H. B. Warner in "The Sheik of Araby."
OREGON
Booth Tarkington's "The Flirt."
LIBERTY
"Love in the Dark," with Viola Dana.

Viola Dana will be seen today at the Liberty in "Love in the Dark."

Miss Dana was never cast in a role which made greater demands upon her versatility and skill. "Love in the Dark" combines the various elements which makes Miss Dana the popular actress which she is. She is given ample opportunity to indulge in her distinctive brand of comedy, and at the same time she is called upon to do some dramatic acting which might have proved difficult for an actress less skilled. Miss Dana was equally convincing and charming in her emotional as well as in her comic scenes.

"Fury," Richard Barthelmess' new production, has brought about the happy reunion of the star and Dorothy Gish, who fell in love with the part of the leading lady, which was written in the hope that she could be induced to play it.

"Fury" is a story of the sea in which for a time brute strength triumphs. To get the proper atmosphere, a four-masted schooner was especially chartered and was at sea for three weeks. The company roughed it in true sailor fashion, sleeping in the fo'c'stles and in hammocks. The result is a picture which has earned the praise of D. W. Griffith as one of the greatest pictures ever produced and a document of life. "Fury," a first National attraction, will be seen at the Oregon theater Wednesday.

"Fog on My Heart," now a Metro picture, with Laurette Taylor appearing in her famous role.

comes to the Oregon theater beginning Saturday. This fascinating tale of J. Hartley Manners' conception, with Ireland and England as the background, and the elfin ways and humors and pathos of the motherless little girl providing the main theme, has had 5,608 stage performances in the United States. Laurette Taylor created the role and has been identified with it ever since, even being known as Peg Taylor.

This picture, beginning as it will, Saturday (St. Patrick's Day) will without doubt be the most appropriate picture for that day ever shown the people of Salem.

"The Sheik of Araby," with the famous H. B. Warner as the romantic desert chief, will be shown at the Bigh theatre today. This latest of the ever popular Sheik stories is a thrilling romance of the desert lands—where a man is either white or yellow—both as to the color of his face and the color of his soul.

SITE SELECTED FOR GYMNASIUM

Willamette Board and Architect Choose Spot Near Former Location.

Three important facts about the new gymnasium for Willamette university have been definitely settled. The money is ready, the architect selected and on Saturday the board picked the exact site.

This site will be near where the old gym stood, only a little farther to the back of the campus, so that the new structure will run close to Mill creek, utilizing all the property on that side of the campus.

Architect Doyle of Portland was with the local board, and is now drawing the final plans to fit the ground. He is going east within the next few days, for a last look at other new gyms to pick up the very latest improvements. It is expected that the final plans will be ready for action within a month.

Placing the gym at the site indicated, sets at rest the question of moving the present athletic field. It puts to use some of the campus that has heretofore been only a weed spot. It had been proposed to put the new structure up on or near Twelfth street. This location is almost two blocks nearer to town, which is believed to be a decided advantage, besides using a heretofore unusable plot of campus ground.

Traveling Tailor Shops
England has a traveling tailor shop, something like the auto grocery trucks, which goes about through the country, stops at the villages on market days and measures customers for suits to be made and delivered later.

DEBATING TEAM LEAVES THURSDAY

Willamette Speakers to Present Arguments Locally Before Tour.

Wednesday at 11:30 the Willamette debating team will present its full debate program that it is to take on its 5000-mile tour of the United States, starting on Thursday, March 15.

The whole program will be given in the order the team appears in all of its seven appearances abroad.

The local team has the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, That the United States should enter the league of nations." Rodney Alden, senior, or Ward Southworth, freshman, will open the debate; Robert Notson, junior, will be the second speaker, and Robert Little, sophomore, will close the argument for the Willamette team. They will present their argument in this order for "the home folks" at the Wednesday chapel hour.

Leaving here Thursday, they are to meet the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks, on Saturday night, March 17. On the 19th they meet the Gustavus Adolphus college team at St. Peter, Minn. On the 21st they are to be at Appleton, Wis., to debate with Lawrence college. On the 24th they go to Wheaton, Illinois, to meet Wheaton college. On the 29th they are to be at Tucson, Arizona, to meet the University of Arizona. They will go against the University of Redlands, at Redlands, Cal., on the 31st, and the College of the Pacific at San Jose, April 1.

This is the most ambitious debate schedule ever undertaken by any western team so far as known at Willamette. It does not cover quite as many engagements as had been originally planned, but it means about all the work that the boys can do in the allotted time.

HIGH FEVER FOUND TO BE GENTLE JOKE

Girl Puts Thermometer in Hot Water Bottle Due to Desire to Deceive.

CHICAGO, March 12.—A flesh colored hot water bottle was the secret of a hoax by which Miss Evelyn Lyons of Escanaba, Mich., had been able to persuade doctors for three weeks that she had a temperature of 114 or higher, although in apparently good health. It was asserted tonight by Dr. Morris Fishbein, associate editor of the Journal of the American Medical association, who reported the investigation he made of the case.

The woman, who had once been a nurse, concealed a small hot water bottle in her bed, he said, and through pretended fits of coughing and hysteria, managed to place the thermometer bulb on the bottle long enough to drive the mercury to the desired point.

Dr. Fishbein who returned today from Escanaba, termed the girl a "hysterical malinger."

Whenever she was unable to touch the hot water bottle, Dr. Fishbein said the patient either inverted the thermometer and shook it; which caused the mercury to go to the top, or else broke the tube in a pretended fit of excitement and pain.

and that the 2-cent gas tax will yield $1,200,000. If the new gasoline tax is not referred approximately $400,000 more will come from that source to the highway fund this year or about $4,000,000 in all.

Million for Construction
"Of that $4,000,000 in the fund $2,000,000 will be required to pay interest and maturity on outstanding bonds. Another $1,000,000 will go toward maintenance and repair of existing highways, leaving but $1,000,000 for new construction."

"This year $179,000 in highway bonds are maturing. Next year there will be $234,000 maturing, the next year $797,000, and the following year, the last of my term, $1,297,000. Under the present bonding acts $40,400,000 is the limit to which the state can bond. There is now outstanding $26,700,000, and completion of existing contracts will require practically the entire issue."

Vote Next Year
"A referendum cannot be voted on until November, 1924. Its use would mean a million dollars less collected for highway purposes in 1923 and 1924 and an unlinked highway system during that time. "I am opposed to further issue of highway bonds. We must now collect and pay, repair and complete. It will cost approximately $5,000,000 to complete the Roosevelt highway. It will cost a like amount to complete the Dallas-California highway and other projected roads. Should the state of Oregon be restricted from matching government funds for roads in this state as it would be if the referendum on the gasoline tax is revoked? Should we be compelled to go without federal government funds during the next four years because we cannot match them?

Desirability Is Proven
"Those interested in calling the referendum are, I am sure, without full facts in the road situation. I am certain they desire that our highways be maintained and connected. And as for the gasoline tax as a proper tax, its adoption in Washington, Idaho and most other states of the union, and its proposed adoption in California is eminent proof of its desirability."

Bill Hanley Talks
"Bill" Hanley, the Bill Bryan of Burns, was a guest at the dinner and spoke for a few minutes. He said that he had just returned from a six months business visit in California, and he said that if Oregon would get some of the hang-together, help-one-another spirit of California, and put over the kind of cooperative sales agencies they have down there, Oregon would be infinitely better off. He believes in a 5-cent tax on gasoline for the benefit of the roads, but he doesn't favor the governor's income tax ideas. He doesn't believe that a man is necessarily guilty of crime for having been successful in business. But he is sure that the Oregon theory of tax-spending is wrong and that overhead is too big for what the state can produce.

Milt Miller Heard
Milton A. Miller of Portland spoke briefly, giving some taxation figures. There are some worse than Oregon, for which the crowd thanked him.

Salem Man, 60, Arrested on Serious Charge

William Barrett, for years a resident of Salem and at present employed by a local canning company, was arrested by Chief of Police Birchett and Officer Edwards yesterday on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He was later turned over to county authorities and will be arraigned before Judge W. M. Bushey in the county court this morning.

Barrett, who is said to be about 60 years old, is accused of making advances to Miss Myrtle Thornton, aged 17. The alleged offense is said to have occurred on the evening of March 7.
