

SOCIETY

ST. PATRICK'S DAY parties were numerous during the last week and many have been arranged for the coming days of this week. The approach of the Easter season will bring a new note into the entertaining. The coming two weeks will be especially gay because of the number of students who will be in Salem for the holidays at the Oregon Agricultural college and the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Lawrence Hofer, who returned to her home in San Francisco this week after a brief visit with relatives and friends in Salem was the inspiration for a number of delightful affairs during her visit.

Mrs. William Lytle was hostess Wednesday at a pretty luncheon party. Places were set for Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. Fred Thielson, Mrs. James Linn, Miss Lou Thompson, Mrs. William Burghardt, Mrs. Laurence Hofer, Mrs. Max Hofer, and the hostess. At four o'clock Mrs. Lytle served tea to Mrs. Ben Otcott, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. O. Locke and Mrs. William Walton in addition to her luncheon guests.

Miss Louise Thompson entertained informally with tea for Mrs. Hofer Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Louis Lachmund assisted the hostess at the tea hour. The guests bidden to honor Mrs. Hofer included Mrs. Max Hofer, Mrs. Fred Thielson, Mrs. James Linn, Mr. William Burghardt, Mrs. William Lytle, Mrs. Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. P. G. Andrae, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. Louis Lachmund.

Mrs. William Hamilton and Mrs. E. A. Colony were charming hostesses yesterday at a St. Patrick's day bridge party. Four year-old Lanita Bellinger in a charming and lovable frock was a pretty colleen who opened the door for the guests. Little Fredrick Thielson in a quaint costume assisted at the door. Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger won high score for the afternoon bridge game. Mrs. W. E. Anderson and Mrs. Bellinger assisted the hostesses during the afternoon and at the tea hour.

The guests bidden were Mrs. Robert Duncan and Mrs. Alfred Adams of Silverton, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. Frederick Schmidt, Mrs. Grover Bellinger, Mrs. L. S. Geer, Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. H. L. Stiff, Mrs. E. T. Busselle, Miss MacGregor, Mrs. Beulah Mills, Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. Lynn Smith, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Roy Burton, Mrs. C. J. Green, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. Charles Bates, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. R. J. Valitor, Mrs. F. G. Bowersox, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. W. J. Busick, Mrs. Bliss Darby, Mrs. Wilson Darby, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Merlin Harding, Mrs. Elmo White, Mrs. Este Brosius, Mrs. Henry Compton, Mrs. Louis Compton, Mrs. Tom Galloway.

The members of the Epworth league of the Center street Methodist church were entertained at the home of Mrs. M. Reh'uss this week. A delightful evening was spent, each member bringing a dollar, and telling how he earned it. These will be sent to the support of a missionary in the foreign field. Quite a sum was realized. Ice cream and cake were served at a late hour to the league and their friends.

One of the prettiest and most charming of recent parties was that for which Mrs. W. C. Kantner was hostess Wednesday afternoon when she entertained for a group of the older women of the church. The biggest member of the group was Mrs. Martha Byrd, who is 87 years old. The youngest member of the group was 65, and the average age was 72 years.

Gay daffodils lent a bright and jaunty springtime atmosphere to the rooms of the Kanther home. A dainty tea was served later by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Constance Kantner.

The guests bidden included old friends of Mrs. Kantner's during a previous residence in Salem. During the afternoon Mrs. Kantner read Tom Moore's poem, "Farwell."

Let fate do her worst, there are relics of joy—
Bright dreams of the past, which she cannot destroy;
Which comes in the night time of sorrow and care
And bring back the features that joy used to wear.
Long, long my heart with such memories filled,
Like the vase in which roses have once been distilled,
You may break, you may shatter the vase if you will
But the scent of the roses will hang round it still.

The guests bidden to the happy party were Mrs. Martha Byrd, Mrs. W. P. Lord, Mrs. Josephine Taylor, Mrs. Elizabeth Kirk, Mrs. Fannie Mathews, Mrs. Abbie Farrar, Mrs. Mary Duane, Mrs. Josephine Brown, Mrs. B. Morse, Mrs. M. N. Chapman, Mrs. Viola Smith, Mrs. H. C. Fox, Mrs. S. Phillips, Mrs. Elizabeth McCracken, Mrs. F. A. Thompson, Mrs. Dolman, Mrs. R. L. Wilkinson, Mrs. Ida Babcock and Mrs. Mary Cauthorn. Miss Nellie Taylor, who has celebrated her 79th birthday, was the "youngest miss" of the party.

Keep Your Feet Young

Some women still think the face gives the first warning that Time is robbing them of their youthful vigor and freshness. But it is the feet that often warn first and then complain with increasing frequency until the face unconsciously takes on a stern, pained or irritated look.

Dr. Elinor Van Buskirk says: "The woman who wears a cramped shoe is bound to have a cramped disposition. She can't help being irritable, critical and quick tempered."

Foot Ease Helps You

Wear the Cantilever Shoe and find out what it means to be foot-free. When you see Cantilevers you will like them for their trim lines. When you wear them you will discover that their more natural shape and the curved arch, which is flexible like the arches of your own feet, allows your feet a new comfort. The flexible arch allows the muscles of your foot to exercise and strengthen. In Cantilevers, you should accomplish more and feel better than ever before.
