Funeral services will be held in the chapel of the Webb Funeral parlors April 9, at 2 P. M. Interment in City View cemetery.

Card of Thanks—We wish to thank the G. A. R. Women's Relief corps, Sons of Veterans, Auxiliary of Sons of Veterans, Daughters of Veterans, and our friends for the beautiful floral offerings and the sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our husband and father.—Mrs. R. T. Leeper, Alice Bancroft, Charles Leeper, Leon Leeper.—Adv.

Highway Soon Open—The Old Oregon trail between Pendleton and La Grande will be opened up to traffic about April 10, the state highway department announced Saturday. The highway has been closed by snow all winter.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Boys' Band Serenades—Willamette university and the State house were serenaded Saturday by the boys' band from the state training school. The boys then gave a street concert downtown. The band has been developed under Superintendent and Mrs. W. L. Kuser with the cooperation of Portland business men who furnished the instruments for the boys.

Oleson Wants Divorce—Alleging that his wife sought the company of other men, took frequent automobile rides with one Larson and at one time was discovered behind locked doors with the latter, Olaf Oleson yesterday filed suit for divorce in the circuit court against his wife, Marion E. Oleson. Her faithlessness began, the complaint alleges, in the spring of 1922 and continued until April 1923, when the above indiscretion is said to have occurred. Since April 5, the complaint states, the two have not been living together. The Olesons were married in Jenner, Alberta, Canada, and have two minor children. Oleson asks in his complaint that the custody of the children be awarded to him.

ROYAL—Mrs. Mary J. Royal, former resident of Salem, died Thursday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rev. Skipworth, at Portland. The funeral will be held at Portland on Monday, April 9, at 2 o'clock; the body is to be brought to Salem Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, for interment in the Jason Lee cemetery. Local arrangements are being made by the Rigdon mortuary.

Book Review Tonight—Beginning this evening, Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick is to give a series of Sunday evening book reviews at the First Methodist church. Tonight he will use as his text, "Painted Windows," an anonymous English work signed only with the nom de plume of "The Gentleman With the Duster." It is creating much literary and religious comment, both in England and in this country. Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick has taken up some other notable books, during the year, and has used their teachings with telling effect.

Today and Monday—A sample line of up to date dresses will be on display at Mrs. Stiths millinery store. Call early and get your choice.—Adv.

Will Repeat Play—When the South Salem Community club put on the play "Mrs. Briggs' Poultry Yard," several weeks ago, they came near making themselves famous. The play has been called for, all through the country tributary to Salem. They have given it at a number of points, always with success. Because the wholesome, playful play has been so successful, the Mothers' class of the First Methodist church has persuaded the South Salem people to stage it in Waller hall Tuesday night for the benefit of the charity fund of the class, one of those objects being the furnishing of a room in the Old People's home, recently opened on Center street. The play has made a genuine hit because of its excellent staging and its humor and its teachings.

SALEM IS GOOD ENOUGH FOR Dr. Mendelsohn
One third of a century in the optical business of which fourteen years has been spent in Salem, and between fifty and seventy-five thousand prescriptions, is the record of Dr. Mendelsohn.
Dr. Mendelsohn confines his practice to the treatment of the eye because he has found that a large percentage of bodily ills originate in the eye, through the coordination of the eye with the nervous system.
Dr. Mendelsohn has the latest and best equipment that the market affords for the examination and correction of eye troubles.
Office opens Tuesday morning for business. Phone 723 for appointments—evening consultations by special appointment.

Will Honor Dentler—Some of the Salem military men are planning to go to Portland Monday night to attend a reception being given to Colonel Clarence E. Dentler, for 42 years with the regular army and assigned to the national guard. He has been assigned to the Oregon National guard for some years past, and his life-long training has been of the utmost value to the guard in all things military. The event in effect is to mark his retirement from active military service, and to place him on the retired list after a long and noteworthy career as a soldier.

Americanization Class—A class of American citizenship is to appear before the circuit court Wednesday for naturalization. Anticipating the event, Secretary Kella of the YMCA, announces that on Monday night, at 7:30, there will be a special session of all the candidates who are to attend, and they will have
