Riches, Mrs. Harry Wenderoth, Mrs. H. J. Maurer, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. H. J. Still and Miss Eunice Craig.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nnuu, who have gone to California, were delightfully honored by a number of affairs before their departure Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Jones and Mrs. Charles H. Whitmore were delightful hosts Friday evening at a large dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Nunn at the Jones country home. Daffodils and spruce centered the pretty dinner table, at which places for 16 guests were laid. The guests bidden included Mr. and Mrs. Nunn, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. Kittle Graver, George Gouchour of Eugene.

Additional guests were invited for coffee in the evening and included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. The Thursday Afternoon club will meet this week for the regular April meeting with Mrs. A. N. Bush at her North Capitol street home. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. F. A. Elliott and Mrs. C. A. Parks.

Mrs. S. P. Kimball entertained the Piety Hill club at her home Thursday afternoon this week. Mrs. E. Cooke Patton was joint hostess. A pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed by the members. Members of the group include Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. F. W. Spencer, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. J. H. Wallace, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mrs. Reuben P. Boise, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Fowle, Mrs. T. H. Kay, Mrs. Ersel Kay, Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mrs. Hartley, Mrs. Effie, Mrs. W. E. Kork and Mrs. E. Cooke Patton.

Mrs. Clarence Thompson was a charming hostess on Wednesday when she entertained for her niece, Miss Thelma Young, on the occasion of her birthday. Miss Carolyn Erickson of Portland was an out of town guest and won high score. Two tables of five hundred were in play.

Miss Cora Talkington entertained last week at an Easter party for the members of the primary department of the First Congregational Sunday school, of which she is superintendent. Fifty-two children attended and 18 mothers were also present.

Yellow daffodils, jonquils and Easter lilies made a pretty spring-time setting for the affair, which was held in the church. Miss Talkington was assisted by Mrs. E. Carlson, and Ethel Livesley Thelma Young and Genevieve Edicott assisted in serving.

Friends of Mrs. Edward Lamport will be happy to know that she is coming homeward from the south where she has been for some time. She is now located at the Hotel Larnie in San Francisco where she will be for several weeks before coming back to Salem.

Mrs. Lamport has been in Palm Beach, Fla., and is making a leisurely trip through the southland.

Mrs. W. P. Lord and Miss Elizabeth Lord and Mrs. N. J. Hoat spent the week-end in Portland.

Miss Carolyn Erickson of Portland has been the house guest of her sister, Mrs. James Nicholson and while here has been the inspiration for a number of pretty social affairs.

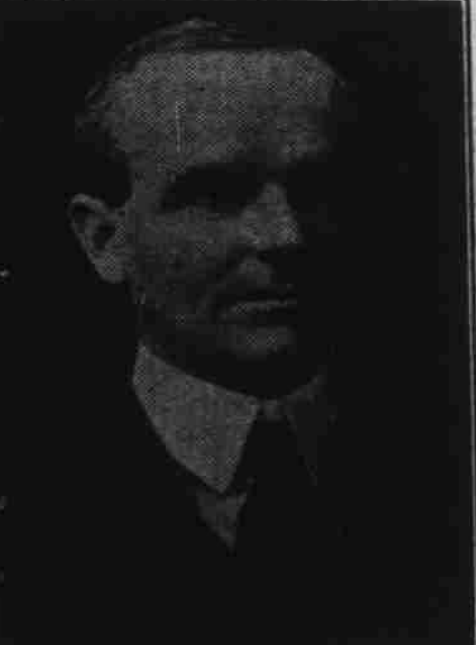

The studio-residence of Prof. T. S. Roberts on Friday night was the scene of an outstanding Willamette university function. The Girls' and the Men's Glee clubs were guests together at a banquet in the conservatory.

fect added not a little to the occasion. The three long tables, at which were seated more than 50 guests, were so spaced as to direct the eye to the north side of the studio where the stage was arranged.

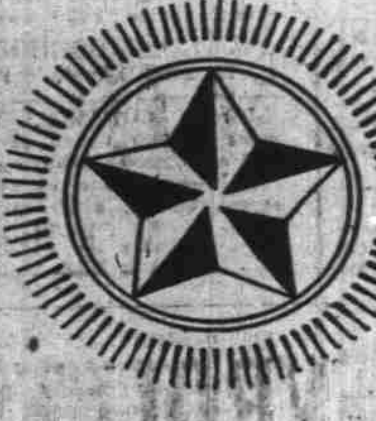

A novel program effectively alternated with the courses. Preceding the cocktail, the "Roguish Ump," a group of musical artists from Lausanne hall, delighted the guests with clever selections. A gleeful Japanese stunt and a color skit, the first by Faye Spaulding and Carol Cheney, and the second by Virgil Anderson and Lowell Beckendorf, successfully filled the next interval. Preceding the salad course, Delbert Moore and Willard Carey enacted an "uproarious skit," after which Elsie Hop Lee gave the "Dance of Salome." Following the fourth course, Louise Zehrbis, in costume, sang "Normandy." The desert course called forth Martha Mallory and Virgil Anderson, followed by the Glee Club cabaret.

A special orchestra furnished the interluding music. During the progress of the banquet Miss Genevieve Findley, accompanist for the Girls' Glee club, was presented with a basket of American Beauty roses as an expression of gratitude for her services. Byron Arnold was in charge of the banquet.
