

THREE — SLUG — THREE FOREST EXPERT LION SPEAKER

C. S. Chapman Urges Need of Conservation of Timber Resources

C. S. Chapman, of Portland, of the Western Forestry and Conservation association, was the principal speaker at the Lions' club luncheon Friday noon.

Mr. Chapman presented some very interesting reasons for the present national lethargy in looking after its forests.

Mr. Chapman urged that the time is here for everyone to realize that whoever owns a tree or a forest, it is a matter for grave public concern for it to be conserved, used and replaced so that the next generation shall not suffer.

Mr. Chapman said that while the tendency of those whose hearts are in the work is to be optimistic, there has recently been a great deal of progress made.

THINK CLARA WAS AIDED BY CARSON

Evidence Shows Jesse Carson Was Away From Home Night of Break

LOS ANGELES, April 27.—Jesse C. Carson, accused of helping Mrs. Clara Phillips, hammer murderer, to escape from the Los Angeles county jail, and now believed to be in custody with her and another woman in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, was away from home the night of the jail break, according to information which Asa Keyes, chief deputy district attorney said today had been given him today.

Carson was said to have left his home early in the morning of December 4 last, and to have returned shortly after noon December 5. Mrs. Phillips' escape was discovered the morning of December 5.

Keyes further stated he had been informed that although the first newspapers to announce the escape did not appear on Los Angeles streets until after nine o'clock in the morning, Carson told friends in Hyde Park, a suburb of the jail break before newspapers arrived there.

Carson was further alleged to have declared Mrs. Phillips had gone to Mexico and the authorities would never find her.

The authorities failed today in an effort to locate Mrs. Etta May Jackson, a sister of Mrs. Phillips, another sister, Miss Ola Weaver, declaring she could make no statement concerning Mrs. Jackson's whereabouts.

REVOLT THREATS IGNORED BY COURT

"Thousands of workers are in Seattle to enforce their rights," said an avenger. "Labor is impatient. These men are entitled to a speedy hearing. Unless they get it I shall not be responsible for what happens. A revolution may result from delay."

The defendants, released on $50 each, left court with their friends.

Mayor Brown said that his earlier expressed a desire to protect men gathered in Seattle to await the outcome of the strike in the woods from bootleggers and gamblers.

"While they volunteered to keep watch and to gather evidence wherever they found bootlegging or gambling," related the mayor.

"I accepted their services and entrusted them to turn over their evidence to the police department."

The program as outlined calls for a three-day celebration with a round-up in connection. The round-up will be held at the fair grounds and will be staged by Guy Ray, who successfully pulled off the round-up last year. The celebration will be held on the city streets and in the park. Upchurch of Texas May Decide to Locate Here

W. H. Upchurch, superintendent of the experimental farm at Dalhart, Texas, has been visiting his friends, Mr. and Mrs. George Ely, 147 Marion street, for the past few days.

While Mr. Upchurch's visit has been in the nature of a pleasure trip, he has also been carefully looking over the states of Washington and Oregon with a view to locating in one of these states some time in the near future. Mr. Upchurch will specialize in purebred swine and chicken raising.

He has been very favorably impressed with the Willamette valley and it is very probable that in the near future he will purchase a ranch, and make his home in this section of the state.

Some of his friends in Texas have asked him to look over the two states and if his report is favorable, it is probable that these will also locate in the Willamette valley, or in the place that meets with his approval.

Needless to say, Mr. Ely is a good booster for the Willamette valley and he will see that none of its merits are overlooked.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

Talking about irrigation— And talking about irrigation pumps— This is not an advertisement. It is straight news. There are many kinds of pumps; many good pumps. But there is a pump made right here in Salem, by the Salem Iron works, the Shand centrifugal pump, that has nearly doubled the capacity and may be bought at about a third of the price of the average pump of its kind—and that will outwear a dozen to 20 of the average pumps made to its kind of work, such as irrigation work.

Gideon Stols used to wear out a pump or two a year in pumping vinegar at his Salem works. He has a Shand pump that has lasted 21 years, and is still going strong. There are numerous such cases.

The manufacturing of this Shand pump ought to keep a big factory going here—perhaps will, for sales are growing like a green bay tree.

It is simply marvelous how much handsomer our friends are than our enemies.
