

By MARGUERITE GLEESON

HE marriage of Miss Catherine Carson and Walter Barsch of Oakland, Cal., will be a social event of Wednesday. The wedding will be held at the home of her mother, Mrs. John A. Carson. Miss Carson has been the inspiration for a number of delightful social affairs since the bethrothal was announced last fall.

Miss Grace Bean was a charming hostess yesterday afternoon of bridge in honor of Miss Carson. Mrs. William Bell entertained this week with a bridge luncheon and a number of lovely effairs have been sponsored during the recent weeks for Miss Carson.

Rehearsals for the May Festival have begun and plans are anticipation for the gala affair olson is leader. to be presented May 11. Mrs. A. N. Bush is chairman. Other women actively interested in the work and plans are Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, and Miss Elizabeth Putnam. George Riches is treasurer of the association this season.

* * Miss Grace Bean was a charming hostess yesterday for an afternoon of bridge honoring Miss Carson. Tulips and primroses in shades of pink added a delight, of the Bcan home on Court music. Joint hostesses for the afstreet. Mrs. Harry Hawkins won high score.

The maidens and matrons bidden to honor Miss Carson were: Miss Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. Allan Garson, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Frederick Lamport, Miss Nell Thielson, Miss Ruth Babb, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. Paul Hendricks Miss Caroline Hurst, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., day. Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Mrs. Prince Byrd and Miss Mabel Robertson, Mrs. Raymond Walsh.

Among the University of Ore- night. Mrs. Homer Campbell, gon students spending the week end with friends and relatives and for six years dean of women in Salem are Miss Catherine at the college, presented the tro-Slade, and Miss Margaret Grif- phy to the winning stunts last fith.

from Salem were Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Raymond Walsh and little Lewis D. Griffith. Miss Annabelle daughter, Priscilla, are visiting Golden also made the trip over with Mrs. Walsh's parents, Mr. for the occasion.

Monday Lausanne guild, at hall. Tuesday Salem Music Teachers, with Miss Elma Weller. WCTU, at hall. St. Paul's guild, Mrs. N. C

Kafoury. Thursday Thursday c'ub. YM auxiliray.

Friday Three-Link club. Baptist Missionary society. Saturday Salem Woman's club. Ladies of GAR.

the Rose room of The Spa Friday evening for members of the Salem Arts league. It was in srecial charge of the story telling even now being made with keen section of which Mrs. Susle Nich-Special after dinner stories were told by the members of the story telling section, following the banquet hour. * * Spring blooms lent a pretty air of charm to the silver tea given Wednesday at the home of Mrs. William McGilchrist by the members of the First Congregational Woman's union. Miss Mildred Maple and Miss dosephine Bross sang solos and Mr. McGilchrist and Miss Eugenia Myers gave delightful Scotch Fanny Brown, Mrs. Charles Elgin, Gilchrist. Mrs. Jessie Jones will be hostess Thursday at a large bridge party at the Gray Belle.

* * Walter Barsch of Oakland will arrive this afternoon. His marriage to Miss Catherine Carson will be a social event of Wednes-

A number of Salem alumni of the Oregon Agricultural college attended the seventh annual woman's stunt show in Corvallis last formerly Mrs. Mary E. Fawcett, I'ght. Among those going over

Margaret Stolz. "Happy Song" Del Riego "1 Heard You Go By"....Wood Helen Borchardt. "Good Morning, Brother Sunshine" Lehman Alone in Love's Garden..... Hewitt

Olga Gray. "When the Kyre Come Home" Nevin "Au'd Daddy Darkness" . . Homer James Marr.

"Values" Vanderpool "A Little Gift of Roses" . . Flora Fletcher.

"Singing to You Kerr Duet. Hilda Amsler, Della Amsler. Dawn" Curran 'Kittens'' Bartlett

Lucile Emmons. 'When the Heart is Young. Back 'The Bow-Legged Boy''. . Bergen

Ermine Bushnell Fawk. Aria, "Di Provenza il Mar", "La Traviata" Verdi "Top o' the Morning" Mana-Zacca

Leon Jennison. Aria, "Bo'ero" "Osteria,"... Lillo Hayfields and Butterfiles" Del Riego

Ruth Bedford. Double quartet. "I Know a Lovely Garden"....D'Hardelof Mary Logan, Hilda Amsler, Della Amsler, Myrtle Knowland, Flora Fletcher, Ruth Reid Grace Fawy, Marie Corner.

* * Mrs. H. W. Bross and Mrs. Mc- State DAR Meet In McMinnville

March 22 to 24

The state convention of the DAR will be held in McMinnville March 22, 23 and 24. Yamhill chapter will be hostess for the delegates from the other chapters side. The continental congress of the DAR will meet in Washing-G. Shipley, regent of the local chapter, Chemeketa, and Mrs. W. H. Byrd, will represent the chapter there at that time. Other organizations will unite in honoring the DAR during the meketa chapter to the state con- sult with Mrs. Blanche Barker.

Commerce. Delegates from Che- where ladies interested may con- United States." ference are Mrs. Elmo White the instructor, on Friday evening or on Saturday afternoon

The schedule for the new classes is as follows: Advanced millinery, evening class, 7 until noon from 1:30 until 4:30 o'clock and advanced sewing class Friday

The classes will be held in the University of Oregon, Eugene,

March 3 .- (Special.) - Mrs. Geo,

T. Gerlinger, a regent of the University of Oregon, is the subject of a sketch in the "Interesting Westerners' section of the

* *

9 o'clock; beginning millinery.

World Famous Harpist to be Here Soon

Alberto Salvi, the phenominal ented youth could wind up offiharpist, who will appear here in cially his academic career and concert on Tuesday evening, enter that of the virtuoso. The March 13, at the Armory, has request was acceded to and after been acclaimed in over 200 Am- the young man had passed the erican cities as the greatest har- special examinations and his phepist ever heard in this country. nominal playing had been heard Salvi has accomplished what has by the examiners he was awarded always been considered an impos- the eight-year diploma at the end sible feat, in that he gives an en- of five years of study.

tire recital of harp music without From the beginning his public any assistance whatever, holding career was successful. The harp his audience spellbound and is more widely played as a solo clamoring for more. instrument and more generally

Mr. Salvi inherited his love for appreciated in Italy than on this the harp. His father was a cele- side of the Atlantic, where it brated Italian harp maker, and usually is thought of as a reinhis first teacher, on a specially forcing voice in the orchestra or constructed miniature harp which as an instrument for accompaniwas built for Alberto when he ments. started to go to school. In his Artists like Salvi are gradually early years he practiced four changing this limited American hours a day and the allotment view of the place and the possiwas increased till at the age of bilities of the harp. Italian suc-12 he devoted six to seven hours cesses were followed by European favor. And then, less than two a day to practice.

This devotion to duty is what years ago, the young artist came Mr. Salvi ascribes as the reason to America where he has obtained for his marvelously facile and not only artistic welcome but pop-fluent technique. His father's ular favor. Salvi is very learned teaching continued until the boy in the literature of the harp and was 13, after which he had the has added to it by writing a numadvantage of instruction under ber of noted compositions for the the eminent harpist, the late Mae- instrument of his choice. Hearof the state. Miss Anne Lang of stro Caramiello. In the fifth year ing Salvi play his own work, the The Dalles, state regent, will pre- of Salvi's course the maestro thought comes that what Bach wrote to the Ministry of Arts at was to the organ, Paganini to the Rome, that the boy had acquired violin, that Salvi is by way of beton, D. C., in April and Mrs. U. in five years all the knowledge, ing to the harp.

theoretical and practical, that His concert here will be the went with the full curriculum of third and concluding number of eight years. Caramiello asked the Salem Artist Series, of which that special examinations might Albert Gille and Edward Warren be prepared in order that the tal- are managers.

McMinnville convention including be conducted as formerly in the the article, "as the finest unithe Civic club and the Chamber of Red Cross rooms on State street, versity building for women in the

March 5 to 10 NATIONAL SILK WEEK

The World's Most Beautiful Silks will be shown at this store

This week has been planned to give the women of America a fuller realization of the important part Silk plays in clothing and beautifying the nation.

A prominent feature of this store will be a special showing of "Mallinson's Silks."

This display will contain all the newest ideas in silk creating from the manufacturer who has made American Silks foremost in the world.

and MITS. Dan r

£ # # Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hofer of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer returned to Jalem last night. Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hofer will be in Salem for several weeks as the guests of Col. and Mrs. E. Hofer,

The Thursday Afternoon club will be entertained jointly this week by Mrs. C. K. Spaulding. Mrs. W. E. Kirk and Mrs. John Albert.

Mrs. William Brown will en tertain the Piety Hill club Thursay at her home. * *

Lausanne Guild will meet Monday at the hall. This is the regular meeting for March. Friends of the university women are invited to take part.,

Mrs. Keith Powell entertained the Wednesday Bridge Luncheon club at her home near Woodburn last week. The guests included, Mrs.

Tracy Poorman and Mrs. Even den of Woodburn: Mrs. David Eyre and Mrs. E. V. McMechan, and members of the club, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs.

Miss Kathryn Gunnell who has just returned from several weeks in Los Angeles had the unusual opportunity of visiting most of for an official visit last Thursday. the hig Hollywood studios during Three new members were taken her visit . there. As a photographer and because of letters E. Turner, Mrs. I. M. Williams to a few directors, she was given an opportunity to study the lighting effects and other points of interest in the big moving picture studios which chances do not come as a general rule to the Hollywood guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Clark. Morris, Mrs. A. J. Pierson and formerly of Salem, were guests Mrs. M. C. Kelly. for a brief time in the city during last week. They were driving The Women's Benefit associathrough to Portland and stopped tion of the Maccabees will hold for a visit at the Clifford Farmer the state convention in Salem on home. senate chamber at the state house.

Mrs. Clark was former'y . Miss Gaynelle Baldwin, and has many The association will meet for a friends in Salem. Her mother, pot-uck supper Wednesday eve-Mrs. Tina Baldwin and the tiny son of the Baldwins accompanied tion and drill will be followed by Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin. They will the supper. probably stop for a short visit with friends in Salem on their return from Portland within a few days.

* * Mrs. N. C. Kafoury will entertain St. Paul's guild at her home Thesday afternoon.

criticism of the other students. Mrs. W. Carlton Smith spent An interesting feature was the Friday in Portland visiting with first appearance of the girls' double quartet.

The program was as follows: One of the pretty social affairs "Oh Love That Wilt Not Let Me of the week was the banquet in Go" Harker

Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. U. G. Col. and Mrs. Percy Willis of Shipley, Miss Ruth Rulifson, Mrs. Portland are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Remington.

A group of women from the First Christian church were hostesses at a large birthday party for Mrs. Flora Clark on the oc-was held in the church parlors. She was presented with an umbrella and a leather bag, and a large birthday cake formed a part of the refreshments served. Others who were honored at the same time with birthday cakes were Mrs. D. Richards and Ed Townsend.

the evening hours.

Mrs. Ed Savage and Mrs. Earl Adams gave a birthday surprise party for Mrs. Savage's husband Friday evening at their home on South Twelfth street. Five hundred was played durng the evening, after which a delightful luncheon was served, in which was included a large cake supporting 30 candles. Those present for the occasion

Roberts, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. bert Janz, Sol Janz, Miss Thelma Prince Byrd and Mrs. Dan Fry, Bebertson, Mr. and Mrs. Judson, all of Salem.

* *

casion of her 71st birthday. It numbers were in honor of the

A program and games filled in

Mrs. June Carter of Denver, who is supreme high priestess of the White Shrine, was in Salem into the order. They were Mrs.

und Mrs. Amy King of Raymond,

Mrs. Carter talked to the members following the ceremonial, and later refreshments were served. The committee in charge was composed of Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. E. D. Lloyd, Mrs. Henry

March 27. It will be held in the ning at the lodge rooms. Initia-

Friday evening the pupils of Miss Minnetta Magers spent a p'easurable and profitable evening in song and constructive criticism. The evening was planned for the benefit wich could be derived from the practice and Wash.

Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Banks. Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Adams, Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Al-

J. C. Heltzel, Miss Lillian Applegate, Mrs. Harry Styles, Mrs. millinery class. Tuesday morning. Charles Wilson, Mrs. Homer Gou- from 9 until 12 o'clock; advanced let and Mrs. E. L. Loose.

Alternates elected are Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Mrs. C. C. Best, Mrs. Thursday morning 9 to 12 noon; S. C. Dyer, Mrs. C. A. Holstrom, beginning sewing Thursday after-Mrs. Seymour Jones, Miss Fran-noon from 1:30 until 4:30 o'clock ces Richards, Mrs. O. P. Hoff.

Miss Edith Benedict, Mrs. David morning from 9 until 12 o'clock, Looney and Mrs. W. H. Byrd.

flowers.

123 N. Liberty St.

birthdays of Washington and Lin-

An enjoyable program was given by Barbara Frietchie tent, Daughters of Veterans, at its monthly social meeting Wedneslay evening, February 28. The oln, consisting of tributes to hese famous statesmen and l'fe iketche: Lincoln't Gettysburg adiress and the story of its setting; also a brief description of the reent observance of Washington's birthday in Paris, France. Among were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Syring. program.

current issue of Sunset. The article was written by Louise F. Shields of Portland. The work of Mrs. Gerlinger in leading the movement that made possible the construction of the woman's building on the compus is related. the most pleasing numbers was The woman's building is proa piano solo by Miss Truth Husnounced by experts, according to ton. The address of the evening was given by A. Loughridge, post Good Used Piano commander of Sedgwick post No. $5.00 down. $1.50 a week. 10, GAR. Light refreshments This is a real buy and won't vere served at the close of the last long—see it today. Geo. C. Will Music House 432 State Street New classes in sewing and mi-

Red Cross rooms.

COME SEE THE Lovely New Wash Goods

THE SPECIAL FINISH AS APPLIED TO

Linweave Cotton Goods

PRODUCES A FINISHED FABRIC OF MUCH SUPERIOR WEARING OUALITIES THAN ORDINARY PLAIN FINISHES

The threads become lustrous and wiry, not only giving strength, but appearance in all respects equal to linen. In simple words: Wears like linen, looks like linen, at onethird linen's cost.

Linweave Organdies

Priced 69c to 98c yd.

Domestic and Real Swiss, transparent finish, especially good for dresses for the Graduate, Bride, Debutante, Baby Caps, Ruffled Curtains, etc.

Middles.

Linweave Mercerized Batiste Priced 39c and 49c yd.

This is desirable for Dresses, Infants' Wear, Fine Lingerie Handkerchiefs, etc. Excellent quality.

Linweave Voiles

35c, 59c, 69c, 75c, 98c, $1.38 yd.

These are made of the best hard twisted yarns, not like the ordinary slack twist voiles. They are suitable for Dresses, Waists, Lingerie, Draperies, etc.

IN ADDITION WE ARE SHOWING A WONDERFUL ASSORTMENT OF GINGHAMS, TISSUE GINGHAMS, PURE LINENS, RATINES, NAINSOOK, LONG CLOTH, SUITINGS, BATISTE. Etc., Etc.

We aim at all times to give absolute satisfaction to all our customers.

I I I

CORSET SPECIALIST

115 Liberty St.