State Property Invoice Asked by Sam A. Kozer

Secretary of State Sam A. Kozer has addressed a letter to the heads of all state departments and institutions asking for an invoice of all state property. The object of this is to tighten up the state financial machinery and in order that the money and property of the state and the accounts in which the state is interested may be properly accounted for under the law that places that duty in the hands of the secretary of state.

BRUSH COLLEGE

The regular Parent-Teacher meeting was held in the school house last Friday. The usual large crowd was present and the usual good program was enjoyed by all. Many from a distance were surprised to hear the high class of music which the pupils sang. They rendered choice selections in both major and minor keys and ended by giving "Voices of the Woods," by Rubinsteln.

An interesting debate was given the subject being "Resolved, That the training received by an individual in the home is of more importance to him than that received in school."

The leader of the affirmative was U. G. Lehman, assisted by Olive Whitney and Arthur Utley. Dr. Blodgett led the negative, his colleagues being Mrs. C. C. Page and Al H. Steiner. All gave good arguments making the decision close, 2 to 1 in favor of the school or negative. At the close of the debate Mrs. McCall rendered an instrumental piano solo and responded with another after a hearty encore. Then all went to the spacious basement of the school house, where refreshments and a social time were enjoyed.

DIXIE BREAD

A new Dixie delight—Sandwiches

Just try this any time you have the "crowd" over, Sunday evening, or for the kiddies' lunches. It's a new revelation for the palate and will make your parties looked forward to with eager anticipation when the word is said, "luncheon is served."

3 hard boiled eggs 1 tablespoon cottage cheese
1 small green pepper 1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 cup chopped walnuts Dash of salt
Mayonnaise

Chop pepper and eggs in wooden bowl. Add other ingredients and mix well with mayonnaise until of paste-like consistency. Spread over crisp lettuce leaves and serve between dainty slices of fresh Dixie Bread—and oh! it's so good.

And be sure you tell your grocer you want DIXIE BREAD for sandwiches—he's anxious to serve you the best—that's why he recommends DIXIE so highly.
