FOR SALE OR TRADE-FOR CITY Buying of Wheat Is Renewed and Market Closes Strong in Price

CHICAGO, April 17,-Unfavorable crop reports led to renewed buying of wheat today and resulted in bringing about a material advance in prices. The market closed strong, 1% to 21 cents net higher, with May $1.25 % to $1.26 and July $1.23 % to $1.23%. Corn gained % to 1 14 cents and oats 1/8 @ 1/4 to 1/2 @ %c. In provisions the outcome Salem inside lots $100 and up corn varied from 7 cents decline to rise of 2 cents.

Nebraska and Ohio crop proslots in the Oaks addition. A restricted pects were in particular regard as district, where many fine homes are new incentives to purchase wheat estimates being current that both states would harvest much smaller vields than last year. In Ne brasks the estimate was on the basis of at least normal weather for the remainder of the season until the crap matures. Ohio re ports indicated much heavier acreage abandonment and lower Portland, in Washington, price $20000, condition than was reported in $6000 to $9000 cash, long time on bal- the last week of March. Bullish crop advices from Indiana, Illinois and Texas attracted special notice also in the late trading and were in some degree responsible for the fact that closing quotations were at the day's top> most prices. Taken in connection with the dubious outlook as to spring seeding in the northwest and also in the light of previous disturbing reports from important winter wheat states such as Kansas, thec rop news put bears at a disadvantage from the outset. The United States supreme court decision upholding the validity of the grain futures act seemed

Corn and oats reflected the wheat advance. Besides the corn market was helped by an estimate that the Argentine exportable surp us of corn was the smallest in five years. Provisions declined with hogs, and because of the semi-monthly report on lard stocks here.
