CORVALLIS, Or., March 15.—Games with fast amateur teams of the Willamette valley before the opening of the conference schedule are to supplement the early training of the Oregon Agricultural college baseball team, according to announcement by Ralph Coleman, Portland Pacific Coast league pitcher, who is coaching the Aggies' nine.

Coleman's pitching material includes Alfred Woodward, who came near signing with the Detroit Tigers but decided to remain at O. A. C., Frank Mendenhall, veteran hurler from last year's team, and Charles Newbill, Harold Riddings, Andy Street and Percy Blackstone from last year's freshmen. Mike Duffy, last year's catcher, is the only receiver listed. Infielders from last year are Felix Fors, Dick Garber, Glenn Perry and Hilbert Tasto. Three veteran outfielders are Tom Rippey, Chester Noonan and Frank Kramien.

 May 1—Washington State at Pullman.
 May 3-4—Idaho at Moscow.

Chicago National League Club Not to Protest Rube

CHICAGO, March 30.—The Chicago National league baseball club will not protest any games it plays against Cincinnati in which Rube Benton pitches, President Veck said today when told of the reported turn of affairs regarding the pitcher.
 "The Chicago club was one of the clubs which voted against Benton coming back into the national league," Mr. Veck said immediately after Commissioner Landis had declared Benton eligible to pitch the matter so far as the Chicago club is concerned.
 "If we can't beat him on the field, we certainly will not try to beat him by politics."

U OF W WINS SHOOT
 SEATTLE, March 30.—The

University of Washington rifle team won last week's triangular telegraphic shoot with the University of Nebraska and the University of Southern California according to word received here today. The scores were: Washington 3,503; Nebraska 3,298; Southern California 3,259.

U. of C. Is Confident Of Victory Over USC

BERKELEY, Cal., March 30.—The University of Southern California track and field team is going into the meet with the University of California here tomorrow confident that Charley Paddock will pile up points in the 100 and 220-yard dashes; that Otto Anderson will roll up the score on the high and low hurdles and that Norman Anderson will top the day by walking away with the discus and shot put. Beyond these six events the Trojans refuse to voice their predictions or hopes but they admit Yale marts "should run away with the 440."

Tomorrow's meet will be the second conference meet between the Trojans and the Bears, the first resulting in a 73 to 58 victory for the University of California.

Money Raised for Dallas Community Building

DALLAS, Ore., March 30.—(Special to The Statesman.)—The benefit card party and dance given in the armory last night by the Dallas Women's club was one of the most enjoyable social events of the season in this city. The party was given by the club in order to raise money towards the building of a community house, the club intending to co-operate with the American Legion in the erection of a building.

The big building was decorated for the occasion with a profusion of greenery, with apple blossoms and pussy willows interspersed, which made the room very attractive. The success of the party can be credited to Mrs. H. A. J. Gelin, who had charge of the affair, and to the various committees working under her. A large number of people from Salem and other cities of this vicinity were in attendance.

still in their berths and others were preparing to arise. Many were assisted from the windows and apertures cut in the cars and others, more seriously injured were carried out by rescue parties, hastily formed. Ambulances and private automobiles removed the dead and seriously injured, while others received first aid on the scene and continued on a roller train made up in Columbus.

Besides the three occupants of the automobile the dead were two members of the train crew, one passenger and a negro who was riding "blind baggage" on the train.

The occupants of the automobile were instantly killed, as were most of the others. That more was not killed was attributed to the fact that the Pullman coaches were of steel construction and did not crumple up, despite the fact that their trucks were torn away and they were piled against the overturned locomotive.

Portions of the automobile and its occupants were carried for more than a block. The track was torn up for a city block and traffic blocked.

EXAMINATION IS RENEWED

Francis Keenan Admits He Phoned Daugherty Regarding Justice Job

NEW YORK, March 30.—Renewing his examination of the relatives of Dorothy Keenan, slain model, late today, Assistant District Attorney Pecora announced that Francis Keenan, her brother, had admitted he was the man who telephoned Draper Daugherty, son of Attorney General Daugherty, after the girl's death and asked him to make good a promise to get him a job in the United States department of justice.

Francis Keenan, who was the first witness called, was questioned for more than an hour and a half by Mr. Pecora and Police Captain Carey of the homicide bureau.

To Re-Examine Mitchell. Pecora announced he would conduct his examination far into the night if necessary and that he would devote an hour at least to questioning each member of the Keenan family, all of whom were present in the criminal court building this afternoon.

Francis Keenan was accompanied by his mother, his brother, John, his sister, Mrs. Helen Whitson, and by the family attorney, Deacon Murphy, all of whom succeeded in entering the private offices of the district attorney without the knowledge of scores of reporters and photographers who had been awaiting their arrival since morning.

Shortly after the examination began, Mr. Pecora announced he would reexamine J. K. Easley Mitchell of Philadelphia, the girl's wealthy admirer, and John H. Jackson, confidential counsel to Mitchell tomorrow.

Water Is Found in Drums By Curious Prohi Agents

NEW YORK, March 30.—Water was found by prohibition agents today in all of the 10 drums seized by them as evidence last night when Thomas Craven and Frank Dorian of Boston and several other persons were arrested on charges of conspiring to violate the Volstead act. United States Attorney Clark announced, however, that the conspiracy charge would stand, with a half pint bottle of alcohol, said to have been exhibited as a sample of the stuff in the barrels as evidence.

will reveal whether or not he had any part in the plot."

Trip Is Delayed. Mr. Burns said he didn't expect to reach Los Angeles for 10 days, according to present plans. He declared he is touring the country inspecting the various offices of the department of justice bureau of which he is the director.

"The investigation of the department of justice into the Wall street explosion has never been dropped nor will it be until the perpetrators are brought to justice," he said. "It is my personal opinion, however, that Wilson had nothing to do either with the construction or the placing or the firing of the bomb."

Mr. Burns is here with Mrs. Burns, who is ill of bronchitis. He said that his departure may be delayed until her condition warrants her making the trip.

LOST VETERAN IS IDENTIFIED

telegram from Dr. Rand that the description tallied with that of one Harry Gorman, who had been a patient in the psychopathic ward in a Los Angeles hospital. The name "H. Gorman" was found scratched on the lost veteran's shoe and also written on the lining of his coat sleeve. Late this afternoon the Red Cross received a telegram from William Gorman of Minneapolis believed to be the father of the "lost" veteran, saying his son Harry was at Long Beach, Cal., with his brother. A wire was at once sent to Long Beach to see if the elder Gorman was correctly informed but no reply has yet been received.

MURDERER ADMITS WALL ST. BOMBING of the organization, now director of the bureau of investigation of the federal department of justice, was on his way to investigate the Los Angeles Times report that Herbert Wilson, nationally-known criminal, had confessed to having helped make the bomb used in the disastrous Wall street explosion of 30 months ago.

Mr. Burns left this city nearly three weeks ago on a mysterious mission. His wife said he went south.

The head of a criminal department of the detective agency who formerly was with the department of justice said, however, that Mr. Burns had gone south and then west, and probably now was on his way to Los Angeles.

New Evidence Secured. The criminologist implied that the Burns' organization had recently come into possession of new and important evidence, which promised to reveal the main conspirators in the explosion.

"We have been after the big ones," he said. "If any names are revealed at Los Angeles, we shall be able to make some interesting disclosures."

At least 15 persons have been arrested and released at various times in connection with the Wall Street explosion. Chief among these was Wolf Lindenfeld, who, cable dispatches said, admitted a part in the conspiracy when he was arrested in Warsaw.

He retracted the reported confession of a New York detective who went to Warsaw to question him. Lindenfeld came to America, but was held on Ellis Island and last December was ordered deported.

Others arrested and subsequently released included: A noted tennis player arrested in Canada after he claimed a psychic influence led him to foretell the disaster.

A former convict in a Wisconsin penitentiary, later found to have been in prison when the explosion occurred.

Five seamen taken from a ship at New Orleans. Two men and a woman of Cleveland.

Two Pittsburgh men, one jailed later as a draft dodger. A. Bayonne, N. J., truckman, who was able to establish an alibi.

A wrestler arrested in Omaha who proved he was wrestling in the west "a day or the blast."

Track Not Lost

Max Wolfe is a native of Poland, a communist, a member of the executive committee of the Third Internationale, and has been in this country but he has never been arrested as a suspect in the Wall Street bomb plot. Allen O. Myers, who trailed Lindenfeld to Warsaw for the department of justice, declared here tonight.

Myers who now is assistant general manager of the Burns agency, characterized Wilson's mention of Wolfe as "interesting if true."

"We have not lost track of Lindenfeld or Wolfe either for a day," he declared. He knew he said that Wolfe was intimately associated with recognized executives in the higher councils of communist movements, both here and Europe. He declined to say on which side of the Atlantic Wolfe might be found at this time.
