Mrs. Charles H. Castner, worthy grand matron of the Eastern Star in Oregon, will inspect the local chapter tonight. Mrs. Castner is former president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs and is a member of the scholarship loan committee of the federation. Judge and Mrs. George H. Frank Rosebraugh, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh, was married Sunday morning in Portland to Miss Estelle Graybill. Both are former Oregon Agricultural college students and members of their fraternities, Alpha Chi Omega and Sigma Chi, together with members of the immediate families were the only guests at the wedding.

The wedding was at the First Presbyterian church and Rev. Dr. Bowman officiated. The bride wore a beautiful frock of silk crepe of cocoa color. Among the out of town guests at the wedding was Arthur Rosebraugh of the University of Oregon at Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosebraugh left Sunday for a wedding trip into Washington and they will live in Salem where Mr. Rosebraugh is associated with his father in the W. W. Rosebraugh company.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Rosebraugh are well known in Salem and have many friends here.

Miss Adalade Lake visited with friends and relatives in Salem Saturday, returning to Portland Sunday morning.

Governments would do well to remember it is opportunity that makes traitors.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Speculators for the advance succeeded in bidding up prices to substantially higher levels in virtually all sections of today's stock market as a number of the popular industrial issues soaring to new high records for the year. Professional operations were aided by a fairly large volume of week-end buying orders from the outside which were attracted by Saturday's rally, but the demand fell off perceptibly towards the close, when the call money rate was marked up to six per cent after renewing at five. The industrial averages closed at the highest levels since the spring of 1920.

Pool operations were vigorously conducted in the domestic oil group, buying being influenced by reports of dividend increases in the near future.

Gulf States seal crossed par for the first time this year and closed 2 points above Saturday's final price and crucible gained 1 1-8, other steels closing fractionally higher.

Trading in rails was relatively quiet, although a few shares were accumulated on speculative expectation of unusually favorable February earnings reports.

Time money was quiet but firm with brokers bidding 5 1-4 and bankers asking 5 1-2 per cent, some business being done at both rates. The commercial paper market was more active, the bulk of the prime names commanding five per cent. Further strength of French francs, which were quoted just below 6.50 cents, was the feature of the foreign exchange market. Demand sterling was quoted around 4.70, up about a half cent. Canadian exchange was conspicuously weak, falling to 97 7-16, a new low record for the year.

FAMILY EXPELLED SCANTILY GLAD

Former Member of House of David Tells of Hardship Thrust Upon Him.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 19.—(By the Associated Press)—John W. Hansell and his family were expelled from the Israelite House of David, scantily clad and with only 100 and tickets to their former home, Nashville, Tenn., following a midnight conference at which he was charged, with assault and his son was threatened with arrest according to testimony given by Hansell in federal court here today in his suit against the colony for $80,000. The amount the plaintiff contends is the value of property turned over to the Benton Harbor cult when he became a member and the value of his labor during membership.

Hansell declared John J. Sterling, at that time prosecuting attorney of Berrien county, attended the midnight meeting and had a part in his expulsion.

Frightened by the charges against him, Hansell declared, he agreed to leave the colony signing a release for himself and Mrs. Hansell and receiving therefor 100 and the railway tickets. Some of the clothing worn by the family at the time was offered as an exhibit to show the condition in which they departed December 28, 1920.

Hansell and his wife were the only witnesses called today.

Questioning by his attorney disclosed some of the alleged beliefs of the colony. Benjamin Purnell, head of the cult, claimed to be "the younger brother of Jesus" and "one of the messenger angels," according to Hansell.

In reply to questions by their attorneys both witnesses said they had no knowledge of immoral acts by Purnell.

Their property, they said, was turned over to the cult, along with their labor, "for the kingdom's sake." The "kingdom" they explained, was to be attained by men and women living as brothers and sisters and its attainment meant immortality on earth. Hansell is slated to return to the stand for cross examination.

Coming Sunday, Charlie Chaplin in "The Pilgrim."

"The Christian," from Sid Hall Cain's novel of the same name, is coming to the Oregon for four days starting Saturday. The title role of this production, which is probably the most desirable cinematic plum of the season, was awarded to Richard Dix, after tests were made of every available actor. Many brilliant names in filmdom were eliminated by Mr. Dix for this important part, but after he had honed the coxswain and impersonated John Storm before the samers, the director and Goldwyn officials were unanimous in saying that he was the best of the lot.

Bethlehem Steel Shows Decrease in Returns

NEW YORK, March 19.—The Bethlehem Steel corporation's annual report for 1922, made public tonight, shows net income of $4,605,330, as compared with $10,332,804 in 1921, and gross sales and earnings of $131,866,111 as against $147,794,352 the year before. The consolidated balance sheets show an unappropriated surplus of $19,050,674.

The report shows that at the beginning of the year 1922 the plants of the company were operating at 30 per cent of capacity, the lowest operating rate for many years past. Commencing in March the rate of production gradually increased until at the end of the year the volume of business warranted full operations. Capacity operation is expected during 1923, the report said.

Rex Ingram's latest production, "Trifling Women," will be seen for the first time today at the Oregon theater. This will be Salem theatergoers' first chance to see the sensational Ramon Navarro, of whom it is said he will surpass Rudolph Valentino in popularity. Ramon Navarro plays the part of Ivan in this picture which is a distinctly worthwhile photodrama. The balance of the cast are brilliant, and include Lewis Stone, Barbara La Marr, Edward Connelly, Pomeroy Cannon and Hughie Mack.

A Bacchanalian revel, staged with Oriental splendor and lavishness amidst bizarre backgrounds, with hosts of beautiful dancing girls, is one of the features of "The Bishop of the Ozarks," Finis Fox's special production for F. O. B., starting today at the Liberty. These episodes are among the most colorful in the production, veiling in appeal to the eye with beautifully photographed scenes in the heart of the Ozark hills.

"Douglas Fairbanks in Robin Hood" represents a real literature of the screen, genuine and historically accurate in costume and setting, and truthful in every small detail, as well as in important parts.

It blends facts and fantasy, history and legends, and combines the glories of poetic and artistic beauty with an authoritative interpretation of the spirit of romance and adventure prevailing in the Twelfth century. "Robin Hood" is coming soon to the Oregon.

Lovers of the horse, those who like fast-moving melodrama on the screen, those who admire a dare-devil young woman as courageous as she is beautiful, and those who love the thrill and tingle of the race course on derby day will find plenty of enjoyment in "Queen o' the Turf," the big racing drama showing at the Bligh theater today.

"Queen o' the Turf" has been described by turf and screen critics who have reviewed it as another "Checkers" because it has all the big punch elements of that great old melodrama of the race track that thrilled the world on the stage more than a decade ago.

The Macy Baird's comedians opened their return engagement at the Bligh theater last evening to a well filled house, presenting one of the best shows they have given us yet, entitled "Which One Shall I Marry?" The show was enjoyed by everyone in the audience and each member of the cast handled their part in a capable manner.

This same show will be put on again tonight and tomorrow night, with an entire change of show for Thursday and Friday, a rip-roaring comedy, "Maggie and Jiggs at Newport."

Refrigerator Cars Will Be Sufficient, Believed

SEATTLE, Wash., March 19.—A shortage of refrigerator cars when next season's perishable crops are moved is unlikely, in the opinion of H. M. Adams of Omaha, formerly of Seattle and Portland in charge of traffic for the Union Pacific railroad. Mr. Adams who arrived here today on an inspection trip, declared that western roads had engaged between 12,000 and 13,000 new refrigerator cars to be ready by next season.
