CLEVELAND IS AGAIN WINNER

Philadelphia and Washington Quit Even After 12-Inning Game

CHICAGO, April 27.—(American)—Chicago's defense went to pieces when Crogross weakened and Cleveland overcame the local's lead, tied the count and then won out in the seventh by bunting his off Levelett. It was the sixth consecutive game the Indians have won from the White Sox. Kamm's hitting and fielding was a feature.

Score— R. H. E.
Cleveland 8 10 1
Chicago 6 10 3

Edwards, Morton, Metevier and O'Neil; Wyatt, Crogross, Levelett, Blankenship and Schalk.

New York 4; Boston 2
BOSTON, April 27.—(American)—Timely hitting by Witt and Dugan, combined with two costly errors, helped to give New York two runs in the second inning, brought a defeat to Boston today. Jack Quinn, pitching his first game since a small bone was broken in his right hand at Madisonville, Ky, three weeks ago, pitched well.

PACIFIC U WINS FROM WILLAMETTE
Score is 7 to 3—Batting and Fielding of Isham is Feature

Pacific university made it unanimous record Friday afternoon by beating Willamette in baseball, after having done the same thing in football and basketball earlier in the year. The score was 7 to 3.

About the most sensational thing about the game was Isham's two home runs for Willamette. The stocky little Bearcat swings a regular Babe Ruth bat, and it doesn't take long for him to make the circuit of the bases when a man has hit the ball for three blocks down the street. Isham made one other safe base hit—and then the pitcher beamed him with the ball for the next time up, rather than take a chance of his making another four bagger and driving in a run or so ahead of him. Isham made one sensational running catch back of third base that looked impossible.

Willamette had no one in good condition to pitch a winning game. Robertson and Robbins were both lame, though Robbins pitched one of the best games of his life in the few innings that he served. Ambora, for Pacific was going well, and while he did not establish any great strike-out record, the Willamette batters were able to make only seven safe hits. Pacific made 10 hits and three errors. Fred Salsgivers, who, charged against the local team.

Word of Salem served as umpire called them especially and to the general satisfaction of the players and guests.

Almas of Pacific injured his ankle quite badly, sliding to a base early in the game and was replaced by Harrison.

The two colleges are to hold a track meet here on May 12, during the annual May day festivities engineered by the junior

BEAVERS EVEN UP IN ANGEL SERIES

Vernon Climbs Into League Leadership By Beating Salt Lake

PORTLAND, April 27.—Portland evened the series by taking today's game from Los Angeles 5 to 2. High wab hit hard in the first two innings. A feature of the pitching of Manager Jimmy Middleton of the Beavers. The first batter facing Middleton singled and brought in a run, but thereafter he was invincible and only four singles were made off him.

Score— R. H. E.
Los Angeles 2 6 1
Portland 5 9 0

Hughes, Hannah and Baldwin; Sullivan and Byler.

Vernon 5; Sacramento 4
LOS ANGELES, April 27.—Vernon climbed into league leadership today by making it four straight against Sacramento, defeating the Senators 5 to 4 in a hard fought game featured by the home runs of French and Mollwitz and the cool mound work of Dell in the pinches.

Score— R. H. E.
Sacramento 4 10 2
Vernon 5 8 1

Panner and Cook; Doyle, Miller, Dell and Hannah.

Seattle 8; Frisco 4
SEATTLE, April 27.—The Seattle hitters continued on their batting rampage this afternoon, defeating San Francisco again 8 to 4. Carl Williams was in good form, while both McWeeney and Mitchell were hit hard. Seattle got five consecutive hits off the former in the fourth lining scoring five runs in this frame.

Score— R. H. E.
San Francisco 4 8 2
Seattle 8 14 2

McWeeney, Mitchell and Yelle; Williams and Tobin.

Oakland 7; Salt Lake 5
OAKLAND, April 27.—After being defeated in three games by the Salt Lake Bees, the Oaks today overcame a five-run lead and defeated the visitors 7 to 5. The Bees scored four runs in the second inning and another tally in the third, but after that they were helpless. The Oaks put over their winning runs in the seventh.

Score— R. H. E.
Salt Lake 5 6 1
Oakland 7 13 2

Kallio, Keller, Duchalsky and Peters; Ariett and Read.

Claplahoo, right fielder for the Indians, is credited with the most sensational play of the year, in his spearing a long fly in center field, seemingly rods beyond his possible reach, and in another man's territory. He is reckoned as the fastest sprinter in the school, and he put it all into that one mighty run. He speared the ball over his right shoulder while going close to a ten-second gait. Atkins, George, Buchert and Abraham for the Indians were credited with two hits each.

TENNIS PLAYERS LIMBERING UP

University and Local Association Men Meet; Aggies Come Saturday

An interesting series of practice games between the Salem Tennis association and the Willamette university tennis squad Thursday afternoon, gives some insight into the standing of the varsity boys for their rather heavy season series.

Bates of the locals took on Huston of the collegians and won two straight sets, 6-4, 6-3. Rice of Salem lost to Emmel, varsity, 1-6, 6-3, 6-2. Greenbaum of Salem and Wright lost to Huston and Emmel, 6-9, 9-7.

The scores indicate some curious reversals of form. Like the RiceEmmel match, where Emmel barely got a counter in the first set and then swamped the fast Rice. The doubles match, also, showed a great fighting comeback by the locals, for after losing the first Love set, they fought the next one out to a 7 count.

Huston was the third man in the invincible Willamette trio that cleaned up the rest of the northwest in 1922. They annihilated everything else in the northwest, and Huston, while not generally recognized as a seasoned player like Moodhe and Doney, earned his share of the games in which he played. He is safe and doggedly courageous, and a hard man to beat. Emmel is never, but he is lightning fast on foot, and he is likely to be a formidable player. Mickey also is rather new to the competitive game, but he has a good natural head for athletics, and is expected to be a good asset to the team.

The Willamette team plays the OAC team Saturday, the play to begin at 10 o'clock at the gymnasium or club courts. Last year the Beavers trimmed the Farmers with a good margin, though it was about their hardest match, according to the score. Little is known in Salem about the capabilities of the visitors for this year. The games will be open for the public.

Banker Baseball Team To Play at Silverton

The Bankers team of the Salem Twilight league will go to Silverton Sunday for a game with the American Legion team of that city. The Bankers are meeting several times each week for practice and are in good form for the opening of the Twilight league series on May 7. Haggard and Weeks will be the Banker twirlers and Ted Purvine will catch.

VARSIITY-INDIAN MEET BIG GUESS

Dark Horses Likely on Both Sides—Chemawa Nine to Play Prison

When the Willamette and Salem Indian school athletes meet Saturday afternoon for their annual track meet, things are likely to be pretty well mixed for both sides.

It is almost altogether a new lot of contenders on both sides. The Willamette team will be made up quite largely of freshmen, or of sophomores who did not quite make the grade last year in the face of exceptionally formidable senior and junior competition that is not now in the university.

The Indians, too, are mostly new to this part of the country. They come from Alaska, from every direction, many of them right fresh off the ice-floes and out of the fishing smacks. It will be a darkhorse race from start to finish.

There are some excellent performers who are quite definitely spotted, nevertheless. Shepherd, an Alaskan Indian, is said to have put the 16-pound shot better than 38 feet; that would get him a place in most college meets. He has beaten 20 feet on the broad jump, also, and has made 5 feet 2 inches on the high jump. In the shot-put, he will meet Stolthse of Willamette, a freshman, who should

DUAL MEET WILL BE HELD TODAY

Chemawa Indians Will Come to Salem for Tilt With Willamette

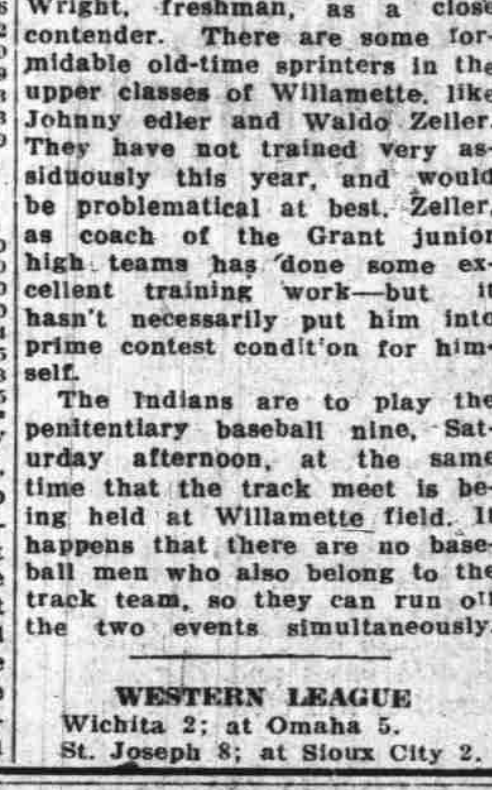

Willamette will hold the first dual track meet of the season this afternoon at Sweetland field, when the Indians come in to try their strength against the Beavers.

Willamette isn't exactly sure just what to expect from this meet. There are some excellent distance men on the Bearcat squad. Anywhere from a quarter mile upwards the collegians have a fine chance. They are less sure of their ground in the sprints. Bonney, freshman, who captured first in both the 100 and the 220 in the interclass meet, is under the doctor's care and may not be available for any competition. He is clearly the fastest man on the Willamette field today. With Satchwell and Wright at the quarter, and Hayes and Haines and Laird for the distance runs,

Some of the Willamette letter men will be available for this and all other outside meets who were barred from class competition. Among them will be Bill and Jack Vinson, pole vaulters; Albert Logan, mile runner; Strevey, high and broad jumper. None of these have been working very seriously this spring. Logan has been in part of the time, and it may fall to the cubs to make the records for this year, in all their competitions.
