THE SOCIAL AFFAIRS of the week have been a reflection of the spring time atmosphere, with much entertaining for guests, musical events and pleasant informal entertaining.

The musical tea Friday at the library brought together a large group of interested musicians and others interested in the opening of the new music department of the library.

Representative and Mrs. Willis C. Hawley have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Iris Hawley to Samuel Steere Tourtelot, which took place in Washington, D. C., Friday, April 20. The ceremony was read by Bishop William L. McDonald in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Tourtelot will make their home in North Scituate, R. I., where Mr. Tourtelot's home is located. The bride, who has many friends in Salem, has not been here for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawley are on their way home from Washington, having left for Salem yesterday. They will arrive here during the coming week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush are leaving this evening for California. They will be gone for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pettit were hosts last night for a dinner party to which eight guests were bidden. The occasion was the 16th anniversary of their wedding.

A basket of red carnations centered the dinner table where the color scheme in red was carried out in the place cards and other appointments.

The guests bidden were Col. and Mrs. George A. White, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Koser, Ben W. Oicott, Mrs. Kelsier, I. R. Smith and Mrs. Elsie Elsamman.

Miss Henrietta White entertained with a line party at the Oregon theater Saturday afternoon, followed by tea at the Gray Belle. Miss White's guests were Miss Margaret Stoltz, Miss Helen Marcus, Miss Mabel Marcus, Miss Helen Roberts, Miss Violet Dusenbury, Miss Ruth Kuhn, Miss Charlotte Zeller, Miss Florence Jones, Miss Alice Southworth and Miss Iva Claire Love.

A delightfully rendered program featured the musical tea given in the library Friday afternoon. The occasion was the opening of the music department of the library and musicians, friends and patrons called between the hours of 3:30 and 5:30.

The Williamette string trio composed of Byron Arnold, piano; Delbert Moore, violin, and Avery Hicks cello, gave a group of two numbers. The second number, Andante Cantabile, was one of the numbers of the program which was most enjoyed. It was given with a charm which comes from the earnest endeavor of the young players who have played together even so short a time.

Dr. John R. Sites sang a group of three classical songs in German, French, and the last in English. His almost perfect pronunciation and enunciation of the German and French songs was a treat to those who heard him.

He so seldom sings for even the most special occasions that the opportunity to hear him at this time was appreciated. His voice has a unity of strength and assurance which is appreciated. Miss Lena Belle Tartar sang a group of three songs of Schubert's, all of which were delightfully received. The first, "Frühling Laube" was an unusually pretty bit of song and was perhaps most appreciated of her group although "Hark, Hark the Lark" brought out the spring-time theme in a different and more thrilling manner.

Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr., talented Salem pianist, played a group of three numbers which, too, hinted of the spring time in definite form. Her "Garden's in the Rain" was a number especially appreciated.

The program was as follows: Tchaikowsky—Waltz. (Ballet music) Tchaikowsky—Andante Cantabile—(from quartet in D maj.) Trio—Avery Hicks, cello. Delbert Moore, violin. Byron Arnold, piano. Padermsky—(French) "Rapelle en ton Coeur" (From opera "Elaine") Wagner—German "Traume" (Dreams) Kennedy Russell— "Vale" Dr. John R. Sites. Debussy—"Jardins sous la pluie" (Gardens in the Rain) Grieg— "To Spring" Rachmaninoff—"Polchinnelle" Mrs. W. H. Burghardt. Schubert—"Frühling Laube" (Faith in Spring) Schubert—"Who is Sylvia" Schubert—"Hark, Hark, the Lark" Lena Belle Tartar.

The main room of the library was lovely with quantities of spring blooms with bowls of apple blossoms and dogwood in profusion. Tulips in shades of lavender and rose were used on the tea table. Mrs. David Eyre and Mrs. Louis Lechman poured ed during the tea hour. Mrs. John W. Harbison, member of the library board was in charge of the tea.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Miss Flora Case, head librarian, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. Louis Lechman, and Mrs. R. L. K. Page, past members of the library board, Mrs. D. W. Eyre, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. Roy D. Byrd and Mrs. F. L. Utter wives of members of the board, Mrs. J. W. Harbison and Mrs. Frank Spears, members of the board, Mrs. John Sites and Mrs. Fred Thielson.

Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn was a charming hostess Thursday for a bridge luncheon. The luncheon was served at the Gray Belle and the guests later went to Mrs. Rahn's home for bridge.

The guests bidden were Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Bob Roberts, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. E. V. McMeachan, Miss Grace Bean, and Mrs. Clifford Farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith were hosts for the OAC club at their court street home Friday evening. Joint hosts for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pope and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McClaren.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Worth were hosts Wednesday evening for a dinner party at which covers were laid for 12. The evening was spent playing five hundred. High score went to Mrs. Karl Kugel and H. A. Cornoyer.

The guests bidden for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. George Arbuckle, Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Bowersox, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kugel, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer.

Mrs. M. A. Newell of Los Angeles is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph L. McCallister, who entertained in her honor informally this week.
