amount of applause. He was splendid and his voice filled the large theatre with an exquisite tone."
