U. of O. to Enter One Team at Washington

University of Oregon will enter at least one team in the University of Washington relays at Seattle April 23, according to announcement today by Trainer Hayward. It has previously been the intention of the trainer not to send a team because of lack of material but during the past few days some of the men on the squad have shown good form as distance runners.

A delegation of four sprinters will be sent to hear the Oregon colors in the 800 relay with each man running 200 yards. Hayward will not pick the team for some time but Captain Larson and Oberstoffer, Oregon's veteran and speed merchants, will be the nucleus of the team, he said.

Collins to Confer With Kearns Over Gibbons Bout

CHICAGO, April 11. — Mike Collins of Minneapolis, representing 120 American legion posts of Montana that have offered Jack Dempsey $200,000 to box Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul at Shelby, Mont., July 4, left tonight for Salt Lake City to meet Jack Kearns, manager of the heavy-weight champion. Collins desires to get Kearns' acceptance or rejection of the offer, which expires Saturday noon.

He said that Dempsey would be paid $50,000 the moment he signed articles. In the event the match is not staged Dempsey will get an additional $50,000. Collins said. The $200,000 guarantee to the champion has already been raised, according to Collins. The proposed match is 15 rounds to a decision.

MAY BE OUTLAW

CINCINNATI, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Ed Roush the recalcitrant outfielder of the Cincinnati Nationals, will in all probability play unorganized baseball this season. The outfielder said late today that he would leave for his Oakland City, Ind., home tomorrow and start overtures with industrial league teams.

SCREEN STARS IN FOR LONG RUN WITH THE TRACK'S CRACK SPRINTER.

Here they come—Doug Paddock and Charlie! They did the stunt at the field games recently held at the University of Southern California, the colors of which Paddock wears. Fairbanks appears in the picture to be a bit ahead of Charlie Paddock, for all the weight Doug is packing in the way of clothes. Chaplin undoubtedly is higher in the air than the others, and has both knees drawn nearly up to his chin, which is all wrong for a hurdler.

Examinations Play Havoc With Oregon Track Boys

EUGENE, Or., April 11.—The examinations at the close of the last quarter at the University of Oregon dealt harshly with the Webfoot track squad and as a result four of the men whom Trainer Hayward has been counting on for a winning team are ineligible according to announcement today. The men declared ineligible are Ben Virdon and Leo Webber, hardy, Bill Spear, all-around field event man and Vic Bracher, javelin thrower. The loss of Spear is an especially hard blow, says Hayward, for the big football star looked like a comer in the broad jump, the shot put, the discus and the javelin.

WORLD COURT IS DEFENDED BY HOOVER

(Continued from page 1) elective body that we join, not the league. Another section of the opponents of President Harding's proposal condemn it because it does not go far enough; because it has no teeth in it. This is the basis of Senator Borah's objection. I admit the enlightenment and the courage of his position. He would have an international court of such strength that it would try war itself and would have us join it in such a manner that we would be obligated to its jurisdiction. Senator Borah's international court in its relation to the nations would be somewhat an analogy to the supreme court of the United States in its relation to our states. "Now, by all means, let us not quarrel—on the contrary, let us have admiration and respect—for those who show the vision and the courage to go this whole distance. But let us admit that as a practical matter, for reasons familiar to all of you, America is not ready to go this far."

OLYMPIC GAMES SAID PROBLEM

Under Present Conditions Two Russias Would Enter Events, Committee

ROME, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The question of nationals of former enemy countries participating in Olympic games still remains unsettled, notwithstanding that the international Olympic committee discussed it two hours this afternoon. Another question before the committee was that of the participation of Russia in the games and it was finally decided to refer both to a special committee which will make its report to the main committee tomorrow.

Baron Piere de Coubertin, president of the international committee, told the Associated Press today that the Russian situation was a very difficult one for the international committee to handle. "You see," said Baron de Coubertin, "there are 4,000,000 Russians residing outside Russia. Generally they do not look with favor on the present government in Russia and therefore would want to come into the games under their own jurisdiction. This would mean, if soviet Russia and the Russians abroad were invited to take part in the games, that there would be two Russian flags at the stadium."

Concrete Roads Best, Declares Col. Boyden

"Concrete roads well built according to our specifications will last 100 years, and then be good to start in on the second century lap," is the statement made by Col. H. C. Boyden of Chicago, field representative for the National Portland Cement association. This association is a non-sales, scientific research organization, with 95 per cent of all the cement makers of the nation in its ranks. They have lecturers and scientists to work out every possible problem of cement service, and they are giving their service to the world that uses their products. "Every man, every day, comes in contact with cement in some form," asserted the speaker, "and he should know how to get the best service out of it."

APRIL 17 NOT LEGAL HOLIDAY

Governor Explains Baseball Proclamation for W. F. Woodward

Tuesday afternoon, April 17, the date that the baseball season opens in Portland, will not be a legal holiday in Oregon, according to a letter written by Governor Pierce to William F. Woodward, chairman of the Portland school board, following receipt of an opinion from the attorney general. "The governor's office recently proclaimed the day a half holiday and it caused a considerable stir in the state. "As indicated by your letter," writes the governor, "Mr. Woodward there seems to be considerable misunderstanding as to whether or not the afternoon of April 17 is a legal half holiday and whether or not it is compulsory upon all the schools and other institutions of the state to close their doors on the afternoon of that day. I beg to assure you that it is not compulsory under a proclamation issued by this office for any institution to close its doors on the afternoon of April 17. The legal procedure for calling a legal holiday by the governor was not complied with. The proclamation was one intended largely to suggest that institutions which so desired close their doors rather than to make such action binding and compulsory."

BEDLAM RULES IN COMMONS

Labor Wields Heavy Stick Against English Parliament and Uproar Reigns

LONDON, April 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—Perhaps never since the days of Parnellite obstruction has such a scene of violent uproar been witnessed in the house of commons as that which today transformed the ordinary placid and dignified chamber into absolute bedlam. The disorders arose primarily out of the government's defeat by a small majority on a mere technical point last night. Today Stanley Baldwin, chancellor of the exchequer, introduced a motion framed to counteract this defeat only to meet with a storm unexampled in present day parliamentary annals, in the face of which the speaker, powerless to obtain a division, declared the motion carried under closure and the house adjourned until tomorrow.

The Laborites clearly felt that they had a big stick to wield against the government in the interests of ex-service men, which was the question originally before the house. In this attitude the labor members are likely to receive the support of the whole laborite electorate. Two views prevailed tonight over the exciting events. One, the government side, although some of the members admit that Mr. Baldwin and the other ministers acted somewhat flippantly and that the government was hasty in invoking the closure motion, it was mostly held that when the house meets tomorrow the effervescence will have subsided and some means of accommodation will be found. On the other hand the laborites characterize the plan devised by the ministers and declare that strict adherence to parliamentary tradition would have dictated the resignation of the government.

SALEM HIGH WINS FROM STAYTON

Only One Error Marked Against Locals—Visitors Get Two Hits

Salem high school baseball team won from Stayton Wednesday afternoon in a fast, interesting even though one-sided game so far as the scoring went. The locals made it 9 to 0, mostly by playing an almost errorless game, only one error being marked against them, while the visitors had a number of errors that counted heavily against them. Blumenberg started in to pitch for Salem, and struck out seven men in the six innings that he stayed in. He gave the visitors only one hit in all that time, and they failed to carry it on. Ellis relieved him in the seventh, and he, too, gave only one hit. Jones, catcher, made a home run in the second inning, and in the third, with two men on, Reinhart hit a two-bagger that scored both the runners ahead of him. The whole Salem team played fast, clean ball.

The locals go to McMinnville Friday afternoon to take on the high school team there. A merchant placed the following sign in his window beside an umbrella display: "The papers say 'clear' tomorrow—you know what that means—get your umbrella today!"
