

APOLLO CLUB TO SING MAY 2

By MARGUERITE GLEESON

WITH all springtime calling Salem maids and matrons are deserting to an increasing degree each week the formal dinners, the bridge luncheons and the tea tables. Soon they will remove the tea table out of doors, but for the present many are content to play out of doors and then seek the pleasant tea table within.

Flower gardens, budding blooms and cloudless skies beckon, as does the long road and the shaded nooks—and one after another take their toll from the social whirls which for long months have delighted old and young.

Maytime, with its flowers and happy times will be of the present this week and then Juneteenth, commencement, the happy graduates and smiling brides of that busy month will take the first place of interest. Meanwhile, Salem's maids and matrons are reveling in the joyous, happy springtime.

One of the pretty spring luncheons of the week was that given Thursday in Portland by Mrs. Earl C. Flegel, honoring her of Salem, on the occasion of Mrs. Meyers' birthday. A number of Salem women were bidden by Mrs. Flegel to honor Mrs. Meyers.

Dogwood and wild currant were used in profusion about the rooms of the Flegel home. The luncheon table was lovely with spring blooms. Bridge was played by the guests following the luncheon hour.

Mrs. Ralph Watson, formerly of Salem, and Mrs. W. C. Kerroff were Portland guests for the occasion. The guests from Salem were: Mrs. Meyers, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. D. J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. H. H. Ohlinger, Mrs. F. L. Griffith, and Mrs. George F. Rodgers. The Salem guests made the trip to Portland by automobile.

Mrs. Milton L. Meyers is spending the weekend in Portland with Mrs. Earl C. Flegel. Mrs. Meyers will return to Salem Tuesday.

Mrs. F. L. Griffith is spending the week in Portland as the guest of friends and relatives.

Miss Jessie L. Bass, formerly a resident of Salem and now living in Seattle, was a guest in Salem during the last week. Miss Bass is a cousin of George G. Brown and visited at the Brown home and with other friends and relatives while here. She is returning to Seattle from two months' visit in California.

Mrs. Julius Beebe is home following a visit with her mother in Portland.

Mrs. William H. Lytle, who has been in Bend for several weeks, is now in Portland for a few days.

Miss Cornelia Marvin will entertain the Business and Professional Women's club at her home in Eola May 6. This meeting will take the place of the regular May meeting of the club. Miss Adelia Prichard, president of the state federation, and Miss Bertha McCarthy, president of the Portland Business and Professional Women's club, will be among those present for the occasion.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith returned late Friday from a three week's trip to California. They made the trip by automobile and went as far as the Mexican border. They stopped in all of the southern California cities and visited the sessions of the state legislature which will hold for several days yet.

Apollo Club To Give Concert

Of special interest in the music events of this week is the third and final Apollo club concert of the season to be given at the armory next Wednesday evening. This concert will close one of the most notable seasons of the club's history. Both active and associate membership has been considerably increased during the season.

Included in Wednesday night's program by the club will be a group of familiar and favorite folk songs, representing the Welsh, Scotch, English and American nationalities. The program will also include two selections from Prof. John R. Site's composition, "A Cycle of Rose Songs." These are being sung at the unanimous request of the Apollo club members.

Miss Constance Horn, mezzo-soprano, who will be soloist for the concert, will be accompanied at the piano by Miss Ruth Bedford, who is also accompanist for the Apollo club and whose ability in this special field of musical art has previously been recognized as being especially fine. It is Miss Bedford's intention to continue her musical education along this line. Miss Horn will sing all of her numbers in the English language. Her voice is said to be capable of every requirement, from the most tender of melodies to the dramatic intensity of the great arias. In many northwestern communities she has made herself a prime favorite as a concert artist and it is anticipated that Salem concert goers will be pleased with her.

Mrs. B. J. Mies and Miss Laura Grant were hostesses Thursday in honor of Mrs. Will T. Kirk who will leave within the next month for her new home in Portland. The Miles home was charmingly decorated with apple blossoms and other springtime blooms.

In addition to the members of Chapter G. and A. B. P. E. O., the guests were Mrs. Town, just recently moved here from Tacoma. Mrs. W. L. Kuser and Mrs. Welkie. The club members were: Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. W. H. Fryd, Mrs. J. J. Evans, Mrs. H. C. Epley, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Miss Laura Grant, Mrs. Harwood Hall, Mrs. A. L. Godfrey, Mrs. W. T. Hickey, Mrs. E. J. Huffman, Mrs. William Hughes, Mrs. W. T. Kirk, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Mrs. G. W. Laffar, Mrs. J. B. Littler, Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mrs. W. McGilchrist, Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. J. W. Moore, Mrs. H. S. Pelsal, Mrs. O. E. Price, Mrs. F. W. Selee, Mrs. T. A. Woolpert, Mrs. Ida Klein, Mrs. C. R. McCroskey, Mrs. Eys McLeod, May Rauch, Dr. Mary Rowland, Miss Grace Smith, Mrs. Harry Styles, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Mrs. Harry Wenderoth and Mrs. L. N. Meyers.

Marguerite Flower Ohlinger, an accomplished soprano, who was formerly a student at the state blind school in Salem and who has many friends in Salem, is to be soloist today for the chorus of the Portland Girls' Polytechnic school in Portland. The chorus will sing at the municipal auditorium at 3 o'clock. Miss Minnetta Magers is director of the chorus.

The numbers Miss Ohlinger will sing are: "Aria," "Je Veux dans le reve," "Romeo and Juliet," "Gounod," "Ho! Mr. Piper," (Curran); "My Laddie," (Thayer); "Spring," (Henschel).

Miss Pauline Remington is spending the week end in Portland as the guest of Col. and Mrs. Percy Willis. Miss Remington is a student at Willamette university and recently took part in the play "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," which was presented by the senior dramatic society.

The Thursday Afternoon Kensington club entertained Friday evening at dinner for their husbands. The party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Kafoury. Lilies were used in the decoration of the rooms of the Kafoury home.

The members of the club are: Mrs. W. J. Thompson, Mrs. Henry Morris, Mrs. L. L. Davidson, Mrs. Frank Power, Mrs. I. N. Dougherty, Mrs. Idleman, Mrs. Otto J. Wilson, Mrs. R. S. Nelson, Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, Mrs. Charles O. Wilson.

The American War Mothers will meet Tuesday in regular session. This is the regular May meeting.

Mrs. C. W. Brandt and daughter, Margery, are spending the week-end in Portland.

Miss Frances Richards and Miss Helen Pearce, both instructors at Willamette university, will leave early in June for a three months' trip in Europe. They will sail June 8 and will include Scotland, England, Belgium, Holland, Italy, France and Germany.

They will leave before the close of the university year and will return August 28.

Mrs. Allan Carson will entertain the Kappa Alpha Theta club at her home Monday afternoon.

A group of young women, members and friends of the First Presbyterian church, were invited to meet last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ward Willis Long on Chemeketa street. The meeting was called for the purpose of forming a permanent organization that would provide social intercourse and opportunity for combined service in church activities. After some discussion it was agreed that a Westminster Guild chapter would meet the need, and organization was effected. Officers chosen were Miss Gussie Niles, president; Miss Eva L. Walker, vice president; Miss Margaret Purvine, secretary, and Miss Ada Ross, treasurer. The chapter was named the "Conover Chapter of Westminster Guild," in honor of Miss Lulu Conover, now a missionary in China, who once lived in Salem and whose membership is in the Salem church. The time for meeting was made the third Monday evening of each month.

The part of the evening not consumed in the organization was spent with games and merry-making. Mrs. Long was assisted by Mrs. H. C. Wyatt and Mrs. L. N. Myers. The house was prettily decorated with tulips, daisies and forget-me-nots. Dainty refreshments were served to the following guests: Gladys Bartholomew, Agnes Bayne, Alma Burdick, Ocie Brown, Elizabeth Hogg, Pearl Reeves, Ada Ross, Lucile Ross, Muriel McKinley, Eva Walker, Jeannette Kietzing, Gussie Niles, Dorothy Stausloff, Helen Pearce, Margaret Purvine and Mrs. R. M. T. Hester.

The high school corps of the Girl Reserves held its annual ceremonial initiation services Thursday afternoon at the cabin in the Miles woods in South Salem. Fifteen girls were initiated into the club, some of whom have been very active in the work of the club, but have never had the formal initiation before, and some of whom are new in the work. The new members were as follows: Myra Barnhardt, Margaret Fehrmacher, Margaret Matthes, Anna Paulsen, Violet Peters, Madge Reid, Evangeline Heinick, Marie Harold, Ruth Draper, Madeline Bartruff, Elizabeth Fairchild, Viola Hoover, Edna Ellis, Josephine Seefeld and Veta Fitzhugh.

The following new officers were installed, to take the work of their offices at once: President, Elizabeth Fairchild; vice president, Esther Doffendorf; secretary, Helen Campbell; treasurer, Ella Hop Lee; chairman of committees: Program, Lavinia Berger; social, Bernice Mulvay; Service, Irene Breithaupt, and publicity, Ruth Payton. Clarion reporter, Louise Nunn.

University Club To Hold Lecture

"Ancient Men of Oregon" is the subject for Prof. Edmund T. Hodge's lecture which the AAUW will bring to Salem Friday evening, May 1.

Professor Hodge is recommended by the state bureau of geology as the speaker best qualified to lecture on the subject. He is head of the department of geology at the University of Oregon.
