While there she spoke on school problems of momentary interest. She also visited schools at Mount Angel, Monitor, Union and Harmony.

Cooked Food Sale—There will be a home cooked food sale by the Business and Professional Women's club Saturday at Stiff's Furniture store.—Adv.

Cost Bill at Issue—A protest against the cost bill submitted by C. A. Harwood and Grace Libby against the Southern Pacific company, was filed in the county clerk's office yesterday by attorneys for the SP company. It is claimed that both employees witness requests pay for four days when in reality pay should be for two days, both cases having been delayed a few days. The company asks that a total of $52 in claims be not allowed.

Have Your Draperies Made—And hung correctly. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.—Adv.

West Salem Church—Services in the West Salem Methodist church will be held tomorrow as follows: Sunday school at 9:45, Epworth league at 8:30, and church services at 11 o'clock and 7:30 in the evening. Matt A. Goodspeed is superintendent of the Sunday school and Miss Irma Simmons will lead at the Epworth league in the evening. The public is invited to attend.

Oswald's Greater—10 Serenaders at Dreamland Saturday night.—Adv.

May Advance Date—Ordinarily the Salem Cherris have found it necessary to postpone the original date set for the annual Blossom day for the reason that the prune trees have not bloomed early enough. This year however, the trees are already well in bloom and it will probably be necessary to advance the date, which has been set for Sunday, May 6.

Alderman's Father Dies—George Alderin, alderman of the Oak Park district of Salem, received word Friday of the death of his father, George Alderin, Sr., at the old family home in Mandan, N. D. He left during the afternoon, with his little son, Harold, for a visit with the home folks. The Alderins had lived in Mandan for many years. The Salem alderman was born there, coming to Salem 11 years ago to establish his new home. The mother died a number of years ago.

Show Does Well—Fully 1000 people attended the Washington Junior high vaudeville program at the Salem high school auditorium Thursday night. The athletic fund has prospered to the amount of $235 from the show, and the athletes could be fairly rolling in wealth if there weren't so many of them to be cared for out of this athletic fund. With more than 500 students, they will have only about 40 cents per head for all kind of athletic supplies, which doesn't get as far as first base in outfitting teams. But they say them are mighty thankful to the public for the liberal patronage.

Big Dance—At Dreamland Saturday night. Big crowd; everything snappy.—Adv.

Army Pension Received—Harry Gould of Salem recently received a United States army pension, secured through the services of Congressman W. C. Hawley and Ronald C. Glover, his former secretary. Mr. Gould served in the First Montana Infantry in the Spanish-American war and lost the use of one eye through the explosion of a shell in northern Luzon in 1899.

$700 Player Piano—Like new. Excellent tone and action, $332. Don't miss this bargain. Terms to suit your pocketbook. Tallman Piano store, 395 S. 12th street.—Adv.

Novelty Is Presented—A real novelty is being presented at the Oregon in the Comptance Talmadge play, "East of West." The play is laid in the heart of China, where the American missionaries are making some progress with their schools, and in keeping with the play all the young women ushers of the house are dressed in silks and pigtails and ornaments right from the flowery kingdom. It gives a picturesque touch of reality to the play, a bit of atmosphere that fits the dainty show. Organist Hawley has a line of oriental music that was especially attractive for its novelty. The show is on for three days.

Free—Five hundred pounds of ice with each refrigerator purchased this week. H. L. Stiff Furniture company.—Adv.

Water Company Reports—The annual report of the Salem Water company was filed yesterday with the public service commission by Charles A. Park, president of the company. The report shows 167 new connections during the year, including hydrants the company had 4325 connections at the beginning of the year and 4996 at the end. Meters owned by the company the first of the year totaled 1367 and 377 were added. Commercial consumers jumped from 2927 to 2946; irrigation consumers from 1663 to 1817; and one new hydrant was added. There were 1302 metered consumers and 1669 at the end of the year. Operating revenues for the year were $109,536.62, an increase of $9053.88. Operating expenses were $57,508.14, or an increase of $2731.19. The net operating revenues were $52,028.48, or an increase of $6322.69.

$600 Used Piano—High grade, in good condition, $135; terms like rent. Investigate this. Tallman Piano store, 395 S. 12th street.—Adv.

Change of Stage Schedule—The Central Motor Bus Line, running between Salem and Albany, Corvallis and Eugene, is making some changes in schedules, as shown by an advertisement in the Statesman of this morning. This line connects with other stages running to the south, as far as Ashland. It also connects with the Portland stages. For instance, one may take a stage at Portland at 7 o'clock in the morning and go by stage without missing any connections, clear through to Ashland at 9:15 in the evening.

Music by orchestra. Beginning Sunday at 2:30 p. m., April 15, 1923. Leading topic, "Old Time Primitive Religion." Come and bring your friends. You will enjoy every minute. All welcome. No collections.—Adv.

Store Room for Rent—19th and State St. Phone 316.—Adv.

Four Fatalities Reported—Four fatal accidents out of a total of 626 industrial casualties were reported to the state industrial accident commission for the week ending April 12. The fatal cases were D. Guiseppette, Estacada, construction foreman; Alfred Rasmus, Lakeside, farmer; Fred Featherstone, Independence, right of way man; Joseph M. Jones, Independence, right of way man. Of the total number of accidents reported 579 were subject to the provisions of the workmen's compensation act, 43 were from firms and corporations that have rejected the act and four were from public utility corporations that are not subject to the act.

Order Tulip Bulbs—When you can see the flowers. Single-earlies for porch boxes and beds are now in bloom at the Tulip Farm.—Adv.

Attend Portland Show—A number of the Salem Realtors went to Portland Friday upon the invitation of the Portland Realty board, for a day's outing. They dined with the Portlanders at the Multnomah hotel, and were their guests in city sight-seeing. They attended the Home Beautiful exposition, similar to the one that the Salem realtors plan to sponsor in the local armory within the next few weeks. The Portland show was fatered by the Portland Realtors. The same two men, Hendrick and Hoppes, who are heading the Portland show, are to be in charge in Salem. The local Realtors in the party were Mrs. Gertrude J. M. Page, George Grabenhorst, Rich. Reimann, R. A. Harris, A. W. Estes and Miss Ruby Rosencranz, secretary of the realty board.

Don't Miss Hearing—The great evangelists at 420 State, Sunday at 2:30.—Adv.

Cook Not Coming—Capt. C. Hamilton Cook, national commander of the Disabled Veterans of the World, was not to reach Salem on Friday, as had been scheduled. He was in Portland Thursday, and accepted an invitation to see the Columbia highway on Friday, which prevented his coming to the capital city as he had announced he would do. The Portland papers say that he is going direct to San Francisco, from Portland. While there is no branch of the Disabled War Veterans in Salem, there are many who are interested in the cause, and a large number of calls were made for Mr. Cook at the Marlon, where it had been announced that he would register.

Start Now—And be ready for the next big demand. New classes Monday. Capital Business College.—Adv.

Decorator Locates Here—F. Ray Felker, for two years a theater decorator and scenic artist in Portland show houses, has come to the Oregon in Salem for a permanent engagement. He will have charge of all the decorative and advertising work in the lobbies, the hotels, the theater-front, and wherever pointed displays can be used. The imposing entrance to the Oregon offers a fine place for artistic displays, and the new artist expects to make of a delightful place to see.

Vick Barquist and J. Ferrell—New proprietors, barber shop, 341 North Commercial street.—Adv.

PERSONAL
James C. H. Wolfe of Liberty was in the city yesterday on business. He is chairman of the school board of that district.

HOTEL ARRIVALS

GLEE CLUB ENDS WORK FOR YEAR

Successful Season Closes With Pleasing Concert in Salem Last Night

The Willamette Glee club ended the concert season in general last night with an excellent mixed program of ensemble singing and solos and instrumental numbers. The club sang a number of songs; nearly half of the numbers presented, giving a fine opportunity to display its strength in singing together.

The outstanding singer of the evening, was P. M. Blenkinsop, who demonstrated his wonderful power and control, both in choruses and solos. As a solo he sang "The Bandleiro," a song of the bold bandit of Spain, and accompanied by the string trio. The trio, composed of Delbert Mooré, Avery Hicks and Byron Arnold, was also one of the evening's treats. Aside from the accompaniment, the trio played two numbers, both excellently presented, Marche Militaire, by Schubert, and Waltz, from Sleeping Beauty, by Tschalkowsky.

Mr. Moore and Mrs. Arnold gave solo selections on violin and piano. Mr. Moore playing Romance, by Bruck, and as an encore, German Dance, by Tausig. Mr. Arnold gave Turkish March by Rubenstein, and Donybrook Fair, by Scott. The Romance is a very heavy concert piece, offering fine opportunity to show the powers of the player. The Turkish March, a pianoforte solo, is as much an oriental march as any to be found in Turkey, and twice as beautiful. It betrays its western origin quite plainly in its intricate construction.

The Pool of Tears, a skit by Anderson and Grallap, proved to be anything but tearful, consisting of a very flexible song, carried on as a duet between Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shea, and a collection of clever dialogue jokes. A dramatic cutting from Les Miserables, ably read by Roy Skeen, and solos by Jack Vinton, and Edward Warren. The Bit-terness of Love, and the Blind Ploughman, were other of the special features.

Among the chorus numbers, The Great Awakening, by Kramer, and Christ in Flanders, by Stephens, were most appreciated, as being the deepest in content. The Old Historic Temple, Willamette's ode, was sung with the audience standing in an impressive manner. The opening selection, The Song of the Timber Trail, was a fine swinging march song, showing at the outset the freedom from restraint and perfect rhythm with which the club sang.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral of Mrs. Charlotte Lansing will be held from St. Paul's Episcopal church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be at the mausoleum where services will be private. Mrs. Lansing is survived by her widower, Maj. Edwin Y. Lansing, a daughter, Sarah Lansing, and a son, Edwin Edwin Y. Lansing, Jr., of Portland. Friends are invited to the church services.

Any regime under which people can secure food, clothing and lodging is preferable to one under which they cannot.

DIED
Mcbroom—Mrs. Jalle Mcbroom died at 1345 Broadway street, April 12, 1923, at the age of 79 years. Mrs. Mcbroom is survived by one grandson, Rowland Mcbroom of Pilot Rock, Oregon. Funeral services will be held in the Jason Lee church April 14, at 3:30 p. m. Rev. Acheson will conduct the services. Interment will be in the Jason Lee Mission cemetery.

MAYOR TALKS ON GOOD GOVERNMENT

Giesy Urges Lions Club to Assist Council in Enforcing Statutes

Mayor John B. Giesy was the principal speaker at the Lions' club luncheon Friday noon. He gave a good talk, too; a me-and-you friendly talk on the business of running a city with everybody taking hold and helping wherever help is needed.

"There are men whom we know and respect by day, who go by night to undo the good of the day," said the mayor, telling of the difficulty the officers have in enforcing the laws. The constant pressure of those who claim to be law-abiding, to evade or break down laws that they personally like, and to throw obstacles in the way of law enforcement, makes city management a hard task. He urged the Lions to co-operate in law enforcement; to help with their voluntary evidence of any law violations, and to do their part in making and keeping Salem clean.

The mayor denied being a crank, but he said that he had spent many hours around the city of nights looking after some of the shady things that had been called to his attention. Some of the night life catered to by a certain class of taxi-drivers, he said, is becoming less the vogue than it used to be. Some of the bad-acting drivers have been advised to find other employment, because they wouldn't be given taxi licenses. One driver complained that he had even been thrown out of the pool halls where he had spent his time—and the mayor told him that he himself had instructed the pool hall men to shut their places to him, or to his own licenses. The mayor asserted his wish to clean up all this questionable living, and to make the capital city of the state a safe and clean place for living.

The mayor paid a high compliment to Alderman Lion Rosebraugh, whom he designated as one of the outstanding supporters of good government and a clean city. He spoke of the rapid growth of the city, as evidenced by the great demand for new paving. The city is hoping to handle 50 blocks this year, but a far larger total has been asked for.

"I hope that you'll come to me with any kind of a plan, at any time, for the betterment of the city," said the mayor. "I'm your public servant, and I want to serve. I'll come or go anywhere, at almost any time, to consider anything for the common good. I hope you'll help a lot!"

The club, through its acting chairman, Lion J. J. Rottle, thanked the mayor for his address.

Clever Blouses For Spring

Your spring suit may be grave but your blouse must be gay.

Especially captivating are the Paisley Jaquettes in true Paisley red over a navy background.

Then there are the beautiful crepe blouses hand embroidered in silk or beads with others in a combination of silk and bead embroidery. Work? My yes, but beautiful almost beyond words.

We carry a large stock of the larger sizes which will be welcome news to quite a number of women who have found it difficult to find blouses "right up to the minute" in the larger sizes.

Canton Crepes are cleverly made in colors of navy, tan, poinsettia and rose wood. Some have the Peter Pan or Ford collars while others are collarless.

You will be pleased with our showing; may we call your attention to our window.
