Prunes Withdrawn—Oregon prunes will virtually be withdrawn from the New York market as a result of action taken by the dried fruit committee of the Oregon Growers' Cooperative association at a meeting here Friday. The reason for this is that the New York quotations are now below the association's quotations. Interior markets are still buying at association quotations and sales to these points are being made regularly. Members of the dried fruit committee who were here are Allan Bellinger, Scotts Mills; Kemik Fate, Myrie Creek; and George Zimmerman, Yamhill. The meeting was in conjunction with the board of directors.

Boosting for Miller—State Senator Sam Garland of Lebanon was in Salem yesterday to see Governor I. Percie in the interests of Frank J. Miller of Albany for the state highway commission. Garland thinks Miller would be a logical successor to R. A. Booth, should the latter resign from the commission as he is expected to do. There is a persistent prediction that the governor will name Milton A. Miller of Portland to succeed John B. Yeon when Yeon retires. Frank J. Miller was formerly a member of the public service commission.

Daughter Born—A little daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Petersen, of 455 North Twentieth street, Salem. She will be christened Jeanette Marie.
